They Want Their Pay-An incendiary Mauifesto is Issued-Addressed To Country and Powers.

New York, Jan. 16 .- Former members of the Cuban army are becoming restless, a Havana dispatch to the Tribune asserts; in fact they are beginning to threaten the government that if not paid by March they will act. The general of the insurgent army has handed to the correspondent a printed manifesto which is most incendiary in tone. It is addressed to the country and to the powers. Among other things it says: "The obligation of the government to pay the army is a sacred one. The liberating troops have waited patiently, but everything has a limit, The liberating army will not wait later than March for the completion of the work of the soldiers. We will not be further put off by the pretext that revision of army lists necessitates deay nor will we accept any other deay. The liberating army is disposed o call the attention of Europe, pacifically, but energetically to the fact that we do not care to create interior disturbances if no longer time is asked to pay us than March; but, if on the contrary, the army will reunite and oc-cupy every town from Point Maizi to Cape San Antonio, pacifically, this circular is regarded as a direct threat to revolt, although officials express doubts of such a probability. It is known, however, that several prominent gener-als are behind the movement. Such measures will hardly be necessary, though, as the government will pay the army immediately on negotiation of the loan of $$5,000,000, which will be made in April.
