SITUATION IN SERVIA VERY BAD.

Military Conspiracy is Far Graver Than the Government Dare Acknowledge.

A THOUSAND OFFICERS IN IT.

Assassins' Clique Are in Control and They Completely Surround The King.

London, Sept. 21 .- The Times' correspondent at Belgrade sends a review of the situation in Servia, in which he says the military conspiracy at Nish, directed at the regicides, is far graver than the government dare acknowl-of a total of 1,500 officers 1,000 are said to be concerned in it, and probably said to be concerned in it, and probably the bulk of the nation secretly sympathize with them. The clique of assassins, however, hold all the chief civil and military offices, the keys of the arsenal and the treasury, and any one crossing their path is doomed. The king is surrounded, and many doubt if he will ever shake himself free.

Minister Gentchitch, in whose house the regicide plot was hatched and wno conducted the secret negotiations with King Peter, is alleged to possess an incriminating letter which is kept hanging over the royal head. Lately, however, the regicides are beginning to realize that they have gone too far and

NEW METHOD OF MURDERING.

Wealthy Man Seized While Playing Cards and Poison Injected Into His Forehead.

BODY PUT IN A WICKER BASKET

Perpetrators of Crime Thought That Their Social Position Would Protect Them From Suspicion.

New York, Sept. 22 .- A case of murder by the injection of poison by means of a hypodermic syringe is reported, says a London dispatch to the Herald, by the Moscow correspondent of the Daily Mail, who writes that an unpleasant smell proceeding from a wicker basket which arrived as luggage at the Brest railway station in Moscow, and for which no claimant appeared, caused an examination to be made, when the body of a well dressed man was found, An examination showed that death had resulted through the injection of poison under the skin by means of a syringe. Inquiries were instituted which proved that the murdered man was a well-to-do land owner named Martin Tomashesky. The perpetrators of the crime have been discovered.

The chain of evidence is so complete that they have admitted their guilt. The circumstances under which the deed was committed are of a highly sensational character.

Tomashesky had no occupation and resided at a hotel. He was passionately fond of card with the circumstance.

resided at a hotel. He was passionately fond of card playing and visited a club every night, where he played for heavy stakes and was as a rule very fortunate. On the day of the murder his cousin called at the hotel and asked him to come to his mother's house to play cards with two other friends of the family. Then at a given signal has play cards the family. the family. Then at a given signal he was selzed, his mouth covered so that he could not cry for assistance and the poison was injected under the skin of the forehead. The three men then watched the effect of the poison for about half an hour, at the same time taking his money from his pockets, which they divided among themselves.

After their victim died they placed the body in a basket and one of the men tied a piece of cord tightly around the throat to make sure, as he says, that there could be no further trouble with the murdered man.

The perpetrators of the crime were confident that their social positions confident that their social positions would prevent any suspicion falling on them. It was only after the strong chain of evidence had been completed that they confessed.

BODD RAILROAD THIEVES. Try to Lock Themselves in Express Car to Rob It.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—A bold attempt by two men to lock themselves in a Michigan Central railroad express car with the express messenger, overpower him after the train had left the yards at Thirteenth street, and then rifle the two safes in the car was frustrated Sunday evening when the plans of the would-be robbers miscarried. William Ganghin, an express man, was knocked unbe robbers miscarried. William Ganghin, an express man, was knocked unconscious and gaged in the express car shortly after 8 oclock in the evening, and then the men discovered he was not the express messenger and fearing detection fied. This is the theory of the railroad officials. The express messenger, who has charge of the car, left Chicago at 3:30 this morning with one guard and about $25,000 in two safes in the car.

Ganghin said nothing was taken from him by the robbers, which leads him to believe he received a beating intended for Express Messenger Hall.

According to the railroad officials eight or ten weapons are usually kept in the car. Every evening except Sunday the cap leaves for the east of each in the car. Every evening except Sunday the car leaves for the east at 9:20 o'clock. At 8:30, the time of the attack last night, Hall, with an assistant, loads the money into the car and entering locks himself in, On Sunday evening the train does not leave until 3:30 a.m., and it is believed the change in schedule on Sunday, of which they did not know, frustrated their plans.

MARRIED HIS OWN TRUE LOVE But Joseph Krotkis Had to Have Police Assistance to Do It.

Police Assistance to Do It.

New York, Sept. 2L.—Joseph Krotkis of Jersey City has been compelled to call for police aid in order to wed the girl of his choice. Joseph lived in a distant part of the city when his engagement to Poleno Karepwell, a handsome girl, was announced. The beaux of the neighborhood where she lived denounced him as an interloper. They organized and when Joseph, gorgeously arrayed arrived in a carriage before the lady's door he was greeted by volleys of bricks and clubs from house-tops on both sides of the street. Joseph held his ground for a moment and then drove hurriedly away. His assailants were jubliant but their rage was redoubled a few minutes later when the carriage
