

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Elders Joseph Nelson and Joseph E. Taylor are the Speakers.

Religious services were held in the Tabernacle Salt Lake City, Sunday January 28, 1906, Elder Joseph E. Taylor presiding.

The choir sang the hymn beginning: Come all ye sons of Zion, And let us praise the Lord.

Prayer was offered by Elder H. C. Badger.

The choir next sang the hymn: Praise in the world's ancient choir, Chorus of song.

The President of the Second Ward officiated in the administration of the Sacrament.

ELDER JOSEPH NELSON was called upon to address the congregation. He said he knew the Lord is always with His people. Even in the past He has always been watching over His Zion with fatherly care.

Trials have come over the people of God in this age as in former days. The speaker referred to the history of Job, who was a righteous man in the sight of the Lord, yet the adversary was allowed to try him in various ways, until even his friends advised him to rebel against God.

But Job was steadfast and the Lord, after a while, gave his faithful servant an abundance of blessings for his faithfulness. He the Lord will do with the Saints who are faithful. They will have abundant blessings from the Almighty. We can see this already coming, although we have to have in only a commencement of receiving what there is in store for us.

If we follow the history of the ancient people of God, we find that trials have been meted out to His servants in larger measure than any we have had to receive. Abraham is an instance of this. The patriarch was even required to be willing to give up his only son on the altar of sacrifice.

Abraham said the Lord could raise his son up from the dead and so fulfill His promise. And his faith was well rewarded with blessings after he had stood this great test. Similar was the case with Moses and the other prophets.

The son of God had to encounter the evil one who met him and put various temptations in his way. But he remained steadfast, refusing to yield to the tempter, even when the kingdoms of the world were promised him as a reward for deviation from the path of righteousness.

All good people are tried. No one has had our trials, and they are yet to be met. But if we only remain faithful, we will receive our blessings after having endured in all things. The Lord has said He will have tried people. We must be able to stand firm in all positions, even in the possession of wealth. Happy the person who is able to withstand his trials, for blessings will surely follow.

Some seem to have trials and hardships all through their life. In most cases, however, they are not met very long. There is a day after night. But, in the case of those who seem to be tried for a lifetime, there will surely be a day of glorious light hereafter. The time will come when even the most tried one will find that the trials were for his best.

ELDER JOSEPH E. TAYLOR was the next speaker. He alluded to a remark by an eminent gentleman who had attended services in the Tabernacle and expressed himself, to the effect that he hardly knew but that he was in one of the churches of the sect of the day.

There is, however, a great difference between our Church and the sects of the world. Our organization is different, as are the principles we hold and the treasure of authority we recognize. Joseph Smith asked the Lord which was the true church, and he received the startling answer: None of them. All had gone astray. The Lord manifested His will to Joseph regarding his mission in his own day. The instant of necessity an aggressive character in the world, Joseph built, so to speak, a house for the people to come and dwell in—a house much superior to the one they previously occupied.

The Christian world holds that the prevalent religions are to all intents and purposes correct. The fact is, however, that although the principles of the Gospel are in the Bible, yet the Lord treated Joseph the Prophet as if the Gospel had never before existed. This is consistent, too, for the Lord will not hold the world to any responsibility for the Gospel that was revealed through the Holy Spirit in the following prophecies. In order to make the world accountable today, a revelation to this generation was given, and therefore Joseph was raised up to testify to the world what the Father testified to him concerning the same, that He is the beloved of the Father, whom the world was under obligation to hear.

The Elders of Israel have not perhaps always exhibited that degree of forbearance necessary to their calling. It seems to them at times a wonder that the world refuses their testimony. But remember the period at the time of Jesus. They entertained such ideas and were so educated that the appearance of the meek and lowly Jesus was contrary to all their expectations. Hence they rejected Him. And had we been in the same circumstances, we would probably have rejected Him as much more than what they did.

We say today that Joseph Smith was a great Prophet of God. Will the world believe the testimony of the Lord's messengers always promised that I, those who honestly accept the Gospel, the Lord will make the truth manifest. Hence should therefore be no excuse for anybody not to believe our testimony.

The revelation that has been placed among the living members of the world since the advent of Joseph Smith, is very singular. The exposition of truth made by Joseph, is so singular, so consistent, that the superiority of our faith to those whose minds are open to truth. The Bible has revealed a vast amount of knowledge on the principles of the Gospel. Joseph taught the justice of God in the judgment. Previous to his teachings we heard some of the most solemn discourses of the world concerning the nature of the punishment of the wicked. Joseph explained the nature of the punishment of the wicked. Other discourses might be mentioned. The speaker referred to the nation held about justice in the narrow sense of the term. God showed Joseph the blessed truth that those who die in innocence shall inherit eternal life through the work of atonement accomplished by Jesus. None is proscribed to eternal damnation.

Another doctrine was referred to, that of baptism. The world has come to regard the sprinkling of water on an infant as baptism. Compare with this the biblical, or, more correctly, the logical teachings of Joseph on this point.

Joseph never revealed anything detrimental to man. It has been said his teachings were degrading, but the fact is that his teachings were calculated to lead those who accepted them and carried them, out to eternal perfection. The Gospel is given solely for the spiritual advancement of the people. We had wandered away from our Father, but through it we have received the Holy Spirit, whose influence is for development and exaltation, to bring us back to God. By the Gospel the wrongs will be rectified, if it is within their grasp.

The closing and authentic introduction was pronounced by Elder Abraham H. Cannon.
