The doctor thinks that the eye can be saved if great care is taken .- Ogden

A correspondent of the Silver State of the play is replete with obscurities writes that Ohver Egbert, aged seven- and incongruities, its principal merit teen years, was tkilled by a wild horse teen years, was killed by a wild horse at L. N. Carpenter's ranch, near Lovelocks, Nevada, on the 23d instant. The deceased was a son of Haines Egbert who some years ago was a prominent stock raiser of this country, and had nerds of cattle ranging from the Humbolt River to the Rabbit Hole Springs. The boy was dragged some distance and had his neck broken.

HANS QUILL was before Justice Pyper today for having been drunk and profane. He pleaded guilty, but asked the court to give him ten minutes start of the chain gang, promising that if the privilege was allowed, he would not let grass grow under his feet till he reached Los Angeles, whither he was traveling. The Court considered a moment and remarked, "Get thee hence," whereat Quill quickly departed, and will probably make good his Theatre. The troupe is described as

THE Reno Gazette of the 25th says that J. F. Brown, for about ten years a switchman and brakeman in the employ of the Central Pacific Railroad noted farcical comedy, "A Parlor Company, was killed Wednesday on the C. He leaves three orphan children. His wife died about a year ago.

The Rate War.

The war in passenger rates between the Utah Central and the D. & R. G. W. was fairly inaugurated by the announcement in last evening's NEWS that the latter road would sell round trip tickets to and from Ogden and Salt Lake at $2.25. The narrow gauge people claim that the Utsh Central first made the cut rate, by selling tickets from Ordan to Garfield and re-

+#+ Amusements.

The Theatre was well filled last evenng, when the comedy-drama, "Fogg's Ferry" was given by the Lizzie Evans Company. Miss Evans in the role of "Chip" was the very impersonation of girlish, rural ignorance and rusticity, with its native simplicity. The story being the opportunities it affords Miss "Bill's" song, "You ought to be thankful for that," created great hilarity. The company is one of only mediocre ability, and at times last evening a suggestiveness of a character inconsistent with modesty was thrown into the acting and the dialogue. Cuteness and vivacity are admirable in a soubrette actress, but immodesty is water which would otherwise run to This evening the same company appear in "Our Angel," Miss Evans as-Tomorrow and Thursday evenings Dockstader's Minstrels appear in the Bubbles." An evening of great hilarity

is promised the audience.

While the subject of renominations and re-elections of members to Congress is being considered here with a good deal of interest, the delegates from the various territories are also discussing the probability of the return various of their members to House. Mr. Toole, Montana, has distinctly asserted that he will not be a candidate for renomi-tickets from Orden to Garfield and return for $2.75, which the D. & R. G. W. regards as much of a cut as the $2.25 rate between Orden and this city.

Today the Utah Central comes out with an announcement, one better than that of the D. & R. G. W., and announces that round trip tickets between all stations, good for ten days, will be sold at one and a half fare. This makes the Orden route the same as on narrow gauge, and also gives all other stations on the line the same advantage.

he will not be a candidate for renomination, and the same declaration has also come from Mr. Voorhees, of Washington. Mr. Dubbis, of Idaho, states that he is not a candidate and so does not desire to run again, but the republicans of this Territory are decidedly anxious that he should again make the race. He will confer with the leaders of his party at Chicago as to his acceptance of the proposed nomination. Mr. Carey, of Wyoming, will be a candidate and will be renominated without doubt. Mr. Carey is a man of wealth and closely identified with the most important interests of his Territory. Mr. Caine, of Utah, will without doubt be renominated and reelected. The same can be said of Deleelected. The same can be said of Delegate Smith, of Arizona, to whom there appears to be no opposition, the prevailing politics of his Territory being strongly democratic. Mr. Josephs is very strongly the candidate of his party in November 2018. tion of opposition. Lehi: Editor Deseret News: I see in a communication signed 'Milipend' an assertion that the water of Utah Lake has been appropriated. There is a bar at the head of bulk to 25 miles long and 8 miles wide —area 200 square miles—two or more feet deep, which would fill a reservoir of 10 square miles 49 feet p. This vast amount of water is y unappropriated, or used, and can be drawn of during the dry months of the year; waste every year.
