LOCAL BRIEFS.

McKean Post Campfire-The J. B. McKean W. R. C. will hold its regular meeting at 2:30 o'clock' tomorrow afternoon in its rooms in the I O. O. F. temple. The McKean post and corps will give a campfire in their hall Saturday evening.

Meeting of Brothers-C. Moeble of 7 Dubel avenue was called yesterday, his door by the bell, and on opening it, met a brother, F. Moehle, mayor of Okawville, Ill., whom he had not seen for 20 years. An impromptu reunion followed.

Bodies Shipped-The bodies of T. B. O'Reilly and J. J. O'Reilly were disinterred at Mt. Olivet yesterday and shipped to Ontario, Canada, for final interment in the local family The O'Relllys were formerly well known business men on Main Sorenson Arrested-John Sorenson has been arrested upon a complaint charging him with falling to support his two children. Mrs. Sorenson swore to the complaint yesterday before Judge Whitaker of the city court. She alleges that her husband has failed to provide for the children ever since Feb. 1, 1906.

Miss Hayward Successful-Miss Jean Hayward, a high school graduate of last year, has successfully passed the German examination before the city board of examiners. She is said to be the first person in the state to pass such an examination without first going abroad.

Waterloo School Opened-The Waterloo school opened yesterday, with Miss Grace Frost as principal, the delay having been occasioned the failure of the county authorities to turn the school over to the city time for opening simultaneously

Seniors Organized-The high school seniors organized—The high school seniors organized yesterday afternoon, with Roy Coates, president; Benare Grant, vice president; Margaret Parsons, secretary, and William Holmes, treasurer. Hal White editor of Red and Black. The staff of Red and Black will be chosen today.

To Build New Church-Architects Ware & Treganza are completing plans for an $8,000 Presbyterian church to be erected at Green River, Ctah. The edifice is 40x48 feet, so arranged that the size can be increased one-half, and the style is after that of English cathedral architecture. The seating capacity will be 200 people, and the walls will be of yellow brick. Excavation has already been com-

Officers at Varsity-The senior class of the state university elected these officers for the academic year, yesterday afternoon: Mehrung Eardley, president; C. Young, secretary and treasurer, and Carl Scott, custodian of trophies; executive committee, Hazel Stephens, Fred Bennion and Charles Gebbs. A meeting of the freshmen, '97 and fourth year normals has been called for this afternoon to elect of-

Cranberry Crop-Now that cran-berries are in the market, it may be locally interesting to note that they are mostly from the town of Ware-"down on the cape;" and the estimate of this year's crop is 200,000 to 239,000 barrels. There is a keen competition this season among buy-ers, as the American Cranberry company which handled the crop year, is not holding down the boards this year. In the meanwhile prices are falling, and the western markets ought to receive some benefit there-

Bad Blaze Prevented-But for the prompt action of Miss Cecelia Sharp in the Constitution block late yester-day afternoon. Miss Sharp has a music studio in the building, and a lighted alcohol lamp was accidentally upset in the room. Immediately the curtains were ablaze, but Miss Sharp tore them from their hangings and trampled out the fire. The department was informed of the occurrence, but at the same time told that the presence of fire fighters would not be

New Collection Method-For a board bill alleged to be due but settlement not forthcoming, an Italian named Joe Jartello was given a severe beating by a daughter of sunny Italy yesterday afternoon. The occurrence took place in the corridor of the police station, after the woman, Mrs. Fosselli, had made a futile attempt to cause the surest of Partello. She first sought redress in Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith's court, and failing there, vent to police headquarters, Partello following meekly at her command. She was informed by the desk geant that the minions of the law could not help her in the case against the delinquent, and immediately thereafter the woman determined to take the law into her own hands. Partello was knocked down in the hallway by the angry landlady and then scratched and beaten. The two der $10 bonds for appearance today.

JUDGE HOWELL WINS

Supreme Court Renders an Opinion in

The supreme court has handed down as pinion affirming the judgment of the pwer court in the election contest case of Daniel Hamer, contestant and appelant vs Judge J. A. Howell of the Secand district court. The contest was filed an behalf of Judge H. H. Rolapp, the bemocratic nominee for the office, and ras heard by Judge Charles W. Morse of this city. Judge Marse decided that ludge Howell was legally elected to the office, and was duly qualified to hold the osition. An appeal was then taken to be supreme court.

he supreme court. The opinion of that court, which was rritten by Justice McCarty and concurred a by Chief Justice Barich and Justice traup, holds that there was no evidence f fraud, bribery or undue influence used by Judge Howell to secure his election and hence the lower court did not err in sciding that he was legally elected.

WOMAN BECAME DESPERATE.

Lost Her Money and Tried to Commit Sulcide.

Marie Blakely, a resident of Commercial street, endeavored to end her life yesterday afternoon because she had lost a considerable sum of money. A purse containing $80, several pawn tickets for diamonds "in soak" and some letters disappeared, and when she failed to find them, the girl se-cured a revolver and would have shot herself had friends not prevented the intended act. It was supposed that the colored housekeeper had committed the theft and that person, with Marle Burton, companion of the would-be suicide, and two male frequenters of the place, Ed Henderson and Steve Shurtliff, was taken into custedy. Later in the day, while searching the Blakely woman's room, Officer Carlson found the purse among some rubbish in an unused stove, and the articles were given into the possession of the owner. The two women who had been arrested were released, but Henderson and Shurtliff were detained on a charge of vagrancy, and will doubtless be sent

PAIN FROM A BURN PROMPTLY RELIEVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S

Mr. James N. Nichols, a merchant and postmaster at Vernon, Conn., makes the following statement: "A little child of Michael Strauss was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to me for something to stop the little one's pain. From the many liniments I carry in stock, I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by all druggists. druggists.
