BREVITIES.

Richmond is to have an Irish newspaper.

Offenbach is said to be writing a novel.

New York swells use blonde hair powder.

Secretary Stanton was lately baptized and joined a church in Pittsburg.

New Haven ladies ride the bicycle in the streets, attended by "squires."

The Florida orange tree lives, on an average, thirty-five years, and produces 5,000 oranges.

The article most in demand at White Pine is lumber, and the second requirement is whiskey.

There are said to be fewer foreigners in Vermont than any other State of the Union.

The average number of Americans in Paris is about 5,000. Their head-quarters is the Grand Hotel.

A new county has been created in Arkansas, and named Sherman, after the General of the army.

A notice of a birth in a London paper has appended to it these words: "Mr, Forbes (the father of the child) requests the prayers of his friends and acquaintances in this sore affliction.

The Terre Haute, Attica and Chicago Railroad, is the name of a new enterprise in Indiana. It connects at Crown Point with the Chicago, Columbus and Indiana Central Road.

Secretary Cox, of the Interior Department, was formerly employed as a carpenter and joiner, on Staten Island. There is yet to be seen an elegant gate in front of an old estate which he constructed, and which cost at the time some four hundred dollars.

On August 7th a total eclipse of the sun will occur. This will be the most interesting eclipse that has been witnessed in this country for many years, and it will not happen again until the last year of the century. The shadows of the earth will commense crossing the sun's disc about four o'clock in the afternoon, and will not entirely pass from it until nearly half past six.

"My son," said the veteran at the foot of the stairs, "arise and see the newly risen luminary of day, and hear the sweet birds singing their matin song of praise to their great Creator; come while the dew is on the grass, and tender lambs are bleating on the hillside—come, I say, or I'll be there with a switch and give you the cussedest licking that you ever had."

An exchange tells of two young men in Nashville, Tenn., who loved two sisters and were cruelly refused. They then went to the bridge crossing the river, and with one last look to heaven, one farewell glance at earth, one thought of their loved, they, together—were rescued by a friend, who opportunely appeared on the scene, and invited them to take a drink.

The following sentence from a recent speech of Senator Anthony, of Rhode Island, can hardly sound less than wonderful to the landless millions of Europe. The Senator said, and no doubt correctly, that: "There is no part of the country where a day's labor that any man, with stout arms and a willing heart, however little he may be skilled, may perform, cannot earn the price of an acre of good land, at the Government sales."

The following is said to be a favorite hymn with the freedmen in many quarters down south:

We's nearer to de Lord
Dan de white folks, and dey knows it;
See de glory gate unbarred;
Walk up, darkeys, pass de guard;
Bet a dollar he don't close it.

Walk up, darkeys, froo de gate;
Hark! de colored angels holler,
Go away, white folks! you's too late;
We's de winnin' color; wait
Till de trumpet sounds to foller.

Hallelujah! t'anks an' praise,
Long enuff we've borne our crosses;
Now's we de sooperior race;
We's gwine to hebben afore de bosses!

The true stories of absent men cannot be exceeded. We know a man who has, more than once or twice, put on his spectacles to help him to look for them. We are inclined to believe, from the manner in which it first reached us, the anecdote of Sir Thomas Strange, the Indian judge, who found on paying a visit, that his friend was not in, and that he had forgotten his own name.

"I'll call again. Never mind my name."

"Sir, master always likes to know the names of gentlemen who call."

"Why, to tell the truth, I have forgotten my name."

"That's strange, sir."

"So it is, my man. You've hit it."

And he went away leaving the servant quite in the dark.

A curious story is going the rounds of the press concerning a haunted house in Penn Yan, N. Y. A visitor thus describes what he saw and heard:

"Our village clock was striking the hour of twelve when we entered the haunted room. The stillness was disturbed first by what seemed a guitar, played but a few feet from us, and as sweet a voice as ear ever heard singing to it in a low tone. In an instant the sound of voices and footsteps was heard all about us, but, although the room was as light as a lamp could make it, we saw nothing. The singing continued until the same sweet voice, in the most piercing and sharpest utterance, cried: 'Help!' As the unearthly yell broke forth we felt our heart beat quickly, our breath come heavily, and every nerve tingle. Three times did this mysterious voice cry 'Help!' After this followed what seemed to be a dance of madmen, together with the most demoniac screams ever heard."
