LAST Wednesday afternoon the hailstorm which passed over Cache Valley did considerable damage at Wellsville. Wheat, lucern, corn, etc., was literally mowed down and scores of window lights were broken by hailstones larger than marbles, which descended with great fury.—Logan Journal, May 22.

WE received a pleasant call this morning from Messrs. J. L. Speares, Sioux City, Iowa; J. G. Kessler, St. Louis, Mo., and W. S. Danley, Corsicana, Texas. The gentlemen are on the way to San Francisco on a pleasure trip and are looking at the country as they go along.

Burt, was conducted at the residence of the mother, yesterday morning, Bishop Millen Atwood presiding. The opening prayer was offered by Elder Hamilton G. Park. The speakers were President Angus M. Cannon, Elder John Nicholson and Bishop Atwood. The benediction was pronounced by Elder Jeter Clinton.

The following notice was given to attorneys: "The court will make settings for trial of equity cases, Tuesday, May 24th, at 10 a.m."

Edward Austin vs. The Tribune Publishing Company; trial in progress.

H. P. Mason et al. vs. Lewis Oviatt; default and judgment.

John Watson and John Matheson were admitted to citizenship.

Surgical Operation.—In this city, yesterday afternoon, Dr. Benedict performed a very severe and dangerous surgical operation upon the person of a young lady named Miss Blanche Thurman Mount, of Richfield, Sevier County, 17 years of age. The operation consisted in removing a multilocular ovarian tumor, weighing 25 pounds, which had been between two and three years in forming. Drs. Hamilton, Hall, Bowers, Pike, Meecham and Borden of Fort Douglas, R. B. Pratt, and others were present and assisted. The patient passed a comfortable night, and notwithstanding the critical character of the ordeal through which she has passed, hopes of her recovery are entertained.

Brown Held to Answer.—The case of adultery against Alexander Brown was again called in Commissioner McKay's court to-day. The defense did not desire to introduce any testimony, and the Commissioner ruled that there was probable cause to believe the defendant guilty as charged, and placed him under $1,500 bonds to await the grand jury's action. W. C. Dunbar, Jr., and Wm. T. Jack became sureties.

At the conclusion of these proceedings Miss Sarah E. Winegar was arrested on the charge of adultery, alleged to have been committed with Mr. Brown. On the call of the roll of the case, however, Mr. Critchelow cited the Edmunds-Tucker law, which says, in reference to this crime, "when such act is committed between a married man and a woman who is unmarried, the man shall be deemed guilty of adultery," and on this showing Miss Winegar was discharged, as she had been divorced from her former husband, Mr. Harmon. She was held under $500 bail to appear as a witness.

In Honor of Departing Missionaries.—On Saturday evening last the members of the Fourteenth Ward met in the Ward Hall to do honor to the two young men, Ezra Stevenson, and Lewis M. Cannon, who have recently been called upon missions. The former is the son of Edward Stevenson, and starts in a few days for New Zealand; the latter is a son of President A. M. Cannon, and leaves to-day, Monday, his destination being Germany. A short programme was carried out refreshments passed, and speeches made by H. P. Richards, C. F. Wilcox, Bishop George H. Taylor, and President Angus M. Cannon.

The young missionaries expressed their appreciation of and pleasure at the kindly manifestation shown them by their friends, and hoped to prove worthy of all that had been said of them, and do honor to the cause they were called to represent. The affair was arranged by the ward choir and and officers of the Sabbath School and passed off quite pleasantly.

POLICE COURT.

THE PUPILS OF JUSTICE PYPER'S REFORM SCHOOL.

James Donahue, John Foth and John McKean constituted the trio that appeared in the temple of justice to-day to receive the reward for their unlawful conduct. Donahue faced a list of charges which included drunkenness, profanity, obscenity and raising a general disturbance in a restaurant. When asked for his plea he stated that he had taken a sip of Port wine and on going into the restaurant saw what he supposed to be a "fast crowd," and began to take up a labor of reform with them. He said he had done all this in a meek and humble spirit, and the police had taken him in for it. The evidence of others did not accord with this, however, and went to show that Donahue had "raised Ned," and would have done much worse but for the soothing effect of a policeman's star. He was given a few hours to reflect, and the court will impose sentence this afternoon.

John Foth, charged with "a plain drunk," came next and pleaded guilty. He explained to the court that he only got "full" when he came in from the cañon and wanted a change. The court suggested that Foth had better reverse the order of his exercises, and fined him $10 as a reminder that the advice was given in earnest.

John McKean pleaded guilty to having been drunk on Sunday, and was fined $10. Prosecutor Ferguson was at hand and asked McKean where he got his whisky, but the latter was not to be caught and replied, "Got it from a fellow on the street," as he ambled toward the jail in company with the others to serve on the public works.

AN OLD COMSTOCKER.

THE NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF THE BULLION-BECK MINE.

Captain W. H. Smith, or as he is widely known on the Pacific Coast, "Hank" Smith, the new superintendent of the Bullion-Beck mine at Tintic, arrived from San Francisco to-day and registered at the Walker House. He was accompanied by Gen. W. H. Brown, of San Francisco, and Alexander Badlam, Esq., President of the Bankers' and Merchants' Life Insurance Company of that city, both of whom are interested in the property.

Mr. Smith said to a representative of the NEWS that he was not yet prepared to state what would be done in the way of working the mine, until he had visited it. As yet he had not seen the ground, and could form no definite idea as to the force of men that would be put on, the amount of ore that would be taken out, or the new ground that would be opened up. He will leave for Tintic to-morrow, accompanied by the gentlemen named, and thinks that an inspection of the mine and an investigation into its present condition will enable him to quickly form a policy in relation to working it.

Mr. Smith is a pleasant gentleman to meet, and very frank in his manner. He quickly impresses one with the belief that he possesses rare executive capacity, and when one learns his history this belief will be strengthened. He is an old Comstocker, having been for ten years superintendent of the Belcher, and for six years of the Crown Point. He has long been associated with those millionaires of the Coast, Flood and Mackay and W. S. Lyle, and for two years traveled for Mackay, looking after his mines.

While he was superintendent of the Belcher thirty millions of dollars' worth of ore was taken from it, and it paid fifteen million dollars in dividends. As a mine superintendent he has a record equaled by but few, and in making choice of him the new owners of the valuable Bullion-Beck property have evidently hit upon the right man.

Naturalization.—William Brewer, writing from Henefer, Utah, says: "I have been requested to ask you if you would publish particulars of obtaining citizenship: (1) How long you must be here to obtain first papers? (2) How long after before you can get second papers? and (3) the fees for the same? Please answer in the NEWS and oblige a number interested in the same."

The answer to the first question is—At any time, but he cannot be admitted until he has resided here five years, and must have taken out his first papers at least two years prior to getting the second ones. He must also have resided in the Territory one year next preceeding his admission.

The answer to the second question substantially appears above—not less than two years must intervene between the two events and the latter one must occur at least five years after arrival in the United States. Neither of these apply to minors who were under eighteen years of age on arrival and resided here continuously until twenty-one, and who act in their own behalf; these may take both papers at the same time whenever they choose after having lived here continuously for five years, provided such period takes them to twenty-one or past.

To the third question, the final fee taxed and paid is $5; we don't know where the law is that authorizes it, but it is done.

Earthquake in Arizona.—A correspondent writing from Pima, Graham County, Arizona, says that on the 5th inst., between the hours of two and three p. m., while the district court was in session at Solomonville, an earthquake came from a northeasterly direction and struck that corner of the court house, causing it to shake and the plastering to crack and fall. All of the inmates fled from the building, Judge Barnes being the first to start. He leaped through a window, and attorneys and jurors followed his example. The correspondent says:

"I was a member of the grand jury at the time. We were locked in our room transacting what business came before us, when we heard the noise outside. Some said that there were prisoners making their escape, and others shouted "fire!" We looked through the windows and doors, but when we reached the ground we found that we could not stand still, and looking at the flag-pole on the top of the court house, we saw it waving to and fro like a green bough blown by the wind.

There was considerable damage done to houses up and down the river.

President Layton has just returned from the San Pedro. He informs me that at St. David the earthquake did considerable damage. It shook one end of the district schoolhouse in, and also the ends of several dwelling houses. In places in the valley the earth opened and sand and water gushed out and watered the whole valley. The river rose several feet in a short time. The people are struck with the idea of flowing wells, as they think water can be got near the surface.

In Louisville, one of the negro murderers of the white servant girl, Jennie Bowman, was recently indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged July 1, the whole process consuming about three days. About the same time Tom Crittenden, one of the distinguished Crittenden family of Kentucky, was acquitted of one of the most coldblooded murders, in which a negro was the victim, ever perpetrated in Kentucky.

RUNAWAY AT FARMINGTON.

TWO RESIDENTS OF SALT LAKE INJURED.

Yesterday a serious runaway accident occurred at Farmington, Davis County. A party of relatives and friends of Mrs. Jane Huse, who died a few days ago, went to Farmington yesterday (Sunday) to attend the funeral. Among them were D. M. Evans and John Jones. As they were proceeding from the mortuary residence to the meeting house, to attend the obsequies, they had occasion to descend a declivity in the road and cross a bridge near the foot of it. In the bridge was a large hole, and one of the horses, a young and spirited animal, undertook to leap over it. The neck-yoke broke, causing the vehicle to run on to the team. This made them take fright and dash off at a furious rate. Both men were thrown out with great violence, D. M. Evans alighting on his head and sustaining a severe gash in the temple, besides several minor cuts near the eye. Brother Jones was less seriously hurt, getting off with a sprained ankle and several bruises.

Had it not been that several other members of the party—a number of ladies among them—elected to walk to the meeting-house, the accident would have been much more disastrous.

The runaway was brought to a standstill without further damage, by some pedestrians who happened to be on the road at the time.

Under the Edmunds Law.—In the First District Court at Ogden, on Saturday, Messrs. Allen Hunsaker, John J. Dunn, Peter Madsen and Levi J. Taylor were arraigned on indictments charging them with having committed the offense of unlawful cohabitation by living with their wives. Each of them entered a plea of guilty and the time for receiving sentence was set by the Court.

Joseph Poole was called for arraignment, when his counsel, C. C. Richards, Esq., presented a physician's certificate that he was too ill to be present in court. Mr. Poole had been an invalid for three years. Mr. Hiles wanted Mr. Richards to enter a plea for Mr. Poole. Mr. Richards replied that he was willing to do that, and in consideration of his client's ill health, was willing to go to the penitentiary for him, if that would satisfy the prosecution. At this Mr. Hiles said that, as he knew Mr. Poole's condition, he might move for a suspension of judgment when the time for passing sentence came. The arraignment was finally laid aside for the term.

Stephens' Concert.—The concert given in Stephens music hall on Saturday evening was well attended, and the audience showed itself to be an appreciative one. The numbers were rendered in excellent style, all of the ladies and gentlemen taking part adding fresh laurels to their reputation as vocalists. The dramatic solo, "Judith," was given by Mrs. Thomas with splendid effect. Mrs. Pugsley, Miss Dean, Mrs. Hull, and Messrs. Stephens, Thomas, Nilsson and Irvine also received well merited applause. To several selections the audience demanded an encore, but Miss Dean was the only one to respond. Prof. Stephens and those associated with him certainly have reason to feel encouraged at the success they have achieved.

The Halliday Case.—The Halliday murder case at Beaver, for which the defendant was prosecuted for killing a man found in flagrante delictu with his wife, closed on Friday last. At 4 p.m. the jury came in and took everybody's breath by announcing a verdict of "guilty of murder in the first degree." The defendant displayed no uneasy symptoms; he didn't need to and knew it no doubt. He had been indicted in terms conveying an offense of less magnitude, and on motion of his attorney the verdict was set aside. The case was to come up for re-trial to-day.

OBITUARY.

WHITON.—By the death of Sister Ellen Emmett Moran Whiton, which event transpired on April 28th, 1887, the city of Wellsville, Cache County, lost a faithful and devoted Latter-day Saint, whose whole life, during her membership in the Church, was a living exponent of the doctrines and principles which she had embraced.

Sister Whiton was born May 28th, 1816, at Olden Mill, Lancashire, England, and was the daughter of Richard Emmet and Ann Taylor; was baptized in the year 1852, and arrived in Utah in company with her husband, Henry Moran, October 17th, 1853. For a short time they lived in Salt Lake Valley, and afterwards removed to Cedar Fort, Cedar Valley. During the winter of 1855 and 1856, Brother Moran was engaged in cattle herding with George and Washington Carson, near Utah Lake, and was killed with them by Indians, Feb. 17th, 1856. Sometime after this sad event, she married Brother Isaac Whiting, and with him moved to Wellsville in the spring of 1860, where she lived until the time of her death.

On the 4th of July, 1868, she was appointed treasurer of the relief society of Wellsville, and in 1873 she became president of the society, which office she held at the time of her demise. During her presidency she had the confidence of the society and the esteem of the Saints of that Ward.

Sister Whiton had been a great sufferer for many years, but she hung on to the thread of life with amazing tenacity, desirous of living to still accomplish more good. But she at last succumbed to the call of her Master, and died as she had lived, with a full assurance of the the truth of the Gospel and a fervid hope of a glorious resurrection. | [COM.

His Brilliant Concert next Friday Evening.

This magnificent artist deserves a crowded auditorium. Mr. Seifert will give but one concert in Salt Lake on Friday evening at the First Presbyterian Church. His selections will be popular and brilliant and the same which have electrified the music lovers of all the large cities from Paris and Berlin to New York and Denver.
