Supposition Is That He Was Given "Knock-Out Drops"-Came Here From California Yesterday and His Name is George H. Littleford-Dued Close to the Police Station-Department Baffled Over Myslery.

followed by death. The name of the victim is George H. Littleford, a miner recently from California. He arrived in Salt Lake yesterday afternoon over the Rio Grande Western, and at 5 o'clock this morning he was found unconscious on the ground at the rear of the National restaurant on State street just across from the police station. Sergt. Roberts and Officer Sullivan carried him to the hall and Dr. C. M. Benedict was summoned. The physician quickly worket with him from about 5 until 10 o'clock when he died. Dr. Benedict pumped out the contents of the man's stoma h and used every method known to medical science to revive him, but all to no purpose. The unfortunate man never regained consciousness from the time he was led to the spot where the officers found him. There is a deep mystery surrounding the case and it will tax the ingenuity of the department detectives to obtain a clue that will unravel it. That it is a clear case of murder and robbery the police have no doubt. That, also, is the unanimous opinion of all who know anything about the case. But where was he given the "knock out" drops? Who gave him the poison and then, after robbing him, led him into a dirty alley and left him to die like a dog? Was he murdered in a house of ill fame on Commercial street or in the Eagle Gate saloon? Is it another Mary Jane Smith case? These are questions that the police are asking and the points they are trying to solve. So far as the officers are able to learn, no one knew the dead man, no one saw him either in a Commercial street den or saloon. He was seen to get off a Rio Grande train yesterday afternoon. He left some of his effects at the depot and came up

The suicide theory is not entertained for a moment. When the officers found him, his pockets were turned inside out, but the robbers overlooked 56 cents. They may have had a purpose in leaving that amount on him. He had a pocket

Burton took the sack of money from the vault and hid it in his desk and waited until night to take the money out. He invested $225 of the money in a horse and buggy and spread it on to such an extent that the suspicions of the bnak officials were aroused and an investgation made which resulted in the young man's arrest.

In pleading guilty Burton asked the ourt for leniency. He stated that he was 22 years of age and that all of his relatives were dead. He came here several months ago from St. Anthony, Idaho. This is his first offense, he said. District Attorney Eichnor gave the court a brief history of the case, in which he stated that the horse and buggy had been turned over to the bank and it had been reinbursed to that extent. Arthur Baker entered pleas of guilty to two charges of housebreaking and was sentenced by Judge Morse to six months for each offense, a total of one year in the state prison. Eppinger & Co., of San Francisco, One of the Biggest Dealers In Grain in the United States, Fails for an Immense

GRAIN FIRM GOES TO THE WALL

Sum-Cause of the Crash.

San Francisco, June 6.-Eppinger & Company of this city, one of the largest grain dealing firms in the United States went to the wall today. The crash came suddenly and for a time threatened to completely upset the local grain market. As it was, the announcement of the failure caused a big bobbing of prices on 'change and wrought up such excitement as has not been witnessed on the floor for many

It is thought that the losses of the firm may run up into the millions, while the London, Paris and American bank, the money house with which it deals, will also, it is said, suffer heavily. A meeting of the creditors is now in

The failure of the Eppinger concern is the greatest and most far-reaching crash in the California grain trade since the time when William Dresback was forced to the wall some seven or eight years ago.

Although there had been a whisper of uncertainty in inner circles for several days as to the standing of Eppinger & Company none of the brokers was at all prepared for the startling announce ment that was made on 'change. It was known that the company was short on a heavy amount of December wheat and the outcome of the announcement in the face of this condition at once brought about the most marked activity.

Creditors of Eppinger & Co. at once began buying against the amount short for the account of the suspended firm with the result that December wheat quickly rose from $1.32 at the opening to $1.24. After the great bulk of the pressing contracts had been filled the market weakened somewhat and the price declined to $1.34.

While it has been impossible to se-cure any information as to the exact extent of the failure it is belief of the street that it is extremely heavy and belief of the pean grit severe. The connections of Eppinger & Co. are numerous, both on the Pacific coast and in the grain markets of Eu-the founder: Herman Eppinger, and E. Eppinger. Up to the dissolution of the great combination, which controlled the grain husiness, charters, prices and contracts, Eppinger & Co. were members of a combination known as the "Big Four." This combine was in control of warehouses all over the state, notably those at Port Costa, dissolved chartered at the highest prices last year, and short on wheat, which had been sold as low as $1.05, and which rose to $1.60. The combine was given a very severe squeezing, and it was currently reported in grain circles that the losses amounted to $3,000,000, incurred in covering the enormous short Of this big loss, Eppinger & Co, were forced to stand their share. It is the belief that the losers shared the loss on equal therms. This would have reulted in a loss of about $750,000 to the firm

It has been the custom of the firm, it is declared, to advance considerable sums of money to farmers throughout the state on wheat crops, and it is posthe state on wheat crops, and it is pos-sible that this was done this year. Present reports from the valleys are that the crops will be comparatively failures, and this news has had a very depressing effect on the market. The final crash was precipitated by the London, Paris & American bank, which within the last two or three days made necemptory and heavy de-days, made peremptory and heavy de-mands on the firm of Eppinger & Co. The obligations were pressing and the firm could not meet them. Therefore, notice of insolvency was sent to the exchange.

In addition to the grain trading the firm of Eppinger & Company did a huge business in warehouses. Aside from the Big Four interest in the Port Costa warehouses the firm contralled immense grain storage plants throughout the Sacramento and San Joaquin vallays, and in all the grain centers of the state. Among these were warehouses at Dixon, Woodland, Arbuckle, Modesto and Pase

There was connections in every European grain port and the firm as a usual thing held many charters on grain carrying ships.

Jacob Eppinger, head of the firm, has been in ill health for some years and has been forced to turn over his affairs in the management, rouch of the time, to his associates. A few years ago he was reputed to be worth $3,000,000. Two of his sons, "Peck" Eppinger and Joseph Eppinger, are in the racing business. His other son, Herman, is interested in
