

EVENING NEWS. Friday, Nov. 2, 1892.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS. Funeral of the late Mrs. Rice on Sunday, at 10 a.m. A large number of students joined Dr. B. D. Dow's new class last night. Frank Mayo in Davy Crockett, at the Opera House on Monday night. The monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of Salt Lake Slaves will be held at 11 a.m., to-morrow, in the Assembly Hall. LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS. Released.—The Millennial Star states that W. G. Newman has been released to return home and is with the company on the way to Utah. Another Bereavement.—It will be observed by a notice in another column that the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Greig, died yesterday from paralysis. Our sympathies are with the bereaved. Taking the Initiative.—The 11th Ward has taken the initiative in establishing a night patrol with a view to the abatement of the burglar business. Should the boys of that locality get after prowlers they will give them a hard time. County Ratification.—This afternoon Hon. C. W. Penrose and Mr. T. V. Williams have been addressing a People's Party ratification meeting at West Jordan. Messrs. T. B. Lewis, J. B. Toronto and Geo. M. Ottlinger have been doing the same at South Cottonwood. A Little Water Wanted.—The disagreeable dust on the streets today suggests the advisability of again resorting to sprinkling, providing the approaching storm of which the south wind is the precursor, does not obviate the necessity before to-morrow morning. Special Statement.—Mr. George W. Davis announces in a new advertisement that he has received a choice stock of fruits, cleaned and ready for use; also buckwheat, new maple syrup, New Orleans molasses, and everything in the grocery line, besides a full lot of dry goods, etc., including nice dolmans, cheap. Bring Back That Coat.—The party who took a coat belonging to another person yesterday, from the Temple Block will save himself trouble by returning it immediately to the owner, and obtaining his own exchange. The article can be left with G. J. Thomas at the east gate of the Temple Block, where he can get his own. Orators at the Grand Rally.—Speakers for the Grand Rally of the People's Party at the Theatre at 7.30 p.m., Saturday, 4th inst., will be: Inside the building—Hon. John A. Calie, S. R. Thurman, F. S. Richards, Esq., Judge W. N. Dusenberry and Professor J. B. Toronto. Outside speakers: Professor T. B. Lewis, Dr. J. M. Benedict, G. M. Ottlinger, Esq., Hon. C. W. Penrose and others. The People's Rally.—As the Theatre will be much too small for the concourse that will convene on the occasion of the grand rally of the People's Party on Saturday night, speakers have been secured to address the people on the outside of the building, from the front steps. Preparations are in progress for the torchlight procession. Four bands of music have been engaged. It will be the most gorgeous political affair ever witnessed in Utah. A Useful Book.—A useful little work, from the pen of Elder John Jaquith is now in the hands of the printer. It is entitled, "The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints—its Priesthood, Organization, Doctrines, Ordinances and History." While the book will be highly interesting, considering the vastness of the subject, it is too small, as it will only consist of about thirty-two pages. This being the case, and the historical branch coming down to the present, or a very recent date, the matter is necessarily in a compendious form. However, besides being useful, as imparting a good deal of desirable information within a limited compass, it would form an excellent basis for a much more elaborate work. A Mail Grievance.—John Char, right-of, of Holden, Millard County, writes from that place: "I have been a subscriber for the News the last 22 years, and always received my paper in time, with but few delays, until July last, since which time there have been many delays, and sometimes I receive my paper at all. Occasionally it gets into the Fillmore sack, goes south and comes back the next day. The papers we should have had on Saturday morning have not yet come to hand. We can get any paper from the Old Country or the States on time, but the News, the most important to us of any, we can not. We have numerous complaints from the south of the same character, and we hope the postmasters will be more careful in future and that the mail authorities will see to the rectification of the wrong. Obsequies.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Smith, wife of Mr. John H. Smith, were performed this morning at the residence in the fourteenth Ward, and were conducted by Elder George Crismon, Bishop's Counselor. A large number of the friends of the deceased were present and listened attentively to a funeral discourse by Elder C. W. Penrose. Deceased was born at Putnam, Wiltshire, England, and joined the Church in May, 1848, at Newbury, B. R. She removed to Utah in 1854, where she was well known for her hospitality and kindness to the Elders and Saints. She emigrated with her husband to Utah in 1858 and lived and labored in the faith of the Gospel, endeared to many acquaintances by her kindly disposition and generosity."

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY RATIFICATION. ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS.

A GOOD PLACE. ST. JOHN, APACHE COUNTY, ARIZONA, DESCRIBED.

Charles I. Kempe writes from that portion of the far south:
 "I was called about two years ago to go to St. John to help settle that place. I nearly got discouraged before I came, as with but one or two exceptions, every one I met told me what a fearful bad place it was; the water was said to drink, and nothing but mineral, and those fearful Mexicans were worse than all. I have been here now over two years and have found that those statements were largely incorrect.
 If water were very bad here how could we enjoy at an average better health than the people in Utah, having had but two or three deaths in two years, except by accident. We raise a far better crop than is generally done in southern Utah, and as for the Mexicans, I live right among them and though some of them are bad men, yet as a whole they are far from being as bad as they are represented to be. Many are friendly and respectable, and were it not for the influence from other sources the Mexicans would be all right. As for union among the Saints, it would be hard to find it better, and our leaders are all we could desire.
 We can buy lumber at the sawmill from $10 to $20 per 1,000, and shingles at $2.50. We have plenty of wood close by and as good a climate as I think can be found anywhere. It appears to me that men who have not the stamina to follow their mission must have an excuse for leaving, hence their misrepresentations. They tell their stories so often that they almost believe them true.

By order of the COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.
 AN INVITATION.
 A general invitation is extended to the House, Ex-Delegates to Congress, Ex-Mayors of Salt Lake City, territorial, county and city officers, members of the press, merchants and prominent citizens of the People's Party, who will be admitted at the stage door of the Theatre, at 7 o'clock, and be seated on the stage, as far as its capacity will admit.

Upon a day to be designated by the Commission, said Board of Canvassers will meet at the rooms of the Commission at Walker's Opera House in Salt Lake City; and the election returns will be opened under the direction of this Commission; and said Board of Canvassers will proceed to ascertain the number of votes cast for each person for Delegate to the Forty-eighth Congress, any they, or a majority of them, shall give a certificate of election to the person so ascertained to have received the largest number of legal votes; which certificate shall be delivered to such person, and said Board of Canvassers shall report their proceedings and the result to this Commission.
 Oregon Short Line.—A gentleman connected with the construction of this railroad is credited with the following statement to a reporter:
 "The Oregon Short Line will eventually be the main line of the U. P. so far as wealth of country is concerned. The best railroads selected lines show the road is being put to stay.
 "The Wood River region will be especially rich. Its mineral and agricultural developments will be wonderful.
 "Pocatello, a station, is building up rapidly. J. E. Nelson, the Chief Dispatcher of the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern, is situated there, and is helping the place.
 "The Soda Springs will develop into a national health resort."
 "American Falls is considered now only a tent town, but will build rapidly. The Wood River country is 87 miles distant, extending across the Reservation and along the Snake River. Collins & Stevens, big mining men, are located at American Falls. Twenty miles below the Falls the best grade of gold is being taken out at Bonanza Bar."

Shooting at Blackfoot.—A man named Charles Howard who was in Meester's saloon at Blackfoot, on Friday evening last, disputing some beer started to leave the saloon when he met Spot Donnelly and constable Jim Westfall just outside the door. Donnelly commenced abusing Howard who warned him to stop, but he continued his abuse until Howard attempted to strike him, when Westfall took hold of Howard, and pushing back, both fell into the saloon door, Howard on top. Westfall drew his revolver while down, and fired four shots, one passing through Howard in region of the kidneys; the second shot cutting off one finger from Donnelly's right hand and badly cutting the rest of them; the third shot breaking Fred Griswold's leg; while the fourth shot lodged in the ceiling.
 Westfall was arrested and held until Sheriff Home who was telegraphed for, arrived and took him into custody and off to Malad for trial. —Idaho Enterprise.

We can get any paper from the Old Country or the States on time, but the News, the most important to us of any, we can not.
 We have numerous complaints from the south of the same character, and we hope the postmasters will be more careful in future and that the mail authorities will see to the rectification of the wrong.

Shooting at Blackfoot.—A man named Charles Howard who was in Meester's saloon at Blackfoot, on Friday evening last, disputing some beer started to leave the saloon when he met Spot Donnelly and constable Jim Westfall just outside the door. Westfall drew his revolver while down, and fired four shots, one passing through Howard in region of the kidneys; the second shot cutting off one finger from Donnelly's right hand and badly cutting the rest of them; the third shot breaking Fred Griswold's leg; while the fourth shot lodged in the ceiling.
