Two of the men were caught the next day. Another were day. Another was captured three or four days after on the road to Sllac. One of them has since died in jail. All were members of a gang of ore thieves which had been causing the Guana-juato police trouble for years. The murderers were shot at daylight this morning in the Castillo de Granditas. morning in the Castillo de Granditas. Both men showed signs of breaking down during the night, which they passed with little sleep. Nieto fell as he was being conducted to the court, and had to be lifted to his feet. The blindfolds were adjusted, a minute passed and then an officer gave the command to aim. He dropped his sword, and a voltey rang out. Both men dropped lifeless. However, as a precaution another bullet was shot through their heads when lying on he ground.

The execution was the first here in 30 years, and it created intense excita-ment among the residents. A petition asking for a commutation of the sen-tence was circulated among the Ameri-cans last week, but all refused to sign it.

SONS OF VETERANS MEET.

The Sons of Veterans gave a literary and musical program last eevning in the I. O. O. F. hall. The gathering was well attended and proved a decided success. The first number on the pro-gram was a plano selection by Miss Retta Heystack, and vocal and instru-mental numbers were rendered by Miss Constance Bruere, Miss Ella Pitts, Miss Uvy Youngberg Miss Mancrote Hook Ivy Youngberg, Miss Margaret Heck-Ary Tomperg, and Margaret Heck-ner, Miss Ross and Mr. Howard, Miss Joy Witheck, Harry E.
