A Cleveland husband said to his wife, "Wouldn't you like to go down and shake hands with Duke Alexis?" "Duke Fiddlestick," she replied with a contemptuous curl of the lip. "No, of course not. What do you suppose I care about him? He isn't any better than anybody else!" She sat in contemplative silence for a minute or two and then, looking up, asked with an innocent smile, "Could I it I wanted to?"

The cultivation of beet-root sugar in France has now risen to an industry of the four hundred manufactories, and the process of manufacture each year is brought to a higher state of perfection. There are in France three or four journals specially devoted to subjects connected with the manufacture, its cultivation, its sale, the machinery required and the chemistry of the process.

As an evidence of the hurry which some times marks legislative proceedings, reference is made to the law of the last Congress granting pensions to the soldiers of the war of 1812. The law provides that the appli-cant shall take an oath to "support the Constitution of the United States, and the surviving widows of such officers and en-listed to an who took work in their war." isted men who took part in that war."

The word "bloody" has nothing in itself which can be supposed improper, but it was a favorite epithet of censure in the mouths of a very low class in London, and therefore the reporters, when recording the utterances of that class, had the habit of "gutterances of the clerks of the old board were removed.

We Americ us boast of our love of liberty, and yet we permit outrages upon individual freedom by our police, which would not be allowed in the most despotic countries in Europe. The fact is we are worshippers of wealth. If a man has no money and is friendless, any petty official may maltreat him with impunity; but woe betide the poor devil who steals a pair of boots or a loaf bread.—S. F. Post.

A curiosity of the Tichborne case is that it is now being conducted by the lawyers on both sides without fees. Mr. Sergeant Rallantyne made the startling declaration that the funds on the side of the plaintiff
