

DEMOCRATIC PLEA FOR PROTECTION

Senator Simmons of North Carolina Advocates Retention of Tariff on Lumber.

PUTS UP REVENUE ARGUMENT

Had a Great Deal to Say About Canadian Lumber Driving Southern Manufacturers Out of Market.

Washington, April 28.—An exhaustive treatment of the lumber schedule of the tariff bill by Mr. Simmons of North Carolina was the feature of the session of the senate today.

Mr. Simmons advocated the retention of the present tariff, which, he maintained, was but a revenue rate. Several times the national Democratic platform of 1908, which declared for free lumber, was injected into the discussion by Republican senators, and Mr. Bacon of Georgia remarked that he was not bound by declarations written into a platform at midnight by a few interested men.

Mr. Burkett of Nebraska, whose home city is Lincoln, sought to state where the Democratic platform actually was drawn, but Mr. Simmons refused to yield time to prolong the discussion.

Mr. Brown of Nebraska advocated a constitutional amendment for the collection of an income tax.

INCOME TAX AMENDMENT.

When the discussion of the tariff was resumed in the senate today Mr. Brown of Nebraska spoke to his amendment recently introduced providing for a constitutional amendment authorizing an income tax. He argued that the people of the several states should have the opportunity of voting on the question of whether or not a law never would be questioned. He said Congress owed it to the people to be given a chance to say whether the Constitution should be made to sanction a system of taxation approved by the majority of American citizens and by the economists of the entire civilized world. "It seems to me," he said, "that the discussion of the last two days in this body led by the able and eloquent senator from Texas, being home to every senator the commanding and imperative necessity for the adoption of such an amendment."

Mr. Brown was interrupted by Mr. Rayner of Maryland, who insisted that Congress already had the power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, and that even the amendment to be adopted it still would be necessary to have an appropriation.

The suggestion was not accepted with any too good a grace by the Nebraska senator, who said that he was not beside himself to believe that his resolution would meet the critical judgment of the majority of American citizens and by the economists of the entire civilized world. "It seems to me," he said, "that the discussion of the last two days in this body led by the able and eloquent senator from Texas, being home to every senator the commanding and imperative necessity for the adoption of such an amendment."

Mr. Brown was interrupted by Mr. Rayner of Maryland, who insisted that Congress already had the power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, and that even the amendment to be adopted it still would be necessary to have an appropriation.

Upon Mr. Brown's request, the resolution was referred to the committee on the judiciary.

PLEA FOR PROTECTION.

Discussing the lumber schedule, Mr. Simmons of North Carolina opposed the proposed reduction, he said, he said, because labor constituted a large element in the cost of producing lumber than in the cost of producing any other manufactured product, and, further, that the lumber was a competitor with some of the articles which added to the cost of the production.

"How do you square your advocacy of a tariff on lumber with the declaration of the national Democratic platform of 1908?" Mr. Dixon of Montana inquired.

Mr. Simmons asserted that the platform declared for a tariff for revenue, and he did not believe the Dingley rate on lumber was more than a revenue rate.

The present crusade against a duty on lumber, Mr. Simmons charged, had been instigated by speculators having interests in Canada. He maintained that there was no lumber tariff in the position, and that the articles which were favorable to high rates of duty on the products of the farmer, yet who were advocating free lumber, Mr. Simmons declared, were standing in their own light. He asserted that the best purchaser in the south of meats, corn, hay and wheat from the west was the sawmill laborer.

CANADIAN DANGER.

"Those 300,000 men," he said, "feed 3,000,000 mouths and clothe 3,000,000 backs, and if your cheap lumber duty advocates succeed in enabling the Canadian in driving the southern manufacturers out of their markets, and will do it by the very power of the chasing power of your best customers."

Mr. Gallinger declared that New England and the Atlantic coast were being threatened by the North Carolina senator had frequently suggested themselves to him.

The only beneficiaries of reduced or free lumber, Mr. Simmons declared, would be the great big box manufacturers located along the Great Lakes. He declared that the national platform of 1908, with relation to free lumber, again was thrust at Mr. Simmons, this time by Mr. Burkett and, incidentally, he stirred up a hornet's nest because of an interruption by Mr. Heyburn, who suggested that he go slow in that matter, inasmuch as "senators on that side," meaning the Democratic side, were supporting the

APPEAL TO SKIN SUFFERERS

If You Have a Friend Afflicted With Eczema, Tell the Doctor About It.

If you have a friend suffering with eczema, tell him about it the next time you are in the city. Many eczema sufferers have tried so many useless remedies and spent so much money with doctors that they are almost despairing. If they only knew of the simple home cure for eczema, it is nothing more than a simple, white, cream compound (as mixed in D. D. D. Prescription).

Treated with glycerine, thymol and menthol, this simple remedy penetrates the pores of the skin, killing the eczema germs while toning up the healthy part of the skin.

If you will suggest to your friend afflicted with eczema to call, we shall be glad to explain to any sufferer about D. D. D. Prescription.—Drushel & Franklin and Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

Lumber plank of the Republican platform.

Mr. Heyburn took violent exception to Mr. Simmons' reference to "senators on that side."

"Does not the senate expect that a majority of senators on that side will vote for the tariff?" inquired Mr. Aldrich of Mr. Heyburn.

The latter quickly retorted that he would not vote for it.

Mr. Aldrich declared that senators were in a fair way to adjust their differences as to lumber. "Now, let's waive this question of names," he said. "It is the same whether you call it tariff for protection or tariff for revenue."

Mr. Bacon asked if Mr. Aldrich would bring down the duties on wearables to 10 per cent.

Mr. Aldrich answered Mr. Bacon of dodging the Democratic platform by talking about a revenue duty.

I am a protectionist, and have the courage to say so," Mr. Aldrich exclaimed.

HOW PLATFORMS ARE MADE.

"He knows how a committee goes out and makes a platform in a parlour and nobody cares anything about it."

So far as he was concerned, Mr. Heyburn said he did not recognize any such restriction on binding on him when a particular article was picked out and placed on the free list, because of the view entertained by a few men.

"I can tell you when the Democratic platform was written and where," interjected Mr. Burkett, who resides in Lincoln, Mr. Brown's home city, and Republican laughter.

Mr. Simmons then resumed his argument. All he wanted, he concluded, was fair treatment for the lumber industry.

REBUILDING OLD FORT TICONDEROGA

Albany, N. Y., April 28.—Nine men from Cleveland, O., are closely watching the rebuilding and restoring of Fort Ticonderoga in the hope of recovering a large fortune in gold and valuable property which they believe was buried by a relative of the heirs who fought through the Revolutionary war.

The old fort is being restored under the direction of Mrs. Stephen H. P. Bell and the expense is being borne by her father, Col. Robert M. Thompson, both of New York City. Since the work was begun the nine Cleveland men have been constantly about the fort and have closely observed all the excavations which have been made. They have a map and a secret code of directions which they say was left by their relative as a guide to the spot where the treasure was buried.

STORM STRIKES CHICAGO.

Accompanied by Thunder, Lightning and Heavy Rain.

Chicago, April 28.—A violent storm, accompanied by thunder, lightning and rain, struck this city shortly after midnight. The first indication of it came when persons in the Loop district and those riding on the elevated cars and elevated cars were startled by a flash of lightning, followed by a booming of thunder, which was followed by a heavy rain.

In the residence sections householders were awakened and bathes were in alarm. The barometer fell rapidly and as the night wore on the storm increased in intensity, reports of damage in the suburbs and from early towns coming in.

The storm was prevalent throughout the middle west and worse weather, with protrusion of wires and property, was reported within 24 hours. Kansas and Iowa were expected to have a severe hailstorm, with much violence. Telegraph and telephone wires have been blown down for miles southwest of Des Moines. Lightning and hail have been reported from a tornado has wrecked a portion of Many heavy enough to cause a blacked is reported from Oshkosh, Wis., and is general throughout the northwest. In Iowa, near Mason City, three inches are reported.

SWEDEN TAKES UP QUESTION OF TARIFF REFORM

Washington, April 28.—Sweden has taken a lead among the governments of Europe for tariff revision, according to a statement received by the bureau of manufactures.

The Swedish government, it is stated, has appointed a tariff commission to thoroughly revise the tariff schedules of that country in 1910. The commission is under the presidency of a bureau chief representing the minister of finance and consists of two manufacturers, two representatives of the agricultural interests, one of whom is a member of parliament, one wholesale merchant and a government official.

SCIENTIFIC BURGLARS.

Tested Jewelry With Acid Before Taking It Away.

Chicago, April 23.—The jewelry store of John Townsend just south of the Loop district has been robbed of articles valued at $4,000 by scientific burglars, who tested their plunder with acid before taking it away. Plated clocks, chains and watch chains valued at $1,000 ruined by the test were found strewn about the floor.

Crowds of men from a place where workmen were engaged in repairing the street car tracks, were used in prying open the iron bars of a rear window.

Several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds were locked in two safes equipped with electric burglar alarms. The fact that no effort was made to tamper with these safes convinces Mr. Townsend the burglars were familiar with the premises.
