

SOCIAL CHAT

One of the most charming events of the week was the annual breakfast of the Reviewers' club on Thursday. The function was held at the home of Mrs. David Evans, and covers were laid for eighteen, the table being decorated in the club colors, green and gold. An embroidered spread of gold satin beautifully embroidered, extended the length of the table, and ferns, marguerites, plumosa and yellow roses made a picture of the board. Mrs. Charles Plummer was toastmistress and responses were made by Mrs. E. O. Lee, Mrs. David Evans, Mrs. J. C. McClain, Mrs. J. C. Royce, Mrs. William Igleheart, Present. Mrs. David Evans, Mrs. Ellen Elliott, Mrs. E. A. Vincent, Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. Plummer, Mrs. J. C. Royce, Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mrs. J. C. Royce, Mrs. Charles D. Moore, Mrs. E. O. Lee, Mrs. C. E. Blanchard, Mrs. William Igleheart, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. H. C. Woodruff, Mrs. J. C. McClain, Mrs. Wightman.

Mrs. W. A. Druell entertained delightfully Thursday at an informal reception given in honor of her guest, Miss Charlotte Druell of Chicago. The room was effectively decorated in pink and white, carnations and snowballs being used. Mrs. Milton Ogilby and Miss Marie Barker assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Mrs. H. L. Miller was hostess at a second afternoon affair on Thursday. The room was bright with daisies and ferns, and prizes were won by Mrs. Richard A. Keyes, Mrs. N. H. May, Mrs. W. R. Hand and Mrs. David R. Gray.

The hostesses at the Country club today are Mrs. H. C. McClain, Mrs. L. C. Terry, Mrs. F. S. Bascom.

At the home of Miss Vivian Little on Thursday, the Theta Upsilon society gave a reception in honor of the Gamma Phi society, the affair being a most delightful one in all respects.

Mrs. Vincent Hunt entertained delightfully at bridge yesterday at her home.

Among the interesting events of the week were the Shakespearean lectures given by Prof. E. A. Abbott.

Mrs. David Murray entertained informally at dinner on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ferry entertained at dinner on Monday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks of Detroit.

On Monday night Mrs. E. W. Wilson and Miss Elizabeth Bennett were guests of honor at a pretty dinner given by Miss Riddle, the guests numbering 16. The room was effectively decorated in pink, carnations, and plumosa, and a delicious menu was served.

Mrs. Benner X. Smith entertained informally at dinner on Monday in honor of Mrs. Will Clawson.

A pretty affair of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. H. L. Miller on Wednesday. Her guests numbered about 30. The room was beautifully decorated in white and green, palms, ferns and daisies being most effectively used. The dining room was especially artistic, the table having a centerpiece of white daisies, and green and white tulle woven to the four corners. An unusual feature of the game was a prize for each table, the winners being Mrs. George M. Downey, Mrs. Hubbard Reed, Mrs. J. E. Berger, and Mrs. F. J. Fabian. Refreshments were served in the dining room by Mrs. Downey and Mrs. David R. Gray.

Miss Beatrice O'Connor will entertain next Tuesday at cards in compliment to Miss June Hintz.

The bachelor officers of Fort Douglas entertained at a dinner Thursday evening in compliment to Lieut. L. J. McNair and L. B. Moody, who leave shortly for other posts.

Miss Helen Buckingham entertained the members of her sewing club Thursday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Frederick U. Leonard was hostess at a delightful party on Wednesday given in honor of Miss June Hintz. It was in the nature of a combined card and china-shower party, and "63" was played; the prize being won by Miss Clara Deal. The room was daintily in white and green decorations, and about 30 guests were present.

Miss June Hintz entertained the members of her sewing club at her home yesterday, the afternoon being most delightfully spent.

Mrs. E. B. Culver was hostess at a delightful party on Thursday, given in honor of Miss Ada West, the affair being in the nature of a linen shower for the prospective bride. The room was prettily decorated, and Miss West was the recipient of many dainty gifts. A large number of her friends were present to enjoy the event.

Mrs. Tom J. Lambert of 1115 east Second South gave a novelty shower this afternoon in honor of Miss Louise Raymond, whose marriage takes place in the near future.

Mrs. H. V. Pessa entertained the Woman's Republican club this week at her home, a pleasant time being spent. The room was brilliant with palms, pink and white carnations and smiles, and about 100 guests enjoyed the affair.

A delightful event of the week was the reception on Wednesday night given by the Strollers' club at its rooms. These were beautifully decorated in American Beauty and La France roses and smiles, while Japanese lanterns and banners in pink and green added to the pretty effect.

Miss Alma Crisman gave one of the largest home functions of the week on Wednesday night, the event being in honor of Miss Gertrude Mayer and Mr. Charles Crisman. The decorations were in the chosen bridal colors, pink and white, and pink roses combined with the monogram of the guests of honor decorated the cards used in the game, entitled "The Floral Love Story." About 80 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Sheets on Wednesday night entertained graduates of the Central school 30 in number, at their residence on Seventh East. Refreshments and punch were served, and music and games were among the features.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauer entertained at cards on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Hall of San Francisco.

Miss Julia Cullen was hostess at an informal dancing party on Tuesday evening, the affair taking place at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felt announce the engagement of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. Albert Toronto, the wedding to take place during this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hudson announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Rulon K. Owen, the marriage to take place on June 11.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Pearl M. Evans and William Fisher, the wedding to take place on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felt announce the engagement of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. Albert Toronto, the wedding to take place during this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hudson announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Rulon K. Owen, the marriage to take place on June 11.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Pearl M. Evans and William Fisher, the wedding to take place on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felt announce the engagement of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. Albert Toronto, the wedding to take place during this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hudson announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Rulon K. Owen, the marriage to take place on June 11.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Pearl M. Evans and William Fisher, the wedding to take place on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felt announce the engagement of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. Albert Toronto, the wedding to take place during this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hudson announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Rulon K. Owen, the marriage to take place on June 11.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Pearl M. Evans and William Fisher, the wedding to take place on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felt announce the engagement of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. Albert Toronto, the wedding to take place during this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hudson announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Rulon K. Owen, the marriage to take place on June 11.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Pearl M. Evans and William Fisher, the wedding to take place on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felt announce the engagement of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. Albert Toronto, the wedding to take place during this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hudson announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Rulon K. Owen, the marriage to take place on June 11.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Pearl M. Evans and William Fisher, the wedding to take place on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felt announce the engagement of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. Albert Toronto, the wedding to take place during this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hudson announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Rulon K. Owen, the marriage to take place on June 11.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Pearl M. Evans and William Fisher, the wedding to take place on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felt announce the engagement of their daughter, Etta, to Mr. Albert Toronto, the wedding to take place during this month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hudson announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Rulon K. Owen, the marriage to take place on June 11.

June 6 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans.

The wedding of Miss Lulabel Elsdredge and Mr. C. E. Carlson takes place next Thursday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Elsdredge.

On Wednesday, June 14, at high noon, at Ogden, will take place the marriage of Miss Louise Perry of that city and Emmett Fulkerson of Chicago.

The marriage is announced of Miss Hazel Crisman and Nephil J. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spilbury have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Wilford Brownell of Ogden, which takes place June 14.

Cards have been received for the marriage of Miss Rita Jean Taylor and Roberte Santa Gray, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor, 25 south First West street.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Garff and James A. Ball, the marriage to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Braun on Thursday, June 15.

Ruth and Lydia Palmer left this week for a tour of Europe.

Miss Marguerite Donnellan will be home from California next week.

Miss Mary Smedley is expected home from the east this month. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Curtis may accompany her home to spend a part of the summer.

The Misses Evelyn and Eudora Daly will be home tomorrow from National Park seminary, Washington, to spend the summer.

Miss Beth Dunbar, Hooper Dunbar and Ruth Sherman will go for a short trip through the south before returning to the city to spend the summer.

Mrs. H. E. Cole will leave the first of next week for Mount Shasta to spend a part of the summer.

Judge and Mrs. O. W. Powers have gone to California for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gorham will spend the next two months in Portland, Or.

Mrs. J. A. Kimball, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff and Dr. and Mrs. Charles G. Plummer will leave some time in June for Alaska.

Mrs. A. L. Williams left Wednesday for Denver, where she will make her future home.

Miss Effie Nebeker of Logan visited in Ogden this week, the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. Z. Terry.

Miss Phoebe Pearl Brown and Mr. Herbert Foulger were married in the Salt Lake Temple Wednesday. They returned home the following day, and were given a family reception. The bride is a young lady of charming personality and winsome ways, and has been a leader in Ogden society. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foulger, a young business man of promising ability.

Mrs. W. H. Hilton returned home Monday from a pleasant month's outing in California.

Mrs. Isaac Kelly and daughter of Pocatello, are visiting in Ogden, the guests of Miss Leola S. Kennedy.

Miss Williams, a young southern girl, gave an evening with the "Blue and the Gray" Monday at the Methodist church, for the benefit of the G. A. R. fund. The entertainment was enjoyed by a good sized audience.

Glennwood Park, Ogden's popular pleasure resort, opened on Decoration day for the season, under the management of J. H. Young. Those who visited the park this week were very much pleased with the vaudeville performance, dancing and band concerts.

Fred J. Kiesel returned home Tuesday from an eastern business and pleasure trip.

W. J. Shealy and his bride returned Monday from their wedding tour of the east.

PROVO.

One of the most interesting parties of the season was given by the Ladies' Guild to about 50 of their friends in the dancing hall, at the Hotel Roberts on Monday evening. Three very artistic cozy corners, were prettily draped and made bright with large red poinsettias. Dancing and cards were the evening's pleasures.

The Club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Irvine on Wednesday evening. The members were all present, and plans laid for definite action, regarding a public library.

Mrs. Sam Schiav and sister, Miss Merian Neike, were guests during the week of Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood of Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John Giles announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Queen Chisholm to Mr. Adelbert Gray of Ogden, the marriage to take place in June.

Miss Annie Newell spent Monday and Tuesday in Salt Lake City, the guest of Mrs. W. H. King.

A prettily planned social affair, was the reunion of the graduating class of 1904. When the class parties, at their graduation ten years ago. It was agreed, that all should return and participate in a class social at the commencement of 1905. The banquet tables were arranged on the university lawn, among the June roses, green trees, hedge and palms, many were the glad greetings, after so long a parting. Many amusing toasts were given, and ten years' experiences brought to light gladness, and sadness for all.

A happy surprise party was the one given by the Kindergarten Normal class on Tuesday, in honor of their teacher, Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry. It was strictly a girl's party and judging by the song and laughter, they enjoyed themselves as only girls can. Those present were Misses Nellie Clyde, Bertie Walsh, Theresa Maester, Bertha Barney, A. J. Long, Annie Shary, Lola Dixon, Mary Bartholomew, Victoria Ottison, Myrtle Nebeker, Ada Taylor and Lizzie Edler.

Mrs. F. A. Maugum, returned Tuesday to her home in Salt Lake City, after a week spent with her parents in Provo.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hodson gave them a merry surprise party on Friday evening. Cards, games and music were the pleasures arranged for a happy evening, the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alma Van Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Jr., Mrs. F. A. Maugum, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Geffries, Mr. and Mrs. Mont Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Orson Bird.

The largest social affair of the week was the house warming given by Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Richards, at their elegant new home on Academy avenue, on Tuesday evening. About 60 friends were welcomed by Dr. and Mrs. Richards and their charming daughter, Blanche, in an evening of happy merriment. The decorations were the blossoms of spring. Sweet peas and large

Mrs. Wherry was hostess Saturday afternoon at a pretty "500" party, given at her home on Madison avenue. The winner of the beautiful prize was Mrs. Scott. She had accepted an important position with the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. Wherry was hostess Saturday afternoon at a pretty "500" party, given at her home on Madison avenue. The winner of the beautiful prize was Mrs. Scott. She had accepted an important position with the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. Wherry was hostess Saturday afternoon at a pretty "500" party, given at her home on Madison avenue. The winner of the beautiful prize was Mrs. Scott. She had accepted an important position with the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. Wherry was hostess Saturday afternoon at a pretty "500" party, given at her home on Madison avenue. The winner of the beautiful prize was Mrs. Scott. She had accepted an important position with the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. Wherry was hostess Saturday afternoon at a pretty "500" party, given at her home on Madison avenue. The winner of the beautiful prize was Mrs. Scott. She had accepted an important position with the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. Wherry was hostess Saturday afternoon at a pretty "500" party, given at her home on Madison avenue. The winner of the beautiful prize was Mrs. Scott. She had accepted an important position with the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. Wherry was hostess Saturday afternoon at a pretty "500" party, given at her home on Madison avenue. The winner of the beautiful prize was Mrs. Scott. She had accepted an important position with the Southern Pacific.

geles are visiting in Ogden, the guests of Mr. Carnahan.

The Ogden High school juniors gave a reception and ball Wednesday evening at Toller's dancing academy. In honor of the seniors. There were present over 100 couples, who tipped the light fantastic until after midnight, to sweet strains of music furnished by Shont's orchestra. The orchestra stand was almost entirely obscured from the main hall by large palms and evergreens. The class colors, red and white, and school colors, black and orange, festooned with red crepe papers were artistically arranged in the dance hall. On the wall in large letters of evergreen were the words: "1905 seniors." Refreshments were served in the reception hall.

Students of the Weber State academy gave a reception Tuesday evening at the academy hall in honor of the faculty. A pleasant hour was spent in songs, speeches and feasting. On Thursday the students had their field day at the Lagoon. The day was filled up with all kinds of pleasures, such as boat riding, dancing, feasting, racing and ball playing.

J. H. Spargo and wife have returned home from a two months' pleasure trip east.

Mrs. A. L. Williams left Wednesday for Denver, where she will make her future home.

Miss Effie Nebeker of Logan visited in Ogden this week, the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. Z. Terry.

Miss Phoebe Pearl Brown and Mr. Herbert Foulger were married in the Salt Lake Temple Wednesday. They returned home the following day, and were given a family reception. The bride is a young lady of charming personality and winsome ways, and has been a leader in Ogden society. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foulger, a young business man of promising ability.

Mrs. W. H. Hilton returned home Monday from a pleasant month's outing in California.

Mrs. Isaac Kelly and daughter of Pocatello, are visiting in Ogden, the guests of Miss Leola S. Kennedy.

Miss Williams, a young southern girl, gave an evening with the "Blue and the Gray" Monday at the Methodist church, for the benefit of the G. A. R. fund. The entertainment was enjoyed by a good sized audience.

Glennwood Park, Ogden's popular pleasure resort, opened on Decoration day for the season, under the management of J. H. Young. Those who visited the park this week were very much pleased with the vaudeville performance, dancing and band concerts.

Fred J. Kiesel returned home Tuesday from an eastern business and pleasure trip.

W. J. Shealy and his bride returned Monday from their wedding tour of the east.

PROVO.

One of the most interesting parties of the season was given by the Ladies' Guild to about 50 of their friends in the dancing hall, at the Hotel Roberts on Monday evening. Three very artistic cozy corners, were prettily draped and made bright with large red poinsettias. Dancing and cards were the evening's pleasures.

The Club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Irvine on Wednesday evening. The members were all present, and plans laid for definite action, regarding a public library.

Mrs. Sam Schiav and sister, Miss Merian Neike, were guests during the week of Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood of Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John Giles announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Queen Chisholm to Mr. Adelbert Gray of Ogden, the marriage to take place in June.

Miss Annie Newell spent Monday and Tuesday in Salt Lake City, the guest of Mrs. W. H. King.

A prettily planned social affair, was the reunion of the graduating class of 1904. When the class parties, at their graduation ten years ago. It was agreed, that all should return and participate in a class social at the commencement of 1905. The banquet tables were arranged on the university lawn, among the June roses, green trees, hedge and palms, many were the glad greetings, after so long a parting. Many amusing toasts were given, and ten years' experiences brought to light gladness, and sadness for all.

A happy surprise party was the one given by the Kindergarten Normal class on Tuesday, in honor of their teacher, Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry. It was strictly a girl's party and judging by the song and laughter, they enjoyed themselves as only girls can. Those present were Misses Nellie Clyde, Bertie Walsh, Theresa Maester, Bertha Barney, A. J. Long, Annie Shary, Lola Dixon, Mary Bartholomew, Victoria Ottison, Myrtle Nebeker, Ada Taylor and Lizzie Edler.

Mrs. F. A. Maugum, returned Tuesday to her home in Salt Lake City, after a week spent with her parents in Provo.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hodson gave them a merry surprise party on Friday evening. Cards, games and music were the pleasures arranged for a happy evening