

THE CLIFF HOUSE LITTLE DAMAGED.

Famous Seaside Resort Did Not Fall in the General Disaster.

FAMOUS SUTRO BATHS SAFE.

A Few Windows Broken and Chimney of Pumping Plant Slightly Cracked.

San Francisco, April 22.—A thorough inspection made by a representative of the Associated Press, who made the trip in the automobile, shows that comparatively little damage was done in the vicinity of the Cliff. The Cliff house not only stands, but the damage sustained from the earthquake shock to this historic building will not exceed, according to the statement of Manager Wilkins, $5. In fact, the escape of the Cliff house is one of the curious features of the disaster which has befallen San Francisco.

The famous Sutro baths, located near the Cliff house, with its hundreds of thousands of square feet of glass roofing, also was unharmed. Only a few of the windows in the Sutro baths and in the Cliff house were broken, and the lofty chimney of the pumping plant of the former establishment was cracked only slightly.

Manager Wilkins of the Cliff house notified the general relief committee that he would turn over his establishment, as well as the immense stables of his resort, which are unharmed.

The camps of refugees extend as far westward through the park as the beach. Every one and they were receiving enough to eat and drink but in order to get their supplies they were obliged to stand in line at some places as long as four hours. This, of course, worked serious hardship on many of the women, who were in a state of exhaustion.

There was much complaint on account of the cold at night from those who were not provided for in tents and who were obliged to seek shelter beneath the shrubbery, with insufficient covering in the way of blankets. This complaint is doubtless to be considerably improved today, as tents and covering of all sorts are arriving at the headquarters of the relief committee from the interior of California, as well as from the east.

DOWNFALL OF SOLOMON.

Volva Used as Text to Describe the Fate of Dowle.

Chicago, April 22.—The downfall of Solomon was used yesterday by Denver Overseer Wilber Glenn Volva in a sermon at Zion City to describe the fate of John Alexander Dowle, who, he said, had "incurred the wrath of God and lost a kingdom."

Thousands of strangers flocked to Zion expecting to see Dowle and witness a clash between his followers and those of Volva. At the conclusion of the meeting Volva asked the members of the restoration to renounce their oaths given to Dowle and with only a few exceptions this was done.

BIG DONATION WITH BIG IF.

New York, April 22.—Rev. Dr. Ernest H. Stires, rector of St. Thomas Protestant Episcopal church, has announced that if the consent of the donors can be obtained, one-half of the sum of $500,000 contributed by his parishioners toward the building of a new and greater St. Thomas in place of the church which was destroyed by the last summer's earthquake shall be given to the bishop of California.

At the conclusion of the meeting Volva asked the members of the restoration to renounce their oaths given to Dowle and with only a few exceptions this was done.

CHICAGO CHINATOWN CONTRIBUTES FIVE THOUSAND.

Chicago, April 22.—Chicago's Chinatown has contributed more than $5,000 to the victims of the San Francisco earthquake. Many of the celebrities unaware that anything out of the ordinary had occurred in the coast city, were acquainted with the facts of the horror at the Joss house meetings yesterday, and silver coins and bills were literally poured into the collection boxes when they were passed around.

SAN FRANCISCO DISASTER.

One Hundred Books Telling All About It in Course of Preparation.

Chicago, April 22.—The Record-Herald today says:

One hundred distinct and separate books telling the complete story of the San Francisco earthquake and fire, each one of them "the only authentic account" are in progress of preparation in the various cities of the country and they will be offered to the country before the embers are cool.

EARTHQUAKE AT GRANT'S PASS.

Portland, Or., April 22.—A special to the Oregonian from Grant's Pass, Or., says that at 12 minutes past 1 o'clock this morning an earthquake shock was felt, accompanied by a rumbling noise which was plainly audible. Nearly every one in town was awakened. Fear moved in the houses and several windows were cracked, but no serious damage was done. The shock lasted for 15 to 20 seconds and its course apparently was from east to west.

END OF THE WORLD.

Traveling Salesman in San Francisco Thought It Had Come.

Pueblo, Colo., April 22.—R. K. Coffman, a traveling salesman from Fort Worth, Texas, arrived in Pueblo from San Francisco last night. He says he had nothing to do but drink from Tuesday evening until Thursday morning, and that when he looked out over the city and saw the falling buildings and

BASEBALL GAME AT WALKER'S FIELD

Butchers and Grocers' Team Defeated by the Salt Lake Nine.

SCORE: THIRTEEN TO ONE.

Hall, of Snake River Valley Fame, Promises Decidedly Well in the Pitching Line.

About 20 yelling, hooting happy individuals forgot the San Francisco disaster long enough yesterday afternoon to make a journey down to Walker's baseball field to witness a game between the Butchers and Grocers and the Salt Lake teams.

While the contest was not such as to burn up the diamond or wreck the grandstand, it was good enough to keep the spectators on the scene until the end came, and served to whet their appetites for more of the national pastime.

The ballgame attracted in Salt Lake uniforms were not strangers to the fans, with the exception of Hall, a pitcher captured from the Snake River Valley, and he was soon one of the favorites as he seemed to be one of the favorites.

Work in that line yesterday, Hall and Jensen did the twirling for the home guards and the visiting team. Hall pitched seven hits and one run. When they got through, the fans were glad that John Duhal had secured Hall, a pitcher captured from the Snake River Valley, and he was soon one of the favorites.

Mr. Crocker, who was in the collection of the paintings, talked about the rescue of the paintings. Head is Mr. Crocker's brother.

I am much gratified at the devotion Head displayed in saving my pictures and tapestries at a time. Besides 'The Man With the Hoe,' I have pictures by Tenny, Troyon, Paul Potter, Corot, Monet, Renoir, Puvis de Chavannes, Pissarro and Constable. The tapestries consisted of six Flemish pictures dating from the sixteenth century, of which the finest is a 'Resurrection.' It is a splendid example of tapestry work and was once the property of the Duc d'Albe.
