NOTES FOR THE LADIES.

A number of New York ladies are forming a new association. A Georgia railroad which ran over and killed Mrs. Don paid down $18 to her estate.

Blonde hair is no longer the style in the East. Every woman wants to be a brunette.

Lyons, Mass., has received its longest piano, and women walk six miles to see it.

Eight out of ten American ladies coming back from Europe bring with them the latest in millinery, and will wait to see it.

A New Hampshire girl aged eighteen captured a bold burglar that broke into her uncle's house recently.

A widow woman of Xenia can fill a barrel of flour, she lifted one from a mill the other night, and went to jail for three months.

At the recent exercises of the State Normal School in Salem, Mass., a mother and daughter were in the graduating class together.

Three Bennington seminary girls climbed to the top of Mount Equinox, Vt., recently, going straight up by the shortest and steepest route, a feat seldom, if ever, accomplished before.

Up in Iowa the ghost of a young woman made her lover happy by telling him where to find her, and then made him miserable by ordering him to contribute to a church.

Miss Mary J. Davis, an accomplished young Iowa, avoided obedience to her parents' command to marry a man she did not love by shooting herself.

Mrs. Ham, of Canterbury, Mass., who was rendered speechless by a shock of lightning in July, 1874, has had her voice restored by the birth of a child. This is a new way to cure a dumb.

A Western paper says of the air, in its relation to man, that it will not obey him, but he will not obey him. Poor Dobbs says that description suits his wife exactly.

The title of the New York World says that Nilsson is more careless in the use of her voice than when in the United States during her marriage. This is the usual result of matrimony, as many a poor man can certify.

Different people do things differently. Mrs. C. of Boston, Wis., has a boy of seventeen years who weighs just twenty pounds; and Mrs. Baileigh of Chicago, has a boy of two days that weighs just fifteen pounds.

In Bombay, the representatives of Woman's Rights have succeeded in obtaining a government resolution ordering the vote of the native ladies who may wish to take part in the election of members for the new corporation to be collected at their homes.

Feats which his lady-love was all his, and when he had a man race had but one neck, but a Parisian lover distanced both when he sent a bottle of perfume to his sweet-heart with the sentiment, "When you smell this you will wish you were alone."

Squire's Lady: "And how has your brother Jack been behaving lately, Billy?"

"Thank you, my lady, he has been in his usual way, as you are the good boy as you sent him and his wife to Sunday school, and it doesn't seem to do him one particular harm at present."—London Fun.

The subject of impressions at first sight was being talked over in a family circle, when the mother of the family said, "I always form an idea of a person on first sight, and generally find it correct." "Mamma," said her youthful son, "Well, my dear, what is it?" "I was to know what was your opinion of me when you first saw me."

According to a California paper, a young lady of that State, in her gentleman about her Xmas costume trip, said the scene was gorgeous—perfectly ravishing—but she didn't like the style of location where it was held. "How's that?" said her friend, "how did you loom?" "Why don't you think?" she asked. "I had to ride a clothe-line."

A successful operation was recently performed at the New England Hospital for Children in Boston, Mass., by Miss Dimmock, who removed no less than seventy-two tumors, weighing in all from the dimensions of a pea to those of a pullet's egg, from the neck of Sarah Barrell, daughter of Mr. Thomas Barrell, of Nantucket.

Miss Belle Sprague, of North Bridgewater, was riding out one evening lately, near Randolph, when two men sprang from the side of the road and seized the horse by the head. She instantly gave the animal a blow with her whip and he sprang forward, sending the nasal prostate to the ground, and the lady went on her way rejoicing in an escape from their assault.

A young lady in Pond du Lac, while out walking with her lover, was attacked by a tiger which seized her by the breast and tore from her body. The lover fainting with horror at the sight, left the young lady, much mortified, being for the dog with a pistol, remarking that "that cost a dollar and a half, and we'd made for no dog to chew up."

A colored preacher in Kentucky misbehaved so outrageously that he was expelled from the church, and his wife, who was a member of the church, was expelled from the church, and his wife, who was a member of the church, was expelled from the church.

The following tender missive was picked up in the ladies' sitting room of the railroad depot at Fond du Lac, Wis., on the 10th inst. as much as you could at a quarter of 12 last night. Say you do, dearest, and it will give me spirit to go down and tackle them could be left from yesterday. Charles' answer will undoubtedly run somewhat in this way: "Dear Susan, I do. Tackle them boys."

The Princess of Wales is described as being a most lovely woman—tall and perfectly formed, her every movement graceful, and her manners winsome and wholly unaffected. Her face is all sunshine and sweetness, and one never to be forgotten. Her popularity in England is very great, all classes regarding her with respect and affection, and she is a great favorite with the people.

Dr. Eliza Walker has resigned the post of house surgeon to the Bristol (England) Hospital for Women and Children. In consequence of her appointment to the post of house surgeon to the Bristol (England) Hospital for Women and Children, she is leaving the post of house surgeon to the Bristol (England) Hospital for Women and Children.

It is proposed to organize in Boston a "Woman's Moral Reform Association," having for its objects:

1. The providing of a certain number of ladies to visit the homes of the poor.
2. To loan to any member without interest, a certain sum of money.
3. To provide respectable burial in case of death, to said deceased member, as well as a certain amount to be paid to the family of the deceased member.
