

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

Special Correspondence.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Mrs. R. C. Easton and Miss Nan Clawson arrived in the city Wednesday evening in perhaps the worst rain storm that has visited New York for months. Umbrellas had been carefully stowed away at the bottom of their trunks, as they had counted on fine weather, a little more cheerful, however, whether Mrs. Easton arrives in sunshine or rain she always retains the same cheerful disposition and is always a welcome addition to our colony. She and Miss Clawson will be the guests of Miss Helen Davis at 219 West Thirty-fourth street until after Mrs. Easton has placed Miss Clawson in school. It is then her intention to

WITHIN THE IRISH VILLAGE.

Reproduced From the Desert News World's Fair Portfolio.

While entrance to the Irish village is through a reproduction of the Parliament House at Dublin, the extensive and elaborate character of the village is not appreciated until one reaches the court upon which the several structures face. In the center of the green is a large band stand in which concerts are given by musicians from Dublin. Behind the band stand is Blarney Castle, through which is the entrance to the theater. On the side is the exhibit building in which is an installation of Irish manufactures, surprising to most visitors. Laces, linens, poplins, and other textiles are shown as manufactured in the model factories of Ireland. There is an Irish art gallery; there are Irish manuscripts with marvelous illuminated lettering. On the opposite side of the court is an old cottage said to be a reproduction of one that was built and occupied by the grandfather of the late President of the United States, William McKinley. In the cottage are shown historic relics of the McKinley family. Many famous places of Ireland, as for illustration the Lake of Killarney are reproduced in miniature. The jaunting cars are on exhibition and in use. Sed was brought from the old country to thrive upon the soil of the court. The arrangement of the buildings is in accordance with the sentiment, being in the form of a Celtic cross. The picture was taken the day of dedication.

Given up to Die.

B. Spiegel 224 N. Virginia St. Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder ailments which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle, I am entirely cured." For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

CALL FOR DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Democratic convention, composed of delegates, to be selected by the several voting districts of Salt Lake County, is hereby called to meet in Salt Lake City, on Wednesday, September 28, at 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, which will be held on Tuesday, November 1, 1904, to-wit:
One County Commissioner, to serve for a term of two years.
One County Clerk.
One County Assessor.
One County Treasurer.
One County Attorney.

Miss Snow was received by the great Lambert, as since he resigned the directorship of the New York College of Music he has had more applicants for pupils than he can handle, so naturally only the best are received. Miss Snow is stopping temporarily at 354 West Fifteenth street.

Rehearsals have been going on for over two weeks for the opening night of "Elen Helden," which occurs at New Rochelle next Tuesday. The company leaves tomorrow night in order to have a dress rehearsal and see that all is in readiness for the initial performance. Both Miss Thomas and Miss Eldridge are well pleased with their parts and as Mr. Horton (the star) and the play, have stood the test for two seasons, there seems to be nothing to hinder the piece from enjoying a successful season. The following Salt Laker have decided to make the trip to New Rochelle to attend the opening: Misses Claire Ferguson and Lulu Snow and Messrs. Chas. Meakin, Clyde Squires, Miley Pratt and A. Rosebaum.

Mr. Chas. W. Meakin, who goes out ahead of Henry W. Savage's "Grand Opera Company," has been busy the past two weeks informing the Brooklynites what is in store for them. He expects to do the same thing in Utah before long. Mr. Meakin makes an ideal advance man, and it is not surprising that Savage should have engaged him for his staff.

Miss Clara Young, daughter of Col. Willard Young, leaves next Wednesday to study special examinations prior to entering Vassar college, where she will be studying the coming winter. Miss Hattie leaves a few days later, to commence her second winter's work there.

Col. and Mrs. Young moved last week from their former apartments on Riverside drive to 181 West Eighteenth street.

Miss Ada Patterson, the breezy writer, and all around journalist, had a very interesting article in the Journal recently, describing a test trip a number of prominent New Yorkers made through the subway. Whenever Miss Patterson writes an article now, she is always given credit in just the same sized type as Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Dorothy Dix and others of the Journal's headliners.

The colony were sorry to read in last Saturday's "News," that Miss Marie Jones arrived from the east, only in time to accompany her grandmother's remains to the grave. Miss Jones has a number of friends here who will sympathize with her in her sorrow.

Al. Swenson begins rehearsals tomorrow for "Down Our Way," a description of which was given in a previous letter.

Brigham Rovee, a former member of the old Grand stock company, plays the villain in William Collier's new success, "The Dictator," which closed its long New York run last night at the Criterion theater.

Elder Bert Woolley arrived from the west last Monday to enter upon his duties as a missionary and has been assigned to labor in Brooklyn for the present. Elder Woolley is from Kanab, Utah.

A large half-ton reproduction of Miss Lesona Damon appeared in the World recently accompanying a very favorable review of her rendition of "The Little Princess."

A former Salt Laker to drop in on us unexpectedly was H. C. Wallace, formerly of the Wallace Drug Co. Mr. Wallace has been fulfilling a two-years mission to the eastern states, but has been on a leave of absence for some weeks in order that he might visit his relatives in the New England states before re-entering. Elder Wallace left last evening for Albany to resume his work, where he will remain until December, when he expects to be released.

Clyde Squires has been given his old position on the staff of "Pictorial Review" and started some days ago to resume his work. Beginning next week Mr. Squires expects to work only part time and devote the rest of the day to study at the New York School of Art, where he is to be monitor of the evening illustration class.

An arrival that is looked forward to with much pleasure is the coming of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sears. Mr. Sears is to take a course of instruction from Mr. Dan McCarthy, one of the best known cartoonists in New York City, and one who has probably done as much for the advancement of his art as anyone in recent years. "Jack" will certainly be received with open arms and everything will be done to make his and Mrs. Sears' stay a pleasant one.

On the first of October the following Utahans are to occupy the comfortable apartments on Manhattan Ave., which have been the home of Frank Eldredge and his sister Ruth, for some time. Mr. and Mrs. "Jack" Sears, Mrs. Ella Squires, Miss Lulu Snow, Mr. Geo. Y.

Barratt and Mr. Clyde Squires.

Mr. Will Young, son of John W. Young, arrived in Gotham last Thursday with Mrs. Young, to visit for ten days. It is now some two years since Mr. Young left to reside in Utah and his many friends here are more than pleased to welcome him back.

Elder Fred Elgren, who has been released from his missionary duties and has been visiting a number of the large eastern cities in company with Mrs. Elgren, who came east to travel home with him, arrived in the city Wednesday from Boston, where they spent a pleasant week sightseeing and greeting friends. Elder Elgren was the speaker at Sunday services and delivered his farewell address, as he and Mrs. Elgren leave Tuesday for the west, stopping en route at Chicago and St. Louis.

Mr. R. E. Cummings of the Desert News, leaves on Wednesday for Utah, but will make stops at Albany, Buffalo, Chicago, St. Louis and Denver before reaching Salt Lake, which will be about Oct. 3. He expects to return some time in January.

Mrs. Barchinal, one of the first converts in this branch of the Church, leaves with Elder Elgren for Utah, where she intends to live, and where she will enter the mental hospital as a nurse.

Mr. Hyrum Woolley of Paris, Idaho, who has been in New York since last February, to promote some mining interests, left recently, with Orestes U. Bean, author of "Corianton," for Pennsylvania, where they both go to attend to some mining business.

President McQuarrie moved last week from the Church headquarters on 13th street to 404 St. Nicholas Ave.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver and Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by Z. C. M. L. Drug Store.

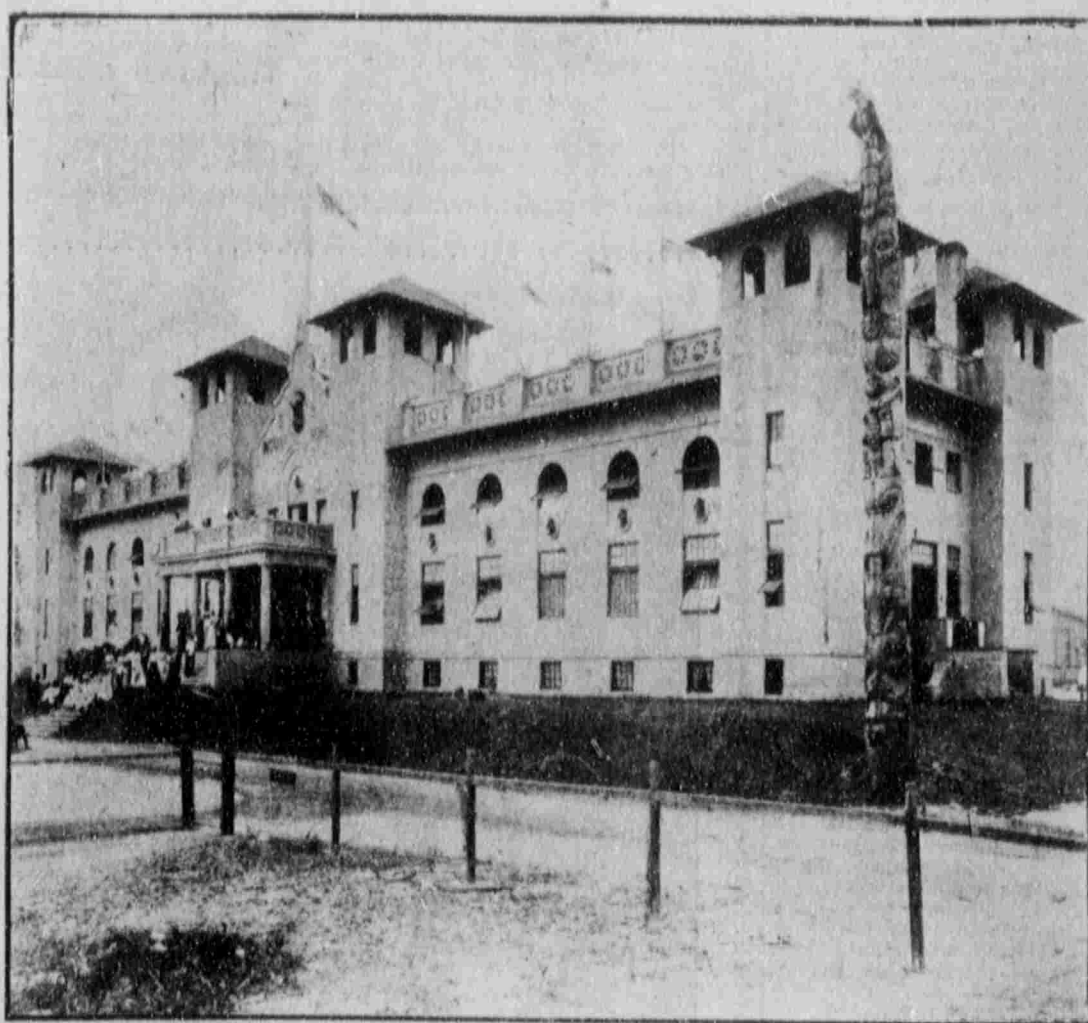

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Geo. A. Elyman, Lisbon, Red Mill, Lawrence Co., N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a vast amount of medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I feel now I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

THE UNITED STATES INDIAN SCHOOL.

Reproduced From the Desert News World's Fair Portfolio.

One of the most conspicuous structures, by reason of its elevation and surroundings, in the western part of the world's fair grounds, is the United States Indian School. It faces upon a large plaza where Indian sports and games take place from day to day. Beyond the plaza is the reservation of ethnology, occupied by communities of many Indian tribes, not entirely confined to the North American continent. The Patagonians of South America and the Pygmies of Africa have their homes on the reservation. Every afternoon a fine band composed of Indian boys renders a program in front of the Indian building. Within the building is conducted an Indian school composed of pupils of both sexes. Special attention is given to branches of industrial education. The boys carry on wood working and iron working. They make furniture; they construct farm machinery of the more simple kinds. The girls cook and are trained in housekeeping. A corps of teachers drawn from the various government Indian schools is on duty. The visitors traverse the hall the full length of the building. Upon the hall open the various class-rooms and workshops of the school. At one corner of the building, illustrative of the Alaskan Indians, is a great totem pole. The picture presents a group of the Indian pupils on the steps leading down to the Indian school plaza.

Tortured for 22 years. Eczema Cured in 3 months by D. D. D. Prescription.

Marion O. June 1, 1903.

D. D. D. Co., Chicago, Ill.
Gentlemen:—I am so grateful for having found a cure in your D. D. D. Prescription, that I feel it my duty to write you about my case so that you can tell other sufferers about it, for I know it will do the same for them that it did for me.

My occupation as gardener keeps me exposed to the weather a great deal and consequently my skin disease would effect me a great deal. For twenty-two years I have been in torture from a severe case of eczema and often I have had to stop my work in the garden and go in out of the sun, for it seems when I got heated the eczema itched and burned me as though I were alive. Your D. D. D. was recommended to me by Mr. Froeken, who has agency for our city, and though I had no faith in it because everything else failed, I decided to give it a trial at least. I suffered no longer, for D. D. D. gave me relief once and I was glad to keep on using it.

It seems impossible that a case of so many years standing should be cured in three months, but I realize that it did in my case. I cannot praise or recommend it too highly.

Yours respectfully,
AUGUST C. EHRLHART.

If you are suffering the tortures of the damned don't hesitate, but go TODAY, NOW, to your druggist and invest $1.00. It will not be an expenditure, but an investment in happiness.

D. D. D. Prescription
Is guaranteed to cure or money refunded.
