THE CLARK ESTATES.

Administration Matters Will Be Attended to Tomorrow.

The Utah Savings & Trust company has petitioned the district court praying that letters of administration issue to it in the estate of John W. Clark and his wife, Emma Clark, deceased. These are the old people who died last week within thirty-six hours of each other. The petition recites that John W. Clark left a will bequeathing to his wife all his property, which, so far as known, amounts to about $2,500. His estate is represented by the cotenant, $250 mortgage, $100 in cash and $250 in other personal property. Another petition states that Mrs. Clark died three days after her husband's death, and that she has been found, and that for the preservation of the estate to appoint an administrator. Mrs. Clark's estate is valued at $3,000, which includes the property left her by her husband, and in addition $200 in cash and $300 in other personal property. The petition will be heard tomorrow.

PARLEY'S CANYON LANDS.

Mayor and Finance Committee Meet With the Owners.

Mayor Thompson and the Council finance committee met yesterday afternoon and considered offers from six of the land-owners in Parley's canyon to sell their property to the city. William Taylor offered to take $7,500 for 240 acres above the Garn ranch. About forty acres is under cultivation. Mr. Taylor a few weeks ago asked $15,000 for the same property. B. H. Dison offered eighty-five acres, sixty under cultivation, for $5,000. W. W. Taylor wanted $5,000 for ninety-two acres, fifty of which are cultivated. He offered the same property to the city last year for $4,000. Edward Laird has 125 acres, sixty-four of which are cultivated, for which he wants $11,000. Edward W. Laird wants $1,500 for his forty-three acres, fifteen under cultivation. Richard Windmill thought his seventy-four acres, twenty-five of which are cultivated, worth $2,500. The bids were taken under advisement.

FOUR WIVES SEEK THE AID OF COURT

Three of Them Relate Shocking Tales of Cruelty.

ONE ALLEGES DRUNKENNESS

Parties are Mrs. John W. Dennison, Mrs. Wm. McDonald, Mrs. Thos. Smith, and Mrs. Hocking.

Four unhappy wives are seeking legal relief in the Third district. One of the women, Mrs. Esther Dennison, who filed her suit yesterday, prays that she be granted a decree of divorce from John W. Dennison on the ground of cruelty. The complaint alleges that the couple were married in this city on July 25, 1899, and Mrs. Dennison says her husband has treated her cruelly ever since, and upon one occasion Dennison, it is alleged, struck his wife with a parasol. At another time, his wife says, he kicked her and called her vile names. Plaintiff prays for a dissolution of the marriage ties and $25 per month alimony. Ferguson & Cannon are plaintiffs' attorneys.

HERE'S ANOTHER.

Mrs. Minnie McDonald is another wife who wants a legal separation from her husband, William McDonald, on the grounds of cruelty and failure to provide for the parties. They were married on December 11, 1894. At that time the defendant was a widower with three children. Plaintiff says McDonald has been guilty of cruel treatment toward her. Frequently, she says, he called her vile names, accused her of stealing his property and when she is also accused of repeatedly calling her wife a "red-headed devil," telling her she was "daff" and encouraging her to turn up her nose at him. Plaintiff says she has been driven upon several occasions knocked her down and often pushed her out of bed. Defendant is also accused of neglecting to supply his home with the proper necessities, and when his wife's baby was born he said he would refuse to send for a nurse or have anyone to wait upon her. Mrs. McDonald prays for a decree of divorce, a division of the household furniture and the express business and the title to a good salary. D. C. Eichner and P. P. Christensen are plaintiffs' attorneys.

AND STILL ANOTHER.

Emma Smith would also like to obtain a decree of divorce from the fourth applicant, and wants a divorce from William K. Hocking, alleging drunkenness as the cause. The couple were married in Salt Lake in the year 1884, and for years Mrs. Hocking alleges, the defendant has failed to provide for his home. The defendant is now residing in the city of Knoxville, and long before he went he was addicted to drink, so his wife says. His conduct became such that his wife, so it is alleged, had to leave him. Wilson & Smith are plaintiffs' attorneys.

all the notices in this valley would do well to review this and enjoy the same idea.

All the ground inspected was as level as a floor and it had been cultivated and harvested time and again and then run over with a foot or leveler until it was a perfect seed bed. With this kind of a place it is no wonder that the Utah people have such a reputation for their sugar beets and find it so profitable to raise them.

One man who had raised beets on the same piece of ground for nine years was advised by the field manager of the sugar company to change and put his ground into wheat, or something else for one year. He replied that he could not think of doing so, as he only owned twenty acres of ground and had a few acres of that into alfalfa and garden and that wheat on the balance would not pay a family expenses, whereas, he got $1,400 for something less than 17 acres of beets last year and he would not under the circumstances give up his privilege to raise that many beets for the factory.—Grand Junction, Colorado News.

WITH THE JUSTICES.

The jury in Justice McMaster's court which heard the case of D. B. Brinton, charged with cruelty to animals, returned a verdict yesterday afternoon against the defendant and Saturday at 10 o'clock was set for the time of sentencing. Dr. Beatty, the complaining witness, was absent, and Assistant County Attorney Grier issued an attachment for him which was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Hilduff for service. On being brought before the court, Dr. Beatty explained that he had been attending to professional work earlier in the day but that he had forgotten about the case in court in the afternoon. Justice McMaster imposed a fine of $5, which Dr. Beatty promptly paid.

A Testimonial from Old England.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. "I have saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be able to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy.
