following from a Connecticut paper, is an item worth reading: "Mayor King, of Atchison, in his directions to the city, says: "There is a class called 'Mashers' to whom I direct the attention of the force, who may also be properly classed as vagrants, and should be arrested and who may also be properly classed as vagrants, and should be arrested and almost prosecuted. I refer to street corner cafers and idlers who habitually congregate on prominent street to ners and in front of prominent places, using vile language and star-places, using vile language and star-throw, all the finest traits of excelrest all such."

As there are "mashers" in Salt Lake, who are addicted to practices similar to those mentioned above would it not be well for our own police to act upon the advice given by the Mayor of Atchison?
