WHY THE BOYS GOT OFF.

No Juvenile Department to the City Jail.

Will, Louis and Hyrum Richards, three small boys, were tried for assault and battery yesterday afternoon before Judge Timmony, and at the conclusion of the case were turned loose with the admonition to behave themsolves in the future. They were ac-cused of beating, kicking and striking Hober Mathews, a boy of 11 years, and in their defense they claimed that the Mathews boy had brandished a knife at them. The evidence didn't show is, however, and Judge Timmony lec-

"If there was a juvenile department to the jail," said the judge, "each of you three boys would get five days. As it is, I will let you go. But if you come back, you will go in jail, without the juvenile department." ured them severely.

WANTED IN WYOMING.

Frank Smith of Diamondville Thought to be in Salt Lake.

Frank Smith is wanted in Ulnta county for stealing eleven head of cattle belonging to Beckwith, Quill Co., which he is said to have sold to Corolla & Génesca, butchers in Diamondville. The hides of the cattle are now in the pessession of a justice of the peace at Kemmerer. Smith was last in the pes heard of at Pocatello on Saturday morning, but is believed to be in Sait Lake now.

On Saturday morning at one o'clock Smith boarded No. 3 train on the Oreson Short Line at Kemmorer and went to Pocatello. It is believed be had information that the sheriff of Uinia county was on his trail for he went up into the hills and spent last Friday night there. He must have riden down to Kemmerer during the night for his horse was seen early on Saturday morning making its way back to Dia-mondylile. The animal was unsaddled, but showed the saddle marks on its back and other traces of having been recently hard ridden.

Community The Wilbur-Kirwin Opera company opened its sixth week at the Salt Palace last night with a production of "Pinafore." The heat uptown drove a good many people to the cooler grounds of the resort, and the attendance at the theatre was a very good one, though the house was not crowded. The performance went with spirit, and the cirls in the modern sisters, cousins and aunts gowns' looked, acted and sang in very taking fashion. The saflor chorus, too, did fairly good work. The was nothing especially scintillating i the work of the principals, though Mr Huff secured an encore for the Moon" solo, and Mr. Kohnle was effective as Deadeye. Miss Kirwin appeared as Josephine, Miss Hallam is still ill at the hospital and is greatly missed "Pinafore" goes again tonight.
