

seems like an awful dream. We both lost our tempers, and we both have suffered for it. The miserable geranium? Do you know I can't bear to see one of those plants? I told mother to come and take it back, for I would not have it in sight."

"What!" he ejaculated, "do you still persist in saying that she gave it to you?"

"Why, John, of course she did. Haven't you got over that idea yet?"

"No, I haven't," he persisted, his face darkening, "I bought that geranium as sure as I am a living man."

She thought of his years of cruel desertion, of all he had caused her to suffer because of his obstinacy, and her heart hardened and her face flushed.

"You are mean to say that when you know it is false."

"It isn't false. It's heaven's truth."

"It's no such thing. It's a mean, contemptible lie."

He jumped from the chair, seized his hat and coat, and shot out of the house like a flash, and she never uttered a word in protest. She sat there with clinched hands and white face, and let him go.

And so he is gone. And to-day she is alone with the old burden and the old pain.

Important to Wool Growers!

I take pleasure in announcing that I am making a pure "TO-BACCO SHEEP DIP" from the best Kentucky Leaf, which makes an article of uniform strength and purity, without the addition of poisonous substances, and should be diluted 100 parts to one (although safe to use at any degree of strength) for dipping sheep.

This dip is convenient for use, as it only requires water to dilute it. As tobacco is so well known to wool growers who have used the same, I can only add that I have it in this convenient form for them—put up in one and five gallon tin packages, sealed tightly.

Order either of my Sheep-Dips, viz.:
