

CLARK FORCES QUIT THE GRADE

Injunction Served on San Pedro
Representatives This Morning.

COUNTER MOVE BY CLARK

Next Step in the Grade Controversy
Will be the Filing of Affidavits to Restrict Short Lines.

Assistant United States Attorney General Cherrington of Utah this morning received a dispatch from Nevada shortly before noon notifying him that United States Marshal Frank Bennett at Nevada had arrived on the scene and had promptly served representatives of the Clark forces on the contested grade with the injunction papers.

Mr. Cherrington stated that as soon as the papers were served that the men, acting under advice from headquarters, would at once vacate the grade. Whether they would return to Salt Lake and their homes or on the other hand would camp in the region of the grade, sit in the shade and give the short line forces at their work Mr. Cherrington was not prepared to state.

Engineer McArthur has returned to the scene and in his hands will be placed the disposition of the forces. The reason that the force did not vacate the disputed territory at the time they were served with a telegraphic notice of the issuance of the injunction in the federal court at Carson City is assumed by Mr. Cherrington to be that in his opinion the San Pedro graders were not legally compelled to accept anything that the interested parties might give out as authentic news, as being "traps."

They were in no position to ascertain that an injunction restraining them from occupying the grade had been issued as stated by the short line representatives, and providing they had reason to believe that the restraining order had gone forth they were not in possession of the extent and scope of the order and they were served with a copy this morning. "We always intend to abide by the law," he said, "although some people have expressed an opinion to the contrary. The grade will be vacated, but the matter will not rest there as a counter injunction in the suit will undoubtedly be issued from the United States court at Carson City at an early date."

That this would be the next step in the grade controversy was corroborated by Judge King this morning, but when such a step would be taken, the member of the legal firm of King, Burton & King was not prepared to state. Sam King is at the present time down at Nevada and in conjunction with Judge Sawyer and Senator H. E. Prentiss is looking after the Clark interests on the grade.

United States Attorney C. O. Whittemore, counsel for the San Pedro company, is expected to return from Washington tomorrow night or Friday morning when it is expected that developments in the grade contest will be forthcoming.

PENNSYLVANIA MEETING.

Semi-Annual Dividend of Two-and-one-Half is Declared.

Philadelphia, May 1.—The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad today declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 1/2 per cent, payable on May 15 to stockholders registered on the books at the close of business on the fourth of May.

No other business was transacted at the meeting. The announcement that only the regular dividend of 2 1/2 per cent was declared was a disappointment to those who had expected the increase of one-half per cent allowed to stockholders six months ago, which was allotted today. It was explained by an official of the company that it was customary to consider the question of the extra dividends only when the accounts for the year are made up. The company's fiscal year ends with November.

Mexican Central Meeting.

New York, May 1.—The Herald says: At the annual meeting in Boston today there will be no opposition to the election of the new interests which have secured control of the company. The present board of directors will be changed so as to admit the new element in control.

Among the new interests which are expected to receive representation on the board are J. J. Mitchell, president of the Illinois Trust company of St. Louis and H. Clay Pierce of St. Louis, a director of the American Steel & Wire Co. Others of the new interests are: C. D. Simpson, of Scranton, Pa., who is interested in the El Paso and North American railroad; and Richard Olney and Nathaniel Thayer will represent the new Boston interests. It is expected that Levi Z. Leiter of Chicago; Z. J.

Scrofula

In a disease as old as antiquity, and as young as the newest born infant. It has infested the blood of humanity from ancient times down to the present minute.

It is hereditary or may be acquired. It appears in swollen glands, scrofulous sores, hip disease, boils, pimples, eruptions, and, as believed by high authorities, even in the forms of catarrh and rheumatism.

It can be cured by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and persistently. We know this, because Hood's Sarsaparilla has done it.

It will cure you if you give it a trial. You should begin to take it today.

Hip Disease.—I suffered from hip disease; had 6 running sores; used crutches and each winter I was confined to my bed for weeks at a time. Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished a perfect cure and saved my life. I have a good appetite and feel strong and well. ARNOLD ROBERT, 49 Fourth St., Fall River, Mass.

In Her Eyes.—My little girl had scrofula and sores appeared in her eyes. A few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla entirely cured her and she has never had scrofula since. MRS. HOWARD POPE, Alpha, Oregon.

TOOK TERRY JUST FOUR ROUNDS

To Knock Out Oscar Gardner in Championship Fight.

CONTEST WAS ONE-SIDED.

McGovern Followed His Usual Tactics and Rushed the Fighting from the Sound of the Gong.

San Francisco, April 30.—Terry McGovern knocked out Oscar Gardner in the fourth round tonight at Mechanics' pavilion. From the first minute until the end came there was never a doubt in the minds of the spectators as to the outcome. McGovern forced the pace all through, and had no trouble in landing when and where he liked. Gardner's swings were very wild and ineffective, and only on two or three occasions did he put a clean blow upon the champion.

Gardner took a terrific punelling and went down repeatedly from the fierce assaults of the Brooklyn terror. In the fourth round Terry landed half a dozen rights and lefts on face and body and Gardner went down. He struggled to his feet only to go down again.

Gardner landed one left on the body and the blow only served to irritate Terry, who came back at him with lefts and rights in a perfect shower. Gardner received a hard right squarely in the pit of the stomach, and as he was short on rights, both fighters inclining which ended the fight. Gardner lacked steam and was very slow on his feet. On the whole his showing with the champion was disappointing.

The real contest was between Danny Dougherty, of Philadelphia, and Dad McFadden, of San Francisco, who was a whirling dervish from start to finish. In the tenth round Dougherty sent McFadden to his knees, and while he was in this position struck him a light and unintentional blow on the face. The referee promptly disqualified Dougherty. The decision was very unpopular with the crowd.
