MARRIED ON HIS DEATHBED

Girl from Southern Europe Arrives in fime to See Lover Before The End.

The religious war between foreigners at Garfield and Bingham continues and the feeling of hatred between the various factions has not abated since the recent murders. Threats of assassination are made on every hand and a number of Autrians living in deadly fear of being shot down like dogs have left their places at Garfield and Bingham, and have sought safety in this city. Some have left the community entirely.

It is claimed by those who are familiar with the deplorable condition of affairs that if one makes a threat against another the threat will be car ried out even if it takes years to ac-complish the murderous purpose. The row is between Roman Catholics and Greek Catholics and parties belonging to both factions have left the two

If Atty. Soren X. Christensen, who represents Steve Mier, or Morovich, is successful, the latter will not have a hearing in Bingham on the charge of minder. Mr. Christenser will ach for nurder. Mr. Christensen will ask for change of venue to Justice Holm's murder.

Today Mrs. Marovich, guarded by deputy sheriffs, went to Bingham to dispose of her husband's property. It is understood that she is to leave here for parts unknown to anyone save herself.

bank, I feel it my duty to resign my position as attorney for that bank. While I am quite sure that there will be nothing in the defense of Mr. Nelson that would prevent me from doing my full duty to the bank and to Mr. Nel-son af the same time, yet a condition might arise which would make the two employments inconsistent. I am impelled to make the choice ex-pressed in this letter because of the fact that I have been Mr. Nelson's personal attorney and the attorney for the Jordan bank, which is controlled by him, since the organization of that bank, and for the stronger and decisive Salt Lake Photo and Supply Co. teresting book. Reference is made to Detective Frank Wheeling. For many years he rode the range as a cowboy. He was in Indian troubles an before Buffalo Bill made his first trip to Europe. Wheeling joined that famous western character as a sort of general utility man. He purchased horses and look-cd after the interests of Cody gener-ally. At times when some of the broncho busters were ill. Wheeling's cowboy experience came in handy. especially to the show. He made two trips with the wild west show to Europe.
