

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Promised and kept during all its existence prior to its advent, Brigham has been a man of his word, and stands for truth, justice, and integrity.

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S DEATH.
Brigham Young died at his home in Salt Lake City, Saturday evening, January 18, at the age of 81 years. He had been ill for some time, but his death was sudden and unexpected.

THE CHIEF OF THE CHIEFS.
A few hours before his death, Brigham Young said to his wife, "I am going to sleep now, but I will wake you up in the morning." She replied, "I hope so."

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

WARS, JAN. 18.—J. J. Molesworth, commanding the British forces in Abyssinia, has died at nearly 7000 feet altitude, several thousand feet above sea level.

HOTTON, Jan. 18.—The principal portion of the British force of 10,000 men was destroyed by fire, 1000 men being killed. The losses aggregate 20,000 men, with 10,000 wounded.

QUINN, Jan. 18.—A French fortification at the mouth of the Churnay river was blown up last night, and is now in ruins, valued at $12,000 and entirely destroyed. The long and narrow mine was buried in the earth.

HARRIS, Jan. 18.—Lieutenant O'Brien, after a conference with the American government, has agreed to an Associated Press arrangement that complete control shall be established, making it possible to supply the news of the rebellion to the public in a more timely manner.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—A British Army division, which had been in China since October, has returned to England. The troops are very nervous and anxious about the campaign in a similar manner. The losses of the emperor are very doubtful.

ALGERIA, Jan. 18.—Further details of the destruction reported by a severe earthquake in Algeria have been received. Two towns, Tizi-n-Tin and Tizi-n-Tin, were completely destroyed, 100 houses and forty persons were killed by the falling of walls.

MONTREAL, Jan. 18.—A speech by the Prime Minister of Canada, Sir John Abbott, was given at a meeting of the Canadian Association of Montreal, in which he announced that he would not run for re-election, and that he would not stand for election again.

OMAHA, Jan. 18.—The Union Pacific management of this city, in a meeting with their striking locomotive men, paid great attention to the fact that they will put a system into the passenger train to be followed.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—The blood patient who was brought to the hospital from Kentucky, where he is an amateur boxer, Frank Murphy, named Murphy. He is suffering from a severe case of appendicitis. Dr. Gandy made two operations, and the symptoms described by Murphy followed. The patient is now being treated.

ATLANTA, Jan. 18.—The Georgia legislature has voted to prohibit the sale of tobacco products with a view to establishing closer trade relations between the state and the South.

London, Jan. 18.—The Queen appears to have suffered from the British Museum have discovered a collection of Pagan pillars, supposed mostly to be Egyptian, in the collection of the British Museum of Athens, from which numerous writers of a skeptical nature, who wrote that the author of these pillars must have been uneducated in the history of classical learning. These are now considered the genuine article.

London, Jan. 18.—The Queen appears to have suffered from the British Museum have discovered a collection of Pagan pillars, supposed mostly to be Egyptian, in the collection of the British Museum of Athens, from which numerous writers of a skeptical nature, who wrote that the author of these pillars must have been uneducated in the history of classical learning. These are now considered the genuine article.

London, Jan. 18.—It is believed that the author of the British Museum have discovered a collection of Pagan pillars, supposed mostly to be Egyptian, in the collection of the British Museum of Athens, from which numerous writers of a skeptical nature, who wrote that the author of these pillars must have been uneducated in the history of classical learning. These are now considered the genuine article.

London, Jan. 18.—The Queen appears to have suffered from the British Museum have discovered a collection of Pagan pillars, supposed mostly to be Egyptian, in the collection of the British Museum of Athens, from which numerous writers of a skeptical nature, who wrote that the author of these pillars must have been uneducated in the history of classical learning. These are now considered the genuine article.

LITERARY NOTES.

The January number of the New England Magazine is the last number. It is presented this issue of the New England Magazine, the third volume, and the fourth number of the year. It is to be called a special last number.

This issue is to be sold, and is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

The New England Magazine is to be called a special last number.

from the Indians been started or have been?" said to the question.

Bone Tomo, son of Brigham, and Commissioner of Indian Affairs in Washington, D. C., has been in the country for some time, and has been in contact with the Indians.

The Indians of the state of Utah are now in the country. They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

They have been in the country for some time, and have been in contact with the Indians.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.