The Chicago Street Car Strike Will Have a Serious Effect on Business.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.]

The Chicago Street Car Strike.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The cars were started this morning over the North Side lines. At 7:30 o'clock seven cars drawn by horses and manned by about a dozen policemen each, left the city limits and other car lines destined for the business centre. The cars were not molested by the strikers and onlookers gathered around the barns. The down trip was made successfully without any mishaps to speak of although the cars were somewhat hampered by the crowd of vehicles which took up the tracks. Comparatively few people rode in them.

General Manager Parsons, of the West Division Railway Company, said late this afternoon that all hope of avoiding a strike of the conductors and drivers on his division in sympathy with the North Division strikers had been abandoned and that he had no doubt that the men would quit at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning.

A Judge Assaulted.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 8.—In front of the court house today Judge Lubke of the circuit court was rotten-egged by a well-known business man named Henry Weigel. The judge had rendered a decision against Weigel in a money matter. Weigel was arrested.

Attempt to Kill an Editor.

ANNISTON, Ala., Oct. 8.—An attempt was made this afternoon to assassinate W. H. Edmunds, editor of the Hot Blast, in his office. The trouble grew out of the enmity aroused by the paper's war in favor of the rigid enforcement of the prohibition laws. A week ago four ex-police who had been discharged for inefficiency waylaid Editor Edmunds and beat him severely. This afternoon justice of the peace J. S. Lawrence, accompanied by Will Lacey, entered the Hot Blast office in which at the time were Edmunds, John Copell, the mail clerk, and A. Tribney, who had come in on business. Lawrence called Edmunds outside, where some conversation was had in reference to some communication which appeared in the Montgomery Dispatch, written by Lawrence, who is correspondent for that paper. Lawrence asked Edmunds to retract the severe reply he had made to the communication, but Edmunds refused. Ascertaining that Edmunds was not armed, Lacey pulled a revolver and opened fire on him. He was shot in the left arm and was seriously wounded. Lacey again attempted to shoot but the pistol snapped, which probably saved Edmunds's life. He then fired on Messrs. Copell and Tribney, the former being shot in the neck and the latter receiving two wounds in the head, both being serious. Lawrence and Lacey were arrested. The feeling in the city is strong and much talk of lynching is being done. A mass meeting will be held to-morrow and a plan of action will be decided upon.

A Diamond Steal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Stein & Stein, diamond brokers, missed several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds, and it is suspected that J. P. Miller, one of the clerks, is the cause of the disappearance; $14,000 worth of jewels were found in pawn shops. Miller has disappeared.

Escape from Jail.

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Wm. Lahey escaped from prison here this morning, digging through four feet of solid masonry composing the roof of his cell and sawing through the roof proper. The escape is one of the most laborious and difficult ever accomplished in Auburn prison.

A Horrible Crime.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 8.—At Knightstown this morning, about 2 o'clock, the frame dwelling of N. B. Wade, occupied by Mrs. Hoggins, her mother and Mrs. Martha Cates, situated south of the railroad, was discovered on fire. After breaking open the door Wade was found unconscious at his mother's bed. He was taken out but died in a few minutes. His mother was dead before taken out. Mrs. Cates was not found till her limbs and arms were burned off. A knife covered with blood and a bottle of Paris green were found in Wade's pocket. The indications are that he murdered the woman and then suicided. The tesitimony before the coroner tended to substantiate this theory. Mrs. Cates was the widow of a soldier and resided with Mrs. Hoggins, who had reared her from a child. In 1876 Mrs. Cates was granted $1400 arrearage of pension and a regular pension of $10 a month. Wade illegally assumed her guardianship and appropriated the money to his own credit. Recently she complained to the G. A. R. Post of her treatment by Wade. A legal guardian was appointed and it was found that Wade had appropriated her money. Today he would have been compelled to account for the money, and it is presumed he had been brooding over the matter so much that he became insane and went to his mother's house last night, and after murdering Mrs. Cates set fire to the house. He is then supposed to have taken a large dose of Paris Green and thrown himself into the flames.

Suicide.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Francis W. Williams, senior member of the well known banking house of Williams, Black & Co., committed suicide by shooting himself through the head at the Grand Union Hotel today. The firm was squeezed in the Hutchinson deal in Chicago and suspended Sept. 29th but rallied and opened for business on the first inst. The firm is said to have lost heavily although it is still solvent. Mr. Williams has been acting strangely since the crash in the firm's affairs. He was 36 years old and leaves two sons and a wife.

Blaine on the Stump.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 8.—At Grand Rapids Blaine was met by an immense and enthusiastic crowd. At 3 o'clock the doors of Hartman's Hal were thrown open, and the crowd poured in in a great flood, occupying every inch of space. The larger part of it was made up of workmen in factories, who listened to Blaine with close attention. The gist of his speech was an answer to Postmaster-General Dickinson's statement to the effect that New England and the East get all the advantage of the protective tariff while the West sustains the burden. That, he said, has been the cry of the free traders ever since there was a west, and yet some how, in this great national progress, the west seems to keep her place in the van. Quoting from figures Blaine said that New England took 600,000 tons of grain annually. That out of 300,000,000 pounds of wool raised in the west, New England took one-half, paying the West $45,000,000 for it. She pays $20,000,000 for bread and provisions. The farmers of the western states receive $55,000,000 for butter. She pays the west over $3,000,000, while the states of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, receive $15,000,000 a year for western lumber. For copper, lead, salt and hides, the aggregate of $50,000,000 is paid. This makes an aggregate which is well up to $200,000,000. But Dickinson being a member of an administration that can afford to lend the bankers $60,000,000 a year of government money without interest may think $200,000,000 not much of a sum, though, added Blaine, this amount comes very handy in settling our balances at the end of the year. He pointed out the fact that the total value of the product sent to old England was $327,000,000. He thought Dickinson could improve himself greatly by studying the history of his country.

Grand rapids was ablaze tonight with the flare of 4000 torches lighting up the faces of some 50,000 citizens who turned out to do honor to the city's guest—Mr. Blaine, of Maine. The procession was reviewed by him from the balcony of his hotel. Three largely attended meetings were held in as many large halls. The largest held in Hartman's Hall was briefly addressed by Blaine who said his judgment of Michigan was that as ever she would be found in the republican procession, and "Harrison and Morton would be the next President and Vice-President of the United States." [Cheers.]

"I believe," said Blaine, "their election is essential to the continued prosperity of this country, and if the people of this country believe in the protective system, they must put at the head of the government a President who believes in that system."

Blaine was followed by Generals Ewing and Noyes, whose speeches were heartily applauded.

SECRETARY BAYARD.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 8.—Secretary of state Bayard spoke for three hours tonight to a large audience on the issues of the campaign.

HARRISON AT HOME.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 8.—General Harrison had an unusually large number of callers tonight. There were three delegations of local workingmen. Among them were twelve English workingmen, also Irish, German and several colored laborers. The General received them in the parlors. There was no formal speechmaking on either side, but many of the workingmen conversed with General Harrison.

The republican commercial travelers' club of Indianapolis are making preparations to receive several thousand commercial travelers who are expected to arrive from all parts of the Union to participate in a special reception for traveling men on Drummer's Day, Saturday, the 20th. inst.

Biography of the Late Frederick.

BERLIN, Oct. 8.—Prof. Geffickin excised what he considered necessary of the late Emperor's diary before giving it to the Deutsche Rundschau and editor Rodenburg excised much more. Herr Rodenburg stopped all work immediately on hearing of the trouble over the publication and sent a telegram placing himself at the disposal of the government, but the publishers had already revealed Geffickin's name much to Herr Rodenburg's surprise.

Dr. Broberntz under the title of "Emperor Frederick—A friend of the People" has published a 60 page pamphlet containing contributions from the chief promoters of philanthropy in the kingdom who met Emperor Frederick in that connection. The contributors include Von Bunsen, Curtin, Eberty, Geist and Schrader. The pamphlet gives trustworthy information regarding the sentiments, aims and acts of Frederick. Prof. Curtin says the trait of magnanimity was characteristic of the late Emperor from childhood. Bunsen writes "With nothing was the soul of Frederick more deeply penetrated from his earliest years than with the desire for the welfare of all classes of people."

A further examination of Professor Gefficken has been ordered to be held in Berlin. Dr. Hirschfield has been appointed to conduct the inquiry.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The biography of the late Emperor Frederick of Germany will be published in London shortly. It is believed his widow is the author of the work. Her name, anyhow, is appended to the preface. The profits derived from the sale of this book will be devoted to a hospital for the treatment of the threat.

The Pall Mall Gazette says the work is being revised by Lord Salisbury.

MR. T. C. GRIGGS,

Assistant Leader of Music at the Tabernacle and Manager of the Fifteenth Ward Co-op., Salt Lake City, says:

While camping at City Creek Cañon, my wife discovered that our youngest child had become deaf, and notified me to come immediately, so as to take them home. It seemed to me almost improbable, for when they left home her hearing was perfect; but all our endeavors to make her hear seemed fruitless.

We brought the child home to this city, thinking the deafness only transitory, but the general health of the little one became impaired and a rash covered her head, face and neck.

Seeing that time did not help the case, as she was rapidly growing worse, about the 15th of September we were recommended by Mr. Sears to Drs. Wheeler & Hasbrouck, as he thought they would give us an honest diagnosis and that their treatment would cure the child. Acting upon his advice, we consulted the doctors; they gave us hopes of restoring the child's health and hearing.

After three weeks she is restored to hearing, the rash has disappeared, and her general health is better than for many weeks.

Drs. Wheeler & Hasbrouck are located at 260 S. Main Street, Raybould's Block. Catarrh and chronic diseases.

Death in the Oven.

There is a question that the stunted growth of children and a large class of ultimately fatal diseases as dyspepsia scrofula, kidney disease, nervous derangement, etc., are traceable to a lack of legislative interference for suppressing the sale of adulterated Baking Powders and Flavoring Extracts.

We believe that every consumer should be informed of the fact of there having been found one brand of baking powder that is free from ammonia, lime, alum or any disreputable drug taint, and one brand of Flavoring Extracts that is free from poisonous oils, which is pure, delicious and wholesome, and those are Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Delicious Flavoring Extracts. 5
