PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected Daily by BANK OF DESERET.
SALT LAKE CITY, July 22, 1872.
Buying at $1.11½; selling at $1.14.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE YESTERDAY.—Elder John Nicholson preached at the meeting in the forenoon, and Elder Orson Pratt in the afternoon.

PRESIDENT YOUNG AND PARTY.—President Young and party, who have been attending meetings at Payson, will arrive in town this evening. The company left Provo at 11 o'clock this morning.

FINE TURNIPS.—Cbl. John Winder brought to the city, this morning, some very fine turnips, grown on his land two or three miles south. Most of them weighed from five to seven pounds, and measured over two feet in circumference.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN A TRAGEDY.—A person who lives not a hundred miles from the south-west portion of the Sixteenth Ward, and who is identified with the "liberal," "reformatory," "loyalist" movement, went home lately and found his house closed up. He endeavored to force an entrance at the front door, and while thus engaged another "reformer" passed out at the back; whereupon reformer number one made after number two with a six-shooter, the latter, however, evidently keeps his legs in good order to save the rest of his body, judging from the excellent time he made on the occasion. Had he not been fleet of foot there might have been a bloody tragedy, as we understand the wrath of reformer number one was fearfully enkindled against the disturber of his conjugal peace.

VIGILANTS.—A vigilance committee has been organized in Eureka, Nev., and a number of invitations have been issued by the organization and received and accepted by roughs for the latter to leave that city. So say the papers of that section.

ON A TOUR.—C. H. Forney, Esq., editor of The Church Advocate, Lancaster, Pa., is at present in this city. He is on a tour to California, and will remain here a few days. The journal edited by Mr. Forney is the organ of the "Church of God," an organization that numbers, we understand, 75,000 in the United States. We hope Mr. F. will have a pleasant time on his trip.

POLICE.—Thomas Smith was arrested on Saturday charged with horse stealing.

SQUEEZED.—Last Wednesday, just as the fire broke out at the depot, Chas. H. Taylor was coupling cars on the railroad, and got a pretty hard squeeze in the usual way of such accidents. He happened to give a spring upwards as the cars came together, or he would have been badly injured. As it is he is able to move around, though he feels pretty sore in the pit of the stomach.—Ogden Junction, July 20th.

PROVO CITY, July 20, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

DEAR SIR.—My name appears on the petition against Utah being admitted as a State. At the time I signed said petition I thought it was in favor of Utah, and knew nothing to the contrary until I saw and read the same as printed in the DESERET NEWS. Had I known its contents I never would have signed such a document. Very respectfully,
E. M. JACKMAN.

NEW PAPER.—We are in receipt of the prospectus of the Saint Louis Daily Globe, a paper whose first issue was to appear on or about the 18th inst. The editorial department will be under the control of Mr. William McKee. The Globe is Republican in politics, and will advocate the re-election of Grant.

GETTING WELL.—Bishop W. B. Preston writes from Logan, July 20th.

"I am getting around again. My arm, after discharging a few shot and some scales of bone, is healing up.

"The weather is fine and everything prosperous for the farmers. Crops are excellent. An abundant yield of hay is being harvested."

AT HONOLULU.—The Honolulu Commercial Advertiser of the 13th ult., announces the intended appearance, in that city, on the 17th ult., of that very clever actor and former favorite of the Salt Lake public, Mr. George Pauncefort, in the two comedies of "Delicate Ground," and "A Pair of Pigeons." This talented gentleman had been giving dramatic readings in Honolulu, which were spoken of by the press there in terms of the highest praise. The friends of Mr. Pauncefort here, and he has many of them, will be glad to hear of his success and prosperity.

HOME MISSIONARY APPOINTMENTS for Sunday, July 28th:

West Jordan Ward: Elders R. Miller, R. F. Neslen and A. Smith.
South Cottonwood: Elders J. Van Cott, Milo Andrus and N. H. Felt.
Neff's School House, Big Cottonwood: Elders Isaac Groo, W. A. McMaster and M. B. Shipp.
Meetings to commence at 10 a.m and 2-30 p.m.
These elders are requested to fill the above appointments. L. D. YOUNG

HOME MISSIONARY MEETINGS.—Meetings were held yesterday by home missionaries as follows:

Big Cottonwood Ward.—Speakers: Elder R. F. Neslen, on how to be efficient in the work of the ministry, and how the instructions of the elders should be appreciated; George Teasdale, on the cultivation of gospel gifts, and domestic economy; S. W. Richards, on man's accountability to God; Isaac Groo, on the reign of peace commencing in the domestic circle; R. F. Neslen on the necessity of conjugal and paternal affection continuing and increasing through life, and the cultivation of the gifts and graces of the gospel; Geo. Teasdale, on the power and peace of the gospel.

Fort Herriman.—J. P. Freeze, on the gathering, and general duties of the Saints; — Crain, Word of Wisdom; — Crump made some general remarks; J. P. Freeze, on the training of children; Elder Stocking concluded with an appropriate address.

Sugar House Ward.—M. B. Shipp and Isaac Groo, on every day duties of the Saints; S. A. Woolley and W. A. McMaster, on the order of the kingdom.

THE Colorado Monthly is a 130 page octavo periodical, devoted chiefly to the Resources, Industries and Wants of Colorado. J. H. Wilhelm, Editor and Publisher, Denver. It is very neatly printed with beautiful, fine, delicate type, and the July number, now before us, contains a number of interesting articles.

GEMS.—We have received from C. R. Savage, Esq., some exquisite photographic views of the Soda Springs region. As they were received just before we went to press, we give them but a passing notice to-day. They are real gems of art.

FOULING CITY CREEK.—Quite a number of persons have been in the habit of driving their teams up the waters of City Creek from the bridge on East Temple Street, near the residence of Mr. Horace Whitney up the stream to the blacksmith shop, for the purpose of washing their vehicles and the legs of their animals. Some individuals have even taken carriage mops along, driven their carriages into the stream and put them through a regular course of washing. This fouling of the water used by so many people for drinking and culinary purposes should be at once put a stop to.

ROSE EVANS.—This lady has been recently playing an engagement at Piper's Opera House, Virginia City, and, according to the Nevada papers, has, by her self-sufficient and haughty course, inspired the Nevadans in that vicinity with feelings opposite to those of esteem. Here is what the Enterprise says about the affair:

"Soon after arriving here—after the first night's performance—Miss Evans began to show signs of revolt. She wished to be the star of the company, and to have all the other members of the company subordinate to her. Finally she took the occasion of a little "spat" which she had with some members of the troupe to declare herself. She said she would play no longer unless she could have her salary doubled, her name "starred" on the bills, the selection of all the pieces to be played and a half clear benefit. To appear night before last and play her part she demanded $100. This sum Mr. Piper would not give her, but finally agreed to give her double salary for the remainder of her engagement. To this she agreed, and it was supposed she would appear and play her part that evening." Instead of doing so she surreptitiously left with her husband for San Francisco at a late hour in the afternoon, walking out on the Geiger Grade to take the stage, and leaving their baggage to be sent after them. Mr. Piper, however, clapped an attachment on the same, and it did not go."

The same paper says Mrs. F. M. Bates was on her way From San Francisco to Virginia to fill the place vacated by Miss Evans.
