God folks ever for it must pay

But we, who are bore and everywher The bucken of their faults must bear.

Fight their follies and take their bla · Purge the body and humor the mind; Doctor the eyes when the soul is blind

Ba'ld the column of beaith erect On the quicksands of neglect.

Deacon Bogers he came to me.

"Doctors great an doctors sma !.

Bather my wife the whole day through sweet as boney, or bitter as gall-

Poor old woman, she takes 'em all:

o she pleases whome'er may call,

An' Death is suited the best of all.

Physic and blister, powder and piti-

Bound to conquer, and sure to kill."

Bottle and saucer, spoon and cup-

Or the table stood bravely up:

Physics of high and low degree: C slome', oatnip, honeset tea:

Everything a body could be r,

Excepting light, and water, and air.

I opened the blin's, the day was bright

And God gave Mrs. Rogers some light. I opened the window, the day was fair, Ant God gave Mrs. Hogers some air.

Hatties and blisters, powders and pills,

Catnip, boneset, syrup and squills:

Drugs and medicines, high and low.

"You are crazy" a visitor said:

Dacon Rogers he came to me-

"Wife is comin' around," said he.
"I so'ly think she'll worry through;

she scolids me just as she used to do.

All the people have poohed and shirred

All the neighbors have had their word; Better to perish, some of om say,

Than be cured in such an Irregular way.

Said I. "Your wife had God's good care.

The Deacon smiled and bowed his head;

God bless you doctor! Good day, good day!
