LOCAL BRIEFS.

City Superintendent of Schools Christensen announced this morning that the month of June his office hours will be from 2 to 4 o'clock each afternoon.

Word from St. George says that Dr.

Pike's health has so greatly improved by his sojourn in Dixie that he now weighs 180 pounds, with a marked upward tendency. He expects to reach such a weight as will make him eligible to the presidency of the Utah Patterns association.

Mr. and Mrs. Sig. Simon received the distressing intelligence last night of the death of their brother-in-law, J. O.

Heimberger, of Leadville, Col. He was the proprietor of the Herald-Democrat of that city and a keen young business man. The cause of death was typhoid fever.

The work of putting up small homes is progressing at a rapid pace in this city. Mrs. Emily N. Davis is building a $3,000 home at Eighth East and Eleventh South streets; Fred Roberts is putting up a $1,500 grocery store at Young avenue and Eleventh East street. William H. Hibel has bought a five room cottage at Ninth East and Eleventh South streets.

The police have two messenger boys in hand charged with having sweated cash registers on pay telephones. The boys have been sweated themselves, but without result, and the police are in hot pursuit after other alleged cul-pits. The register tappers pry the little iron cash boxes off the phones and replace them after having emulated out the contents. The company has been in the habit of collecting monthly, but collections are now made weekly, and the boxes will be watched

FOR GRADUATES.

Brilliant and Intellectual Audience at the University of Utah Exercises.

PROUD PARENTS AND PATRONS.

Addresses by Valedictorians, Governor Of the State and Others—Many Happy Students Present.

There was a brilliant audience in the Theater last night while 34 students of the University received their diplomas from President Kingsbury, and for two hours listened attentively to the wholesome advice given by their predecessors along the path of commencement.

Parents, friends and fellow students filled the building to its capacity. The stage was occupied by the students, faculty and prominent citizens, all of whom seemed as vitally interested in the occasion as though they all were receiving degrees. The house was beautifully decorated in national colors and the familiar red and white of the University, while flowers of all descriptions finished the picture.

President Kingsbury presided, and as soon as the audience was in order, he called upon the Rev. William H. Fish for the invocation.

VALIDICTORIAN'S TALK.

Miss Nellie L. Goss, representing the college class, began the program with her address on "Another Side to Education." The subject was thoroughly discussed, her paper containing a good many gems of thought, among them: "The acquisition of knowledge is everything. Schooling, in preparing to live, should not rob us of the pleasure of living."

NORMAL CLASS ORATION.

Fred D. Worlton of the normal class delivered the class oration on "Our Debt." The state educates children, he understood, in order that they might educate others. The debt every student owes can be paid only by working for the betterment of the state.

SENATOR ALLISON'S ADDRESS.

tion, announced this morning that

Last night Detectives Raleigh and Shannon arrested two young men, Iry goodies, on the charge of stealing $200 in gold from Mrs. Charles Johnson who resides on Second South near West Temple. Mrs. Johnson was preparing to leave the place and left her purse, containing the money, on a table, when the young men came in and attempted to get away with the coin. Mrs. Johnson caught them in the act and they dashed out of the house, dropping some of the money as they fled. Later the officers caught them.

They gave their names as Cloyd Goshen and Robert D. Hays.
