IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making East ern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets on the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb. or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, - November 17, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 53 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Windy, cloudy.

There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph Office for Nick Johnsen and Mrs. A. K. Hugessen.

Nearing a Close.—It was expected that the case of Flint vs. Clinton et al would be given to the jury this evening.

"Habeas Corpus."—The habeas corpus matter of President Brigham Young was being argued by counsel, on both sides, to-day, before Judge White, in chambers. The President was not well enough to appear in court in person.

Progressing.—The walls of the new building being erected by Mr. Geo. Romney, immediately south of the White House, in the burned district in that locality, are up to the first story.

No Business.—The Mayor and some of the members of the City Council met last evening, but not in sufficient number to constitute a quorum, so that no business was done, and an adjournment was taken till next Tuesday evening.

The Alarm.—Many of the citizens were startled last evening, about half past eight, by the ringing of the fire alarm. It was only sounded, however, for the purpose of calling the firemen together to extinguish the smouldering embers of the burned Bank Building, which were fanned into life again by the strong breeze which blew during the whole of the night.

Returned Missionary.—We were called upon to-day by Elder D. C. Johnson, who returned last evening from a short mission to Great Britain, on which he went last Spring. He spent three months in Scotland, a short time in London, and, on his way back, visited a number of his relatives at Hartford, Conn. He had excellent health during his absence, and enjoyed himself well.

Additional.—Besides the parties mentioned in yesterday's NEWS as having lost by the fire, we have learned of the following—W. P. Appleby, library and furniture, and D. R. Firman, furniture and other property, $2,000 each, neither insured. Both occupied premises over Watters & Brother's store. J. M. Smith, real estate agent, whose office was on the same floor of that building, lost in the vicinity of $100 in furniture, etc. Other parties, whose premises were contiguous, suffered loss by having their goods removed and consequently damaged.

A New Industry.—Yesterday John Hoy, late of Leeds, England, exhibited to us a number of small wooden boxes, such as are used by apothecaries for salves and pills. He has commenced the manufacture of those articles and can make them either round or oval, according as may be desired, he having been in that line of business in England, which country, he informs us, supplies the American market, there being, according to his statement, no manufacturer of the article in this country. There are four different sizes, and he says he can afford to produce them for two dollars a gross, nested, that is the three smaller sizes placed inside the largest one, making four gross of boxes to each gross.

Mr. Hoy came to Utah six weeks since and lives on Third South street, one and half a blocks West of the railroad track.

An Old Acquaintance.—Ben. Holliday, who made his fortune by running stages "across the continent," has taken the house formerly occupied by Mr. Phillip, the English book-seller here. When Mr. Holliday was here several years ago, he entertained very handsomely, but then he had an unmarried daughter, Miss Polly, as she was familiarly called, who, of course, must invite and be invited. But Miss Polly, with her dark eyes and dashing, distingue manners, and fluent use of French and other foreign tongues, captured a foreign nobleman, and became Baroness de Broussiere, while her sister, who was really very pretty and fair, and sweet-looking, had previously married the French Count de Portates. Both sons-in-law were impecunious, I believe, which may possibly account for Mr. Holliday's frequent monetary embarrassments, but they brought titles into the family, and what more could be asked or desired? Mr. Holliday drove stages, and his wife was a seamstress, of good family, but unfortunate circumstances, while one daughter became a countess and the other a Laroness! —Wash. Cor. Cin. Gazette.

About Another Fire Engine.—The fire of yesterday morning has revived the talk about the necessity of another fire steamer, not a few asserting that it was the duty of the City to immediately telegraph for one.

Parties entertaining such opinions appear to forget that the prospect of having the water pipes on the streets of the business or more crowded part of the city, tapped by hydrants at suitable intervals, in the near future is good, and those hydrants, to which fire hose could be attached would make the engines now in use all sufficient. Providing another steamer should be ordered it would be some time before it would reach here, and if by the same time the water works, so far as the business center is concerned, could be brought into operation the object of having more efficient means for the extinguishment of fires would be accomplished without incurring so large an amount of expense as would be by the purchase of another engine.

The construction of the water-works is in good hands and is being pushed along. The fall is sufficient to cause a stream from the hydrants to be thrown to the top of the highest buildings in the city.

"An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." We are in hopes that the law which the committee, to whom was referred the late petition asking for the establishment of fire limits, etc., will report such measures to the Council, for the adoption of that body, and that they will be adopted, that will be broad enough to cover the subject as well as it can be done legislatively, and that the law, when passed, will be most stringently enforced, so as to prevent, as far as possible, what are called accidental fires, but which are nearly always the result of carelessness in the construction of buildings or in the material used for that purpose. Of course incendiarism is the most difficult cause of fires to cope with, the most expeditious and practical way to meet it being to dispatch anybody caught in the fiendish work, without much ceremony, and, in the first place, to keep a good look out for such villains.

Theatre.—There will be a grand complimentary benefit to Miss Walters at the Theatre this evening, wherein the generous public has an opportunity of testifying its sympathy with the misfortunes of that lady in losing her wardrobe, etc., by the late great fire at Virginia, Nev. The plays are "Ingomar" and "Rough Diamond." Miss Walters as "Parthenia" and "Margery," Mr. Lindsay as "Ingomar," Mr. Graham as "Timarch" and "Cousin Joe," Miss Cogswell as "Actea" and "Lady Plato." Messrs. Bowring, Wilton, Forster, Hardie and Thompson are also in the casts.

The 14th Infantry Band will appear and play a number of choice pieces.

Chicken Thieves.—We are informed that Brother Thomas Jack, of the First Ward, has had no less than seventy chickens stolen from him during the last few days, and last evening the thieves put the finishing touch to the job by making off with a couple of turkeys belonging to the same gentleman. The parties who perpetrated this sneak business had better report and return the poultry, or they will probably be exposed and punished. Brother Jack is pretty well convinced as to who the parties are.

THIS IS THE
MEDICINE OF NATURE
For Destroying and Expelling all Kinds of Worms, Cleansing the Body, Blood, &c.
SYMPTONS OF WORMS.
A few of the most Common Symptoms which indicate the presence of worms.—Disagreeable Appetite, Offensive Breath, Pains in the Stomach and head, Grinding of the Teeth during Sleep, Pale Face with Hollow Sunken Eyes, Itching of the Nose and Fundament, Irregularity of the Bowels, a Short Dry Cough, Loss of Spirits, Feverishness and Disturbed Sleep, Rising in the Throat causing Sickness, &c.
DO NOT LET YOUR CHILD DIE,
Shall the bud of infant bloom
Soon be hurried to the tomb?
Mother, you with watchful eye,
Do not let your darling die.
Mark the dullness of that eye,
All irregularity,
Mark that paleness, wilt and sleep,
And the feverish fitful sleep,
See the stomach, full and hard,
And the Bowels still debarred,
Mark the spirit, even low,
All bespeaking pain and woe.
SAVE IT—SAVE IT!
Why has your darling never smiled,
The Worm is in your precious child,
And gnaws its vital powers away,
Sinks it to death and dire decay.
Hear then the really welcome sound,
Save it! a remedy is found.
PLANT'S never-failing Powder and Syrup
A cure most sure and speedy makes;
Kills the death-worm, and, the gloom,
Changes to matchless health and bloom;
It never fails, it never can,
It cures the child, the youth, the man;
It's taken, too, with haste,
Not unpleasant to the taste.
Hundreds who have tried it all attest
It is the cheapest and the best.
Try it—try it—try it—try it—
Every parent now should buy it,
Wait not till another day,
Till every chance has passed away;
That you will try it—try it now!
Mother, you with watchful eye,
Do not let your darling die.
