MISSION NOTES

Florida—Elder O. W. Hyde, Pres., No. 1234 Claude St., Jacksonville.—On Oct. 3 and 4 a very successful branch conference was held at Madison, Fla. Nine elders were in attendance. The meetings were held in a schoolhouse, which was taxed to its capacity to care for the large crowd in attendance. The elders delivered very interesting talks, which were received in the same spirit by the congregation. Too much praise cannot be given to the members of the church and their friends who made the conference possible and who manifested great interest. . . . Elders J. W. Blazard, Thaddeus Walker and James H. Moore are making a tour of the conference, visiting all the members, instructing them in their duties. . . . At Valdosta, the elders labored in that city met with the city council and asked permission to use the city hall in which to hold meetings. A resolution was adopted by the council granting their request. The elders are all in good health and enjoying their labors.

Mississippi—Elder D. Wm. Stonell, 415 George St., Jackson.—Two very successful street meetings were held at Tupelo by Elders W. W. Clark, J. C. Taylor and Thomas R. Kirkhorn, of company "A," company "B" consisting of Elders C. C. Nicholas, H. H. Johnson and George A. Gray. The instructions of the elders in a kindly manner. One convert was baptized. . . . Brother James, of Littleton, Green Co., passed away from this mortal life on Oct. 13. He was baptized into the Church in June 1906, since which time he had an exemplary life. He died with a strong testimony of the divinity of Joseph Smith's mission, upon his lips. . . . The funeral services were conducted by Elders C. G. Longhurst and J. A. Decker, and were largely attended. Two converts were baptized in Hardin Co. by Elders H. C. Carlton and R. E. McEntire.

East Kentucky—Elder G. F. Ellsworth, Pres., box No. 422, Lexington.—Oct. 3 and 4 six elders met with the members of the Church of four counties in a branch conference at Seney, Carter Co., Ky. Four interesting meetings were held, each meeting well attended. . . . Elders R. E. Bunker and B. F. Cowley are touring the conference, visiting the saints. . . . Elder R. E. Bunker is teaching school in Temple, Laurel Co., reports the same in a prosperous condition. There is also a flourishing Sunday school in that place, having in attendance a number of non-Mormons. . . . Brother J. W. Royle of Morehead, is touring the conference, relieving from a sick spell through the administration of the elders.

East Tennessee—Elder J. H. Batty, pres., box No. 688, Knoxville.—The work in this conference is in a very prosperous condition. . . . Elder J. H. Batty while visiting Sunday school at Black Creek, Scott Co., was called upon to speak to the pupils. . . . At Sevier Branch, Elder J. W. Williams and C. E. Jensen secured permission to hold four meetings, providing they would not mention Joseph Smith or the Book of Mormon. At the close of the series of meetings which were well attended, the people asked them to talk about Joseph Smith and the Book of Mormon, which they were glad to do. . . . All the Sunday schools of Grundy county held a picnic near Cummins on Sunday, Oct. 4. President Batty was especially invited to be present to speak. He was received kindly and made a good impression. . . . Elders E. Quinter and A. W. Kellar report one baptism in Cumberland Co. . . . Funeral services were held by Elders J. H. Batty and W. K. Soleberg over the remains of the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swart, non-Mormons.

Middle Tennessee—Elder D. S. Dority, pres., box No. 268, Memphis.—Sister Jane Waggoner, who has been bed fast for some time, was administered to by Elders Jno. L. Bushman and Walter L. Harris, and about an hour after the administration she was able to arise from her bed, and said she was well. . . . Brother Harvey Haynes, of Gales, died on the 6th. He was in his 90th year and had been a member of the Church for 64 years, having been associated with the Church in Nauvoo, Ill., but at the time of the exodus he moved to Tennessee. He never denied his testimony of the divinity of Joseph Smith, and he died a member of the Church. Funeral services were conducted by Elders J. H. Batty, Henry Sudweeks and J. D. Stewart were released to return home after filling a faithful mission. . . . One convert was baptized at Gladestown.
