She perhaps has done bothing so well dur. ing her Salt Lake engagements, and that is saying a great deal. J. G. Harper, as Col. Swartz, the old soldier, whose sense of honor caused rea-son and parental love to sink into oblivion, was strong in the part, and Mr. Detrick was at his best in the role of Rev. Hefterdingt, the confidential friend of the Swartz fainily. "Magda" will be the bill for tonight and matinee nerrow, to be followed by a Saturday evening's presentation of "Frou Frou," and the "White Slave" for the first half of next week.

Another Tribane Fake-Bugler Johnny Held says the Tribune story about his being "pinched" for $5 by the hospital steward when he was sick n camp is entirely untrue. His mone ropped out of his pocket when he was taken into the hospital delirious, but $5.10 was picked up at the time, and the other $5 was subsequently found.

STORY OF ADMIRAL TOGO.

STORY OF ADMIRAL TOGO. Last antumn Admiral Togo's humanity ied him into what he considered a terri-hie pièce of extravagance, writes Mrs. Hugh Fraser in the World's Work. The court photographer. Maruki, had once taken his portrait, and everybody was buying it-naturally enough. Togo saw himself in all the shop windows, and was very much troubled. He waiked into Maruki's one morning and called for the head of the firm, who arrived with smiles and bows to welcome his fluxtrious client, but the admiral's face was stern. "I am shocked to find," he said, "that people are buying my photograph. It is very wrong that they should stend money on the portrait of such a stupid person. I was making a fine harvest off the picture, and had no desire to part with it. "Your excellency will have to pay for the nega-tive", he explained, "I know," the admir-al replied sadly, "what do you ask for it."

101" Maruki considered for a moment, and then named what he thought would be a prohibilive price-twenty yen. Togo sigh-ed. "That is a great sum for a poor man like me to pay-but I must have the negative." So he counted out the money and carried off the picture. "You ought to have presented if to him." I cried, indignantly, when I heard the story.

"Business Is business," was Mr. Maru-ki's curt reply.

ant action has been taken by the court officials of the Southern Pacific to al-California farmers to comlow the pere with the eastern trade. freight rate on apples to Chicago and main line points west of that city will be reduced from $1 per 100 pounds to $5 cents. The apple crop all through the east is large this year, and the fruit is selling at such reduced prices that if the local farmers had to pay old rates they would have been the unable to compete. The reduction al-lows margin to figure on and will enable them to get in the running. The California crop has been very large this year, and the fruit is in the best of condition. Large orders will be sent to the east as soon as the new rates go into effect on Aug. 28.
