

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Good authority places the number of organized nihilists in Russia at thirteen millions.

The second number of the "Faith-Promoting Series," is exceedingly interesting.

One more of them has been found out. Eastern papers report that the Rev. Dr. J. W. Carhart, president of the Northern Wisconsin Methodist conference.

The following from the Boston Post shows the estimation in which the harem of the pulpit is held at "the hub" in regard to the Mormons in Utah.

The late "liberal" candidate for Delegate from Frisco, The Times, published at that place, says: "The election here on Tuesday was a thin affair."

ASSAULTS UPON CHARACTER.

On the 1st of November, in the Court of General Sessions at New York, Judge Cowing, in charging the Grand Jury, made the following remarks:

"A belief that character amounts to but little appears to be spreading. The freedom of the press is a boon which should be protected.

But vile and dirty-minded men, because they happen to have the control of a public print, will circulate the most scandalous and abominable fabrications.

Grand Jurors in this Territory have been charged "many a time and oft," to pay special attention to alleged violators of a congressional statute which has been made a favorite hobby.

The sentiments uttered by Judge Cowing are worthy of all praise and ought to be adopted and expressed by the judiciary throughout the land.

A FEMALE ANTI-MORMON MISSIONARY.

The New York Sun of recent date has a long article in relation to a woman who is seeking notoriety—not to mention material profits—in the East.

"My husband's duties gradually took him among Mormons, and we were invited to the places that they call their homes." I saw and heard enough in my visits to assure me that there is not a happy Mormon household in Utah.

"In a room about 18 feet square, I saw a rough-looking man, three women and a number of children, ranging from infants almost to young adults."

"When she entered the Endowment House on the day of her marriage, she was horrified to see that two other women, sisters, stood at the altar, waiting to be sealed to her lover."

"How near to the truth the woman comes in her story our readers can decide. The lecture was made up for people at a distance and not intended for Utah repetition.

"Our only hope is from outside. Congress has only to pass a sufficiently stringent law against Mormonism, and we shall be short of the only law that the United States Circuit Court of the Territory can proceed under."

"What is demanded is public sentiment to urge Congressmen to their duty, and women can create it without venturing beyond the circle of their own friends."

"We ask our readers just to imagine if they can a few women, anxious for fame, meeting in Salt Lake City to chat about polygamy and compelled to set watchful guards lest somebody might hear and their blood be in danger."

"We do not wish to pursue this matter further. We have been frequently disgusted at the unblushing falsehood of Methodist and Presbyterian preachers who have gone east to lecture against the Mormons."

BY TELEGRAPH.

American. San Antonio, 8.—The Mexican newspapers have received a copy of the article on Uncle Sam's policy of giving the reward of $2,000 for the capture of a Mormon.

Chicago, 8.—The Times' New York special says: There is the very best authority for the statement that Gen. Hancock wrote Chairman Barnum that the propositions to contest the vote of the State did not meet his approval.

The Inter-Ocean's New York special says: The democratic meeting to-morrow, for conference on Barnum's plot to steal New York, has not called many prominent democrats into town.

Rev. J. Hyatt Smith, elected to Congress from the 4th district, in place of Simon C. Chittenden, tells of a speech he made in Lee avenue Baptist church at the service last evening.

The republican national committee presents an address to the counting of the votes at the election and concludes as follows: Republicans may be assured no afterthought of two or three mortified and desperate leaders of the minority.

Brief telegrams. Blaine has Eugene Hale in training for a cabinet position. Affairs are at a standstill at Badis, and the Albanians are openly rebelling.

Prince of Wales, the majority of the nation would certainly hold that this is a time for increasing his or any allowance, especially in view of the great private fortunes possessed by the Prince and of the further fact that if the Prince of Wales has incurred debts, it is because the apparent has been compelled to discharge duties and assume expenses which under ordinary circumstances would fall to the share of the Sovereign.

A Letter from Garfield. The following letter from Garfield, written the day before the election, is published to-day: "When I shall carry with me through life the most grateful memories of the enthusiastic noble work my fellow students and especially my college classmates. The campaign has been fruitful to me in the discipline that comes from endurance and patient labor."

Quite Dramatic. The World's special has the following incident at the Athlete League meeting yesterday: Timothy Sullivan, in the course of his speech, had recourse to one of those dramatic touches that act and crowd life with fire.
