It is related of Napoleon, that when Marshal Duroc, an avowed infidel, was once telling a very improbable story, giving his opinion that it was true, the Emperor remarked:

"There are some men who are capable of believing everything but the Bible."

Anguish of mind has driven thousands to suicide; anguish of body, few. This proves that the health of the mind is of far more consequence to our happiness than the health of the body, although both are deserving of much more attention than either of them re-

An exchange tells young ladies what to beware of, if they would have a fresh and youthful appearance: Late hours, large crinoline, tight corsets, confectionery, hot bread, cold draughts, pastry, decolette dress, fear of knowledge, nibbling between meals, ill temper, fear of 5 doors north of Kimball & Lawrence, East growing old.

An individual at the races was staggering about the track, with more liquor than he could carry. "Hailo, what's GOODS at your own Price, every day, except the matter now?" said a chap whom the Sunday, one door North of Sait Lake House, at disent inebriated ran against. "Why, hic, why the fact is, hic, a lot of my friends have been betting liquor on the races to-day, and they have got me to hold the stakes."

Many persons who are in the habit of freshening mackerel, or other salt fish, never dream that there is a right and wrong way to do it. Any person who has seen the process of evaporation going on at the salt works, knows that the salt falls to the bottom. Just so it is in the Hides. pan where your mackerel or white fish lies soaking; and, as it lies with the ski side down, the salt will fall to the skin, and there remain; when, if placed with the flesh side down, the salt falls to the bottom of the pan, and the fish shoeing. comes out freshened as it should be. In the other case, it is nearly as salt as when put in.
