Death—Invitation Accepted.
TREASURY, Dec. 26.—Dr. Karl Rahlmann, one of the editors of the German Democrat, died suddenly to-day; he was for many years proprietor of a German paper in San Francisco, and well known throughout the country.
There has just been received in this city a formal acceptance of Pope Pius IX. of an invitation extended by the Centennial authorities, requesting him to give his religious mission to the people of a contribution of works of art from the galleries of the Vatican or from workshops over which he has control. The letters of the Pope are signed by his secretary, the cardinal, and are in the name of the Pope.

More Thieves to be Exposed Soon.
CHICAGO, 26.—A Washington special says that some very startling disclosures have been made in connection with the European frauds in the west may be looked for soon; the pension office being nearly ready to make arrests; the names of the parties implicated are withheld until the chain of evidence is fully completed.

Something about Tweed.
NEW YORK, 24.—It is now known positively that Tweed has agreed to the precise terms of settling the city's claims against him before O'Connor's illness; it involved ample security for eleven hundred thousand dollars; payment to the city, that his escape beyond jurisdiction is expected to secure a compromise, or the same terms of the struck jury's judgment, and Tweed's early return home.

Verdict for Bowen.
The jury in the Bowen libel suit found a verdict for plaintiff, and fixed the damage at $1,000.

A Postal Change Suggested.
St. Louis, 24.—Postmaster Filley has suggested a change in the present postal law relating to publishers' matter—that newspapers and periodicals be made uniform in classification and rate, and placed in the second class; he says that prospectuses, posters, sample copies, etc., may be put in the third class, at one cent per ounce or a fraction thereof, yield little revenue in that classification now, and give great annoyance to publishers and editors, and he asks why a discrimination should be made between newspapers and periodicals, bills and receipts for subscribers, and regular subscribers, and from news-dealers, which are now carried at two and three cents per pound and the same kind of matter.

Embry Acquitted.
LEAVENWORTH, KS., 24.—The trial of Embry for the attempted assassination of Col. D. L. Anthony, in May last, was concluded to-day, and resulted in his acquittal.

Another Bank in a Bad Fix.
BOSTON, 24.—An investigation shows that the affairs of the Lancaster Savings Bank are in a much worse condition than at first thought. It is said that at least $25,000 of its funds have been loaned upon securities entirely worthless. A receiver will soon be appointed.

An Alleged Embezzler Arrested.
GRAND RAPIDS, 24.—A. C. Johnson, president of the Fayette County National Bank at Washington, O., has been brought here by the U. S. marshal, charged with embezzling $10,000 of the bank's funds. The offense is punishable under the national banking act with imprisonment for not more than five nor more than ten years.

Troops for the Frontier—Shock of Earthquake.
SAN FRANCISCO, 24.—A dispatch from Camp Grant, Arizona, says that two companies of the sixth cavalry left last evening for the frontier. The commanding officer, Col. Biddle, commanding the frontier, is expected to be in the city by rail, to-day, for San Diego.

There was another shock of earthquake this evening in Grass Valley.
