THE ELECTION.

The biennial election for municipal officers for this city comes off on Monday next. The different municipal wards, with the respective voting places for each, are stated elsewhere in to-day's NEWS.

The People's Ticket is an excellent one, consisting of an unexceptionable list of well known and respected citizens, who, when elected, will be likely to devote their official services to the furtherance of the public welfare.

Every legal voter, male or female, should be at the polls in his or her respective ward early, and deposit his or her vote, as the enemy will be on the alert with his characteristic unscrupulousness, to gain every possible advantage.

Babcock's Rumors.

CHICAGO, 12.—The Tribune's Washington special says that the city of Baltimore is trying to offset the coming of St. Louis by burning holes of a coming something in his favor, which shall hang the jury and give him the day in the end. Bets are openly made by the friends of Grant that Babcock will be sent to trial, but the defense is in those selected, the reverend Mr. McDonald, St. Louis Mo.

I succeeded. They will not go.

Signed,

Before this was read, Judge Perkins announced that they proposed to make a lengthy legal argument against the admittance of the other telegrams, and perhaps they might wish to include this "Slyph." The defense wished to reserve that point.

Legislative Adjourned.—Effect for Wednesday—Cathedral Threat.

DENVER, 12.—The legislature adjourned sine die last night. The House passed a bill taxing church property, but the Council inde-nitely postponed it.

The constitutional convention has met in the Chicago chapter the national order for Monday. A strong and determined effort will be made for woman suffrage.

Bishop Macneabeau, of the Catholic church, has publicly threatened the opposition of his constituency to the ratification of the convention if it is admitted in its present form. The channel is constantly changing and whenever the river recedes from the American side, leaving a strip of land where a channel was formerly, it is believed he will do what he can to stop them.

The raiders are aided by these squatters, and their presence aggravates the existing evil. General Ord said further that the negro troops of the army had not been sent to the south on account of trouble, that they were of the worst class of southern negroes, and that white officers did not dare to leave their wives alone. These troops also made trouble in the families of Mexican Indians on the American side, and the officers were unable to control them. The best class of negroes in Texas will not enter the army, but prefer to work on farms in the interior of the State, and this they are doing. With two good regiments of the State, and this they are doing.
General Ord said the raid would be continued, and peace restored along the border.

The chairman said the special committee had received a telegram from Mexico, corroborating the advice received by the Secretary of War. The situation is still in prison, the city of Mexico, and not in Matamoras under guard.

The court only allowed witness to testify that the endorsements showed such charge had been received. They were not held.

Neatly the witness in question was taken up, trying to trace through the telegraph clerks of the city & Washington, and by the door-keepers and messengers of the executive mansion certain telegrams not yet admitted, to prove that they were received and sent back to the Babcock & McDonald and Gen. Babcock in Washington.

Finally the defense waived this proviso to one dispatch and allowed the following to stand:

"John Babcock's handwriting is to be read."

"Signed,"

"Sylvia."

Before this was read, Judge Perkins announced that they proposed
point.
