

NARROW ESCAPE OF C. V. WORTHINGTON

Advertising Manager of Keith-O'Brien's Made a Target for A. Thiel's Gun.

FIGHT WITH A FRENZIED MAN.

Sensational Incident Created Consternation Among Busy Women Shoppers Yesterday Afternoon.

Charles V. Worthington, advertising manager for the Keith-O'Brien store on East Temple street, had a narrow escape from being murdered in cold blood yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock at the hands of a man named August A. Thiel, a salesman from Springfield, Mo. Three shots were fired at Mr. Worthington by Thiel, and it was only the former's presence of mind, quick action and luck, that saved him from serious if not fatal injury.

FIRE TWICE.

Mr. Worthington was looking over some advertising matter in his office on the north balcony when Thiel approached him rapidly. Worthington looked quickly around, and as he did Thiel fired. He was then about ten feet from Worthington. The latter, roused upon his murderous assault, and a second shot rang out. Mr. Worthington seized Thiel by the throat and then grabbed the hand that held the gun. There was a terrific struggle and another shot was fired, the bullet going between Worthington's legs, but doing no damage. The men struggled about the office, and although Thiel is a much larger man than his intended victim, Worthington succeeded in throwing the man to the floor and held him there until Detective George A. Sheets reached the scene and disarmed the man. He was then turned over to Officer Horace Heath and taken to the city jail, where he is now locked up. A complaint, charging him with assault with intent to commit murder, will probably be filed today.

CREATED A PANIC.

The shooting occurred when the store was crowded with shoppers. When the shots rang out, women fled and screamed. Worthington did not call for help, and it was several seconds before the sound of the struggle could be heard. Thiel fired the shots without a word of warning. He appeared bent on killing Worthington.

The cause of the attempted murder seems difficult to determine. Thiel had been drinking, and after being locked up became hysterical and told several conflicting stories about his actions and why he shot at Worthington. According to the latter, however, the two men were friends in their boyhood days in Evansville, Ind., but had some trouble over a bill which Worthington tried to collect. At that time, it is said, Thiel assaulted Worthington with a knife and swore he would kill him. Later, in a law suit, Worthington was named as a witness to testify as to Thiel's character. Again Thiel said he would kill Worthington.

Yesterday afternoon the man walked into Keith-O'Brien's store and asked one of the clerks where Worthington was. The letter was pointed out to the man, and without a word he walked toward his intended victim, drew a revolver and began shooting. Worthington quickly pounced upon the man and managed to throw him to the floor.

BOUGHT REVOLVER HERE.

It is said that Thiel has been known for a number of years as an erratic fellow. He had been drinking yesterday, and purchased a revolver at the Salt Lake Hardware store, where he had been employed.

Mr. Worthington has been in Salt Lake for a number of years. He was a cartoonist on the Tribune, and was the identified with the Daily Reporter company. For some time he has been advertising manager for Keith-O'Brien's. He is quite popular in Salt Lake, and has always been held in high esteem by his associates and friends. Thiel will be arraigned before Judge Delk.

The deceased was 24 years of age and was of Mr. Short in the ownership of the Snowflake mine at Pay. The father of the deceased, I. M. Elliott, resides in this city and a brother and sister at De Lamar, Nev. The funeral will be held Friday next at 10 a. m. from the undertaking rooms of E. W. Hall. Members of the McKean post and Relief corps are invited to the service.

A Grim Tragedy.

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. H. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. THE LAST SAD RITES.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of Mrs. Mary Pettit Green.

Deeply impressive were the services held yesterday afternoon in the Thirtieth ward assembly rooms, over the remains of Mrs. Mary Pettit Green, wife of Henry Green, whose sad demise occurred at the Groves L. D. S. hospital Saturday night. The hall was filled to overflowing, attesting the esteem felt for the deceased woman and her bereaved husband and family, while there was an abundance of well selected floral emblems, the casket and stand presenting a picture most beautiful to behold.

The services were presided over by Bishop H. S. Cutler, and the singing was furnished by the ward choir, which rendered as an opening selection, "O Lord Responsive to Thy Call." Prayer was offered by Elder Benjamin Hollingsworth. The choir further sang, "Thou Dost Not Weep to Weep Alone." Remarks of a comforting nature were made by Elders B. W. Ashton, Bishop S. M. Seddon of the Fifth ward, William A. Cowan, Bishop Thomas A. Williams of the Twelfth ward, Rodney Hillam, Jr., Charles Cottrell and Bishop Cutler. All referred to the sterling integrity of the deceased, to her love of home and family and to the void that would be felt through her untimely demise. The speakers breathed words of consolation to the stricken ones and invoked the blessings of God to attend them in their hour of sorrow. A select quartet rendered with much feeling, "Go Bury Thy Sorrow," and as a closing selection the choir sang, "Hark from afar a funeral knell," and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Alex Buchanan, Jr.

A long line of carriages followed the remains to their last resting place in the city cemetery, where all that was mortal of a good woman and a loving wife and mother was laid in Mother Earth to await the morning of the resurrection. At the grave a quartet rendered, "Shall We Meet Beyond the River" and the dedicatory prayer was offered by Elder John DeGray Dixon.

SURPRISE ON HEWLETT.

Members of the City Council Swoop Down on President's Residence.

There was another councilmanic surprise party last night, the victim being President F. J. Hewlett. Nearly all of the city councilmen and their wives swooped down upon the president's family and spent a very enjoyable evening, with games and music as the principal features. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hobbie, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Preece, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Neuhausen, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tuddenham, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Martenstein, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Ferstrom, E. H. Davis, Miss Ethel Davis, Miss Florence Davis, Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Burdick, Mrs. F. J. Hewlett, Miss Mabel Hewlett, Henry Jones.

IRRIGATION SCHEMES.

When Rights Are Adjudicated Work May Be Pushed Vigorously.

Prof. Swendsen, chief of the Reclamation bureau for this district, says that when there is money available for the Bear river, Utah lake and Weber river irrigation projects, and when the water rights of those sections have been adjudicated, there will be a good opportunity to inaugurate the work proposed for those projects. The Bear river scheme involves three states which complicates the situation too much for anything like immediate action. Then as to the Weber proposition there are 1,300 streams running into the Weber river and it will take some years to adjudicate the many rights involved; while in Utah county there are 30 streams running into the lake, and the rights on those streams have not been settled yet. But the Strawberry valley proposition is in good shape so that there need be no delay.

NOT DEAD ONES.

Agricultural College Students Insulted In Some Pleasantry on Invitations.

The Agricultural college students have printed across the top of postal cards and promissory notes sent out from the institution to State University students the reassuring sentiment, "We still live!" This is in reference to the fact that the Agricultural college managers to exist, although it failed to land the state appropriation it was looking for. However, the University students receive these missives with serene good nature, and will show pleasant attention to the Agents when they come down next Friday to attend the Theater and visit the lake.

ELKS SELECT OGDEN.

State Convention of B. P. O. E. Goes To Junction City Sept. 20.

The executive committee of the State Elks association has selected Ogden as the place of holding this year's state convention, Sept. 20 and 21. Judge Howell and J. H. Knauss of Ogden will have charge of the arrangements. The executive committee endorsed the candidacy of Dr. J. H. Haviland of Butte as grand trustee at the Buffalo convention; and also the idea of a state organization of the order in each state to act as an intermediary between the local lodges and the grand lodge.

PRODUCE EXCHANGE.

Elected Officers Yesterday Afternoon For the Evening Six Months.

The Salt Lake Produce Exchange held its semi-annual meeting yesterday afternoon, at the Commercial club, and chose these officers for the ensuing six months: President, Thomas D. Pitt; first vice-president, Robert M. Holt; second vice-president, Delbert H. Hughes of Ogden; third vice-president, R. R. Becker of Mt. Pleasant; treasurer, C. L. Miller; secretary, Daniel H. Naider; executive board, R. E. Miller, A. H. Vogeler and J. L. Hubbard.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good. "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says Mr. Thurner, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good. Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or bladder disease. Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co."

WILL ENTERTAIN AGGIES.

Logan Dramatic Society to be Guests Of University Actors.

The University of Utah is planning to entertain the members of the Logan Dramatic society, which appears in the Salt Lake Theater Saturday evening in a hospitable manner, instead of with cabbages and similar decorations, as many have feared. President Brown of the student body is taking special precautions to prevent any overabundant freshness of demonstrating at the performance, while the University Dramatic society has purchased a block of seats and will attend in a body. Friday evening the members of the company presenting "The Stoops to Conquer," will be the guests of the University Chronicle staff at Saltair. The dancing party has arranged for a special train service and it is planned to accommodate 200 couples, as it is thought the dancing will prove inviting to many conference visitors.

RUN DOWN AND NERVOUS.

VINOL COMPLETELY RESTORED MRS. BURNS' HEALTH.

Druehl & Franken, Our Well Known Druggists, Agree to Return Money If Vinol Fails.

"Many people right here in Salt Lake City are all run down, hardly able to drag about, don't know what ails them. This condition is probably caused by a cold, or cough, which is hard to cure, overwork or too close confinement to business. Sufferers need Vinol," said Mr. Druehl of Druehl & Franken, and the following letter is only one of many which we are constantly receiving showing what Vinol will do.

MRS. W. T. BURNS.

Mrs. W. T. Burns of Memphis, Tenn., who is national press correspondent of the W. R. C., writes: "Last winter I caught a severe cold which it seemed impossible for me to get rid of. I became much run down, lost my appetite and flesh and felt nervous and irritable. Vinol was recommended, and it certainly worked wonders for me; it increased my appetite, cured my indigestion, cough and nervousness, and I slept soundly. I consider Vinol a wonderful remedy."

Vinol cures such conditions because it is the only preparation in the world that contains every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements found in fresh cod's livers and without one drop of useless oil, which characterizes old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions. It imparts in a natural manner strength and vigor to every organ of the body, aids digestion and makes rich, red blood.

STILL LOVES HER THOUGH DIVORCED.

For This Reason Albert Whitaker Fires Three Shots at His Supposed Rival.

ALL WENT WIDE OF THE MARK.

Shooting Occurred at Murray and Ex-Husband Was Taken Into Custody.

There was a little shooting scrape at Murray about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in which Albert Whitaker fired three shots at John Meyers, whom he considered as his rival in the affections of Mrs. Whitaker, his divorced wife. All of the shots missed their mark and no one was injured. Whitaker was arrested by Deputy Marshal White of Murray and was brought to the county jail by Deputy Sheriff Sharp. He will be charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

Whitaker was passing his wife's home and saw her hanging up clothes and also noticed that Meyers was assisting her. He accordingly pulled his gun and fired at the couple. They both ran into the house out of range of the bullets and fearing that he would follow them, they skipped out the back door and took refuge in a neighbor's house. The deputy marshal was notified and arrested Whitaker. Meyers was also arrested as Whitaker claimed that his rival pulled a gun on him too. Later Meyers was released as it was found that he had no gun.

Whitaker was arrested some time ago at Murray for disturbing the peace and was just released from the Murray jail Saturday night.

Will Interest Many.

Every person should know that good health is impossible if the kidneys are diseased. Foley's Kidney Cure will cure kidney and bladder disease in every form, and will build up and strengthen these organs so they will perform their functions properly. No danger of Bright's disease if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken in time. Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

WHITTIER SCHOOL SOLD.

William McLachlan Gets Property for Pioneer Stake of Zion.

Of all the bids submitted for the purchase of school properties, that of William McLachlan, who offered $5,000 for the Whittier school, located on Fifth South between West Temple and First West streets, was the only one accepted by the board at its meeting held last night.

There were six members of the board in attendance, all of whom concurred in the recommendation of the committee that the bid upon the Whittier property be accepted. The others were entirely ignored as they were considered altogether too low, so that the committee will probably re-advertise these properties.

It is understood that in the purchase of the Whittier school Mr. McLachlan is acting for Pioneer stake of the "Mormon" Church, which will convert the building into a stake amusement hall. The price paid is considered a good figure for the property.

Aside from the action noted, the meeting was devoted to a consideration of routine business. The committee on teachers and school work submitted a list of supplies needed for the schools and asked that associate examiners be appointed for the year beginning April 1, as follows: Rosalie Pollock, primary supervisor; J. O. Ross, principal; W. A. Clark, school; Fred Reynolds, University of Utah; Instructor A. O. Clark, West side high school. This was ordered by a unanimous vote.

The committee on finance suggested that certain coupons of "series 3" of the 5 per cent bonds be canceled, and it was so ordered.

A Burroughs adding machine, at a cost of $375, was ordered for the clerk's office.

The committee on finance recommended that vouchers be issued covering the current supply expenses of the month, amounting to $448.33.

A report from the treasurer showing a balance on hand of $103,242.82 was submitted and ordered filed.

A communication was received from the family of the late William B. Reynolds, director of buildings, thanking the board for the funeral tributes that were presented at the funeral.

SOUTHERNER'S GOOD FORTUNE.

Sam Hoover Finds Something Better Than Gold Mines.

There is no happier man in the whole wide world today than Sam A. Hoover, of Henderson, N. C., who is receiving the congratulations of his friends upon his fortunate find of something better than gold mines or oil wells. Mr. Hoover in a letter to a friend in Salt Lake City writes:

"Three months ago I was greatly distressed by nasal catarrh and entire deafness in the right ear. The labor of hawking and vomiting to get my throat and nasal passages free from the foul secretions deposited there, might be about equal to that of a six mile team with a roadrunner to get the earth from the road-side to the center."

I purchased an outfit of Hyomel and Hyomel balm, and as a result of its use my head, throat and nasal passages are all free from secretions of any sort, only as Nature designed, and my hearing in both ears is nearly as acute as it ever was."

The complete outfit costs but $1. ex- bottles are only 50 cents. Ask F. C. Schramm to show you the strong guarantee under which he sells Hyomel. It costs nothing unless it cures.
