PERRY HEATH INTERVIEWED. Cleveland, O., July 13.—In an inter-view this afternoon First Assistant Postmaster General Heath said to an Associated Press correspondent: "The subject which culminated today in my selection as secretary of the Re-publican national committee was first broached to me by Chairman Hanna and was renewed with much carnest-ness and insistency at the Philadelphia convention. At first I was very much averse to taking up this work, knowing what it meant in volume and character. President McKinley did not wish me to quit my position on the positoffice dequit my position on the postoffice department.

I was summoned from Maine on Saturday last to go to Cleveland by Chairman Hanna and requested to attend a man Honna and requested to attend a meeting of the executive committee here today. Here the subject was re-newed by all the members of the ex-ecutive committee in such a personal and carnest manner that I consented to undertake the work." When asked as to his intentions re-specting his resignation as first assist-ant postmater general Mr. Heath caid: "At Canton yesterday I talked with the President and Postmaster General

New York, July 13 .- A special from Boston to the Hernid says: By the explosion of an oll tank in Somerville last night nearly a hundred persons were more or loss injured, and early this morning two were reported dead. Many of the injured are in the Cambridge, Somerville and Massachuseits general hospitals, while others were taken to houses near the scene of the explosion. In the yard of the Boston and Maine railroad, near the old McLean asylum, among more than a thousand freight cars hlied with coal and general merchandise, were three oil unks of the Union Oil company. When one of the cars caught fire and made a blaze that could be seen all over Somerville, hunreds of persons flocked to the yards Somerville firemen arrive promptly enough, but had to carry hose through all kinds of places, while the drew closer and closer.

Suddenly there was a rumbling noise One great sheet of fiame shot into the air and a huge oil tank which had been on a car went up on end, scattering biaging oil in all directions. CHAMPS ELYSEE GRANDPALACE Investigating What Appears an Att mpt to Blow it Up.

Paris, July 13 .- Inquiries are being made into what may possibly turn out to be a serious attempt to destroy the grand palace of the Camps Elysee Wednesday night. A watchman of cel-lars which were filled with package cases and a large quantity of othe inflamable material, overheard a con versation between two men leading him to believe that a plot was on foot to set fire to the building. The miscreants fied upon his approach. A search the next morning resulted in the discovery of two hermetically scaled boxes filled with black powder. The chemical prop-erties of this powder have not yet been disclosed by the authorities. IRELAND ESTATE

The war department now has fifty miles of cable ready to ship to Manila, to be followed by 400 more about the 1st of August. This was to have been used for inter-island communication in the Philippines but the urgency of the case may cause it to be diverted to China, No point has yet been decided on for either end of this international line for Che Foo and Taku, both having been discussed for the Chinese terminus. It is 600 miles by water from Taku to Shanghal, the terminus of the English cable. It is less than 160 miles from Taku to Port Arthur, but the Russian land lines both in Korea and Manchuria have been subct to such serious in-terruption as to almost bar the con-isderation of this route for the inter-national connecting line.

The expense of this undertaking, ac-cording to the present tentative ar-rangements, will be borne joinily by the powers interested. It is impossi-ble at present to give a fair estimate of the time that would be consumed in carrying out the project, but it is

The ldest girl, Mabel Cline, who informed the court that she was "going on 14," was shown to be a tough little character. She has a very unprepossessing face, and is cross-eyed. She trembled violently when told to stand up and face the court, and had to clutch a chair once or twice to prevent her from falling to the floor. A subpleana was issued for the child's mother, said to a morphine fiend, but the officers of the court reported that they had been unable to locate her. Judge Nor rell, with great reluctance, ordered the girl committed until she has attained her majority. It was shown that the child was absolutely without protection, compelling the court to order her com-

BOY'S EXCITING DRIVE.

Henry Childs Figures in a Runawayls Thrown to the Ground,

Henry Childs, a 14-year-old boy, played a conspicuous part in a runaway this morning, from which he came out with a severely injured foot. He was driving in his father's buggy, on Third South street, when he dropped the reins. He clutched for them so ex-citedly that the horse was frightened, and began running. The boy grew nervous, and augmented the horse's fright by trying to get hold of the reins, which were thalling on the ground. On reaching First West street the horse verted to the south and was going at a torrific rate. The boy climbed out on the shafts to reach one of the reins, when he lest his balance and tell to the ground.
