

LURED TO CAPTURE BY SOCIETY GIRL

Lured by a note from a society girl of Pittsburgh, Pa., James A. Baker, was captured by the federal authorities after a chase across the continent and back again.

Baker confesses many robberies of postoffices and even to the murder of a telegraph operator and station master in West Virginia.

Baker was born in Ohio and began his criminal career only a few months ago, fitting from town to town and robbing postoffices as he went. The pursuit led the officers to San Francisco and back again. He will be taken to West Virginia to answer for the murder which he confesses.

STANDING ON ETIQUETTE

When the old lady appeared at the big door at the life-saving station she regarded the rough waters of the bay with frightened eyes.

"Isn't something being done for that ship in distress?" she anxiously demanded, pointing seaward.

"Oh, that's all right, ma'am," replied a man in oilskins. "We've sent 'em a line to come ashore."

"Goodness me!" exclaimed the lady. "Were they waiting for a formal invitation?"—Tid Bits.

GIVEN UP TO DIE

R. Spiegel, 129 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did no good and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second box I was entirely cured. Why not let it help you? F. J. Hill Drug Co., 'The Never Substitutors.'"

CHAMPION LADY SWIMMER

Miss Elaine Golding, claiming to be the champion lady swimmer of the world, was one of the attractions at the recent swimming contest held at the Madison Square Garden, under the auspices of the New York Athletic Club.

SOCIETY MATRON DUCKED IN TUB OF WATER.

The "water cure" is a new cotillion figure introduced at a costume dinner dance given by Mrs. Henry Clews, Jr., at the Elk Ridge Country Club. It was entirely impromptu and was inspired by the costume of Mrs. Ral Parr, one of the liveliest of Baltimore's society matrons. She wore a silk bathing suit.

It appears, since the details of the dinner have come out, that this silk bathing suit is Mrs. Parr's favorite costume at fancy dress functions. She is a generously proportioned young woman, with yellow hair and big violet eyes. Her bathing suit never fails to create a sensation among strangers.

The dinner dance in question at the Elk Ridge Country Club was not conspicuous for an abundance of water, and Mrs. Parr's bathing suit occasioned considerable comment. Somebody suggested that the suit would look better on her if it were wet. Three or four young men took the suggestion literally. They made an unostentatious escape from the room and returned in a few minutes carrying a tub filled with water. On the surface of the water floated an armful of roses.

Mrs. Parr was picked up and deposited in the tub. Then the guests gathered around her and made her the target of streams from siphons of carbonated water. Not until the guests were thoroughly satisfied with the fit of the bathing suit was she allowed to escape.

MANY PEOPLE NOW-A-DAYS want to know something about the kind of shoe polish they are buying. Up-to-date shoe dealers recommend Quick Shine Shoe Polish, because it prevents the leather from cracking. That's a pointer for the dealer to. Price 10 cents.
