The abandonment of the project to establish a park on the Palisades, for years the pet scheme of the federation, cost something, but it seemed to be district by a park of the seemed to be dictated by common sense and reason, and some comfort was derived from the determination to erect a suitable me-morial to the work done by the New Jersey women in preserving the Pali-sades, on the land acquired by the In-terstate Palisades Park commission.

It is encouraging to its advocates to note even slight growth of a movement labored so carnestly for the extension of suffrage for women. Resolutions of-fered by Miss Eva, Channing at the meeting of the Massachusetts Woman meeting of the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage association, Oct. 30, were, in part, as follows: Resolved. That we rejoice in the registration of $50,000 newly enfranchis. ed women voters in Australia; in the extension to Kansas women of the right to vote on all bonds for public improve-ments; in our association's growth in membership; in the increased school vote of women in Boston; and in the

into breakfast-cupful of thick cream. Let it remain for an hour or more, then take it out, and add a small tea-spoon-ful of lemon-juice, a dessert-spoonful of sugar, and a glass of sherry. Beat these Peach jelly would be delicious, it is allowed, if it were possible to make it. Good Housekeeping offers this hint, which is worth noting: "A flessert-spoonful of cider vinegar added to each cupful of peach or pear juice sup-plies the lack of pectin in these fruits,

Make a cream sauce with two table-spoons of butter, three level tablespoons of Kingsford's Oswego Corn Starch and a cup of milk. Beat into this the yok a cup of milk. Beat into this the yolk of an egg ad season highly with pa-prika and a little sait. Add two table-spoons of grated cheese, and when melted remove from fire and stir in gently one and one-half cups of mild cheese cut in cubes. Cool the mixture thoroughly, shape into squares or dia-monds and bread them as any cro-quettes. Fry in hot fat, drain well on soft paper and serve in a nest of pars-ley or lettuce.

Chiffon, especially white and light-color chiffon, will bear washing several times if carefully handled. Vells, unlined waists, scarfs, even accordion-plaited skirts may be washed at home. Use plen-ty of warm water in which a little borax is dissolved, and castile scoap. Rub gently with the hands and squeeze the dirt out, afterwards rinsing in clear water. Shake the garment gently and dry it in the fol-lowing manner: Stretch a clean sheet over a bed, plinning it down tightly. With plenty of steel plns, pin the chiffon to this stretching it into shape and seeing that it is quite smooth everywhere. The process is easy with vells and scarfs, and not impossible with waists. Before washing accordion platings run a basting thread firmly through the lower edge of all the plats, gathering them in a bunch. After avaching hang the platings in a draft with a weight attached to the edge to keep the plats straight,

The Death Ponalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insigni-ficant cuts or puny bolls have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c, at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dep't.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, or despondency invariably pre-cede suicide and something has been cede suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nervine will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. A bright housekeeper has discovered a new system of labelling jelly and preserve glasses. She buys a roll of white, passepartout binding for about eight cents. This is well gummed ou one side, and she uses as long or as short a piece as the label calls for. The pasting process is much more quickly gotten through than when separate la-bels are used.

.... A variation of fried potatoes is ob-tained by slicing as for French fried, soaking in cold water to extract the starch over night if possible, and rolling in fine economic possible, and rolling in fine cornmeal before plunging in deep fat.

Potatoes stewed with bacon are also good and "different." Prepare creatmed potatoes in the usual way, using cold, bolled potatoes cut in cubes and warmi-ed in a cream sauce. When they have simmered about five minutes add bacon which has been cut into tiny squares and fried until slightly brown. They should be well dealand bacon should be well drained before they are put with the potators, as a greasy dish is not desired.

Is not desired. Put a quart of ripe currents in a causepan, with just enough water to keep them from burning, and cook slowly unlil the juice runs freely. Squeeze them, and measure the juice. To a pint of this allow 1 pound of white sugar. Put both on the fire and bring to a boil. Beat six eggs very light in a bowl, and pour upon them the boiling ince, stirring the mixture vigorously. Return to the stove and cook until it thickens, beating all the while. Turn if out to cool, continue to beat it for a few minutes after it comes from the fire, and freeze.
