him with silent contempt.

Not content with this scene, the Bernard N Bernar next morning Judge Porter again insulted Bishop Udell in the street, Broadbeat L Howard C repeating his vile threats, and wound up his vile abuse by saying, 'Now, Butler R M Hughs And Berger L M Hanson C Harvey E Bircumshaw Thovey E Holling E Bishop, I will accept any challenge you may choose to send in order to settle our difficulty." The Bishop quietly said, "We don't settle our difficulties in that way," and walked away, leaving the raving, heated man alone in his contemptible position.

Mr. Editor, this picture is not overdrawn, and in our opinion it would be a lasting disgrace for such Burton WA a man to be sent to Congress. It is to be hoped his own party will discard him, Many of them are already disgusted with his conduct at St. John's.

With one or two exceptions, the people's nominees have been elected, unless the courts throw out some of the precints, such as Winslow.

A MODEL THEATRICAL HALL.

COMING TO THE SPRINGVILLE FRONT IN THEATRICAL MATTERS.

The good people of Springville Bemis G H have built the finest theatrical Bensen H hall in Utah, outside of Salt Lake Brewster G W Hodge T City. Those who have had charge of its construction must have obtained information from the very Basor G C best sources. It has an excellent auditorium, thirty-five feet B wers JS wide by about sixty feet long, the Burnham J L Hanson W floor having a gradual ascent from runswick J MHemneyer W the stage to the main entrance. The stage is fifty-one feet wide, with an Crane J 3 opening nearly the full width of the Counsell N hall, thus bringing the performance Cartile F
