GREAT BRITAIN.

A Peaceful Policy—The Armistice.

LONDON, 9.—A telegram from Berlin says the Czar has prevailed upon Servia to adopt a peaceful policy.

Turkey spontaneously offered the insurgents two conditions, included in the memorandum, namely, three months armistice and direct negotiations.

TURKEY.

Asked to Explain.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 9.—The Porte has courteously asked Servia to explain the meaning of her armaments. This request is not made in a threatening manner or as an ultimatum.

FRANCE.

Accepted and Refused.

PARIS, 9.—Intelligence received here says some of the insurgent bands accepted the armistice and others refused.

Entire Liberty.

Government has decided it will not impose any line of conduct upon its workmen going to Philadelphia at the expense of the state, but will leave them entire liberty relative to their researches and studies.

SPAIN.

Privileges Suppressed—Discovery.

MADRID, 9.—Eighty Senators are in favor of the amendment for totally suppressing the privileges hitherto enjoyed by the provinces of Biscay and Navarre.

The police have discovered two depots of cartridges at San Sebastian.

WEST INDIES.

Contracts for Cattle—Absconded.

HAVANA, 9.—The Government is making contracts with parties in Florida for cattle, paying one dollar in gold per pound delivered in Nuevitas.

Ricardo Menscal, collector of taxes, has absconded to the United States with about $400,000 in gold.

The Way Young Persons Ride to Poverty.

A young man, a clerk in one of the Wall Street moneyed institutions, applied to one of our distinguished merchants, who is a director, and asked him for his influence to get his salary raised.

The merchant said to him, "How much is your salary now?" "Twelve hundred dollars," was the answer.

Question. How much do you save a year? Answer. Not one dollar; with a wife and two children I can only just make both ends meet.

Q. What! don't save anything? A. No, sir; I can but just exist.

I make it a rule to assist no one who does not save something every year. No matter how small his pay, something should be saved. How many cigars do you smoke—and their cost? A. Well, sometimes three a day; costing, together about twenty cents.

Q. Do you go to the theatres, and how often; and how many persons with you? A. I go some half dozen times during the winter, with my wife and sister, costing, including railroad fare, say $80.

Q. Do you drink ardent spirits, wine, beer, etc? A. I generally take two glasses of whiskey daily, and sometimes a glass of ale with my wife at the gardens in the evening.

R. Do you say you cannot save any thing, while your unnecessary yearly expenses for cigars, drinks, and amusements, by your own showing, cannot cost less than $200. Until you begin to save, raising your salary would do you no good. Begin to-day to save, if only five cents a day. Try and save for six months and report to me the result.

At the end of the time the young man brought the merchant his expense book, showing a clear saving of $104.20. This induced the merchant to take him cordially by the hand down to the institution, and urge the president to increase his salary, from $1,200 to $1,500. In another six months his savings amounted to almost $300; the merchant on this showing said to him, "Young man you are now on the road to wealth and position. Go down to my brokers and ask them to buy $20,000 of such and such stocks, and I will pay for them and give you the profits." This young man is now worth $30,000—all due to the saving of the first $100. The merchant, no doubt, is now daily made happy every time he sees the institution by the delightful reflection of having saved this man as well as his family.

There are now hundreds of families in this city who are highly cultivated that do not know where their next meal is coming from. Could they have the advice of this old merchant, and follow it, they would now be in affluence, not beggary. Only yesterday a highly respectable lady, with three young daughters, applied for immediate assistance to buy bread. Her husband had recently died, after enjoying a salary for some twenty years of from $2,500 to $3,000, without saving anything. The unethical result of this case is that this lady, for twenty years, has secured every luxury within her reach, while I am indebted for all I now have to the denial of luxuries for myself and family, and am now asked to help to support her, out of my savings, such as she should not raise for herself. With her present views of economy she must now also soon have lived on half his salary. Had she done so, it would amount to some fifty thousand dollars, the interest of which would have made her and her children independent for life. Such cases do not warmly commend themselves to my character; such people must be taught, by natural laws, that they must save or be liable to starve.

Another case occurs to me. A young man, recently married, has put up his carriage with livery on a salary of $4,000 a year. One of three things will soon probably follow. The carriage will be laid down, or defalcation will come next, and ruin and beggary follow. All this reminds me of the old maxim that nineteen persons out of every twenty who are now respectable would not be so if they could get the means to make themselves otherwise. This man with his carriage on $4,000 is one of the nineteen.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Rocky Mountain Pills

A VALUABLE MEDICINE,

From New and Rare Medicinal Plants recently discovered in the Rocky Mountains!

PURELY VEGETABLE.

FIFTEEN years of earnest botanical research among these mountains and valleys have resulted in the discovery, not only of many new varieties of plants, but of new species, some of which have wonderful medicinal curative properties. By continued experiments their virtues have become known—and thus from extracts of these newly discovered plants are these pills compounded.

If properly used, they will cure very many diseases, pains and aches, and are more especially valuable in DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINTS, INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE, and all cases of FEVERS, COLDS, URINARY AND KIDNEY DISEASES, RHEUMATISM, COSTIVENESS, HEARTBURN, DIARRHŒA, MUMPS, MEASLES, for PURIFYING THE BLOOD, and for many other diseases, and all cases of BILIOUSNESS and DISORDERED STOMACH.

On orders accompanied by the cash or postal order, I will send safely by mail, postpaid, 1 box Pills for 25 cents; 1 dozen boxes, $2.50; 1 gross boxes, $24.00.

J. E. JOHNSON,
St. George, Utah.
