EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, - - August 1, 1882.

Correspondence.

MONTICELLO, Wright Co., Minn, July 24th, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

Since our last Conference, the Elders, six in number, have traveled mostly in new fields, meeting but little opposition, have held a great many meetings and baptized several. We found a great many friends, the most of whom are emphatically convinced that Congress made a serious blunder in taking up the sword of vengeance against the Latter-day Saints, which causes them to investigate the doctrine for themselves.

We have just returned from a trip into the northwestern part of this State, from having walked upward of 500 miles among strangers since the 22d of last May. We have only been refused one house to preach in. We have held a great many meetings and in most cases have been urged to return as soon as possible and hold more. Have also distributed a great deal of the written word. Much of the country through which we have traveled is settled by Norwegians and Swedes, to whom we are unable to preach, still, they treated us very kindly while stopping with them.

Having been informed by Elders Anderson and Jacobsen that a colony of Mormons was located on Lake Chithral, we made it our business to call on them. On our arrival at that place we learned that Chancey Whiting had charge of the colony. On entering his house we introduced ourselves to him as Elders from Salt Lake he received us in a very friendly manner. We very soon got into conversation about the origin of his church, and from his own lips got the following information in regard to their organization and travels: Alpheus Cutler having been called through the Prophet Joseph to take charge of the missionary labors among the Indians, having permission of the Twelve, left Winter Quarters with a small company in the spring of 1848, and started a settlement on Silver Creek, Iowa. In the year 1850 he went to Kansas and labored among the Indians, while there he built a sawmill and returned to Silver Creek in 1853. Whiting said that "the Prophet Joseph organized a quorum of which Cutler was the seventh. The six having relinquished their claim in favor of the Twelve Apostles. Alpheus Cutler took two counselors and claimed to be president of the Church of Jesus Christ in the whole world, and Edmund Riher, with two counselors was made president of the Stake. In the year 1854 Cutler died; his first counselor having apostatised it now became my (Chancey Whiting) duty to assume the leadership of the Church. We numbered at this time about 100 souls, being somewhat crowded by outsiders who were crowding in upon us. It was made known to us by the gift of tongues and in other ways that we should make a move to the north. Consequently we sent a few men to hunt us a location. They chose a place on the north bank of Lake Ciltheral, in Ottertail County, Minn. We all arrived here on the 31st day of July, 1865. This was at that time a wild country, only occupied by Indians, there was not a white settler within 40 miles. We lived in peace a great many years until other settlers came in, railroads, et., to disturb us, and we have become broken up so that we hold no meetings nor Sunday schools.

Elders Whitney and others with whom we became acquainted during our stay of three days, treated us with the greatest respect and kindness, and invited us to hold meetings which we did, and we had a large congregation. We differed from them on some points of doctrine. They deny the revelations on celestial marriage and also claim that the Prophet Joseph sealed the testimony to the gentiles with his blood, and that we were doing wrong by preaching to this nation. They have been waiting for orders to preach to the Jews and Lamanites. There are still some few of them that are firm believers in the Prophet Joseph, and wish to be remembered to the Saints in Utah.

On our arrival at this place, the 22d inst., we had the privilege of meeting President Palmer and Elders J. L. Jensen and J.R. Belknap, and of meeting with the Sabbath school of this branch which is in a good healthy condition under the fatherly superintendency of G. W. Riggs, also a meeting at 2 p.m. and a day of rejoicing and feasting upon the good things of God. We here met the gaze of a living witness of the power of God made manifest in our day through the ordinances of the priesthood in the person of Charles Riggs, who was sorely afflicted with a complication of measels and lung fever, and afterwards with pneumonia and neuralgia of the heart. The doctors and all surrounding friends said he could not live unless the power of God was made manifest in his behalf, but God, has through the administration of the Elders made him whole, of which he and a great many others are living witnesses. The Elders all feel well and desirous to do all they can to forward the cause of Christ. Ever praying for the welfare of Zion and the spread of truth, we are your true brethren and fellow-laborers

H. WALLANTINE,
DENMARK YENSEN.

P. S.—We, the undersigned, Elders and members of the Church of Jesus Christ, of Latter-day Saints, do testify that Charles Riggs, aged 17 years, was prostrated with a complication of measles lung fever, pneumonia and neuralgia of the heart (said the doctors) and was very low and given up by doctors and friends to die, and that through the anointing with holy oil, the laying on of hands and the prayer of faith he is restored to his health and strength and we give God the glory.

Elders—Wm. M. Palmer, James L. Jenson, Gilbert R. Belnap, Christian Wallantine, Denmark Jensen.

Members—George W. Riggs, sr., Almira D. Riggs, Charles Riggs, Houghton Riggs, Geo. W. Riggs, jr., Deborah H. Riggs, Louisa S. Noot.

6, BELLEEK STREET, Hulme, Manchester, July 11, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

Since my arrival in England I have been laboring in the Manchester Conference. The minds of the people have become very much prejudiced against us on account of the various newspapers misrepresenting us, and for this reason it is very hard to get them to our meetings. We are continually holding open-air meetings, and once in a while we find a person with a heart honest enough, and a mind independent enough, to embrace the truth, notwithstanding the fact of its being so unpopular.

I am laboring at present in the Tyldesley district, in company with Elder M. F. Brown. We have held quite a number of open-air meetings, and as a rule we have been successful in having large numbers of people listen to us. At two small villages, where we held meetings, we were invited to pay another visit, and on doing so at one of the places, at the close of the meeting, one young man expressed his intention of being baptized, while others exclaimed, "God bless you, come again."

But we occasionally meet with a far different reception. At times we are surrounded by a congregation who as soon as they discover who we are, cry out, "Can any good come out of Salt Lake City," or words to that effect, and as a rule we receive from this class the "grand bounce."

Many are the inquiries concerning people who have gone from these parts to Utah, and I am afraid some have forgotten the promises they made to their friends about writing to them on their arrival in Zion. Should these lines be read by any who have made such promises I would say, take down your Bible turn to the 25th chapter of Proverbs and mark well the 25th verse, get the spirit of it on you, then do your duty.

I am feeling well and am enjoying my labors, which I believe to be the case with all the Elders I have the pleasure of meeting.

Ever praying for the spread of truth. Your brother, etc.

BEN E. RICH.

ST. DAVID, Cochise County, Arizona, July 26th, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

The people of St. David and neighboring friends enjoyed a festive time in their new and commodious school house—53 x 30—on the national day. Also on the 35th anniversary of Presidents Young, Kimball and Richards, entering the Salt Lake Valley with their noble 143 pioneers.

Songs, recitations, toasts, singing by the choir, firing of cannon (i.e. anvils), speeches by the orator of the day, Col. P. C. Merrill. Dancing by the children in the afternoon and adults in the evening were the entertainments given.

Since the lamentable fire at Tombstone in May, times have been rather dull. Now that the Hanchuaca water works are completed and put out a blaze of three buildings in less than 20 minutes after the hose was turned on men of money will rebuild Tombstone and it will be in advance of its previous appearance.

The Indians and cowboys are very quiet in these parts. In Tonto Basin and near Salt River and on the Gila they have committed some depredations.

The corn and potato crop of St. David, for a beginning, will be very good.

The health of the people is generally good, there being no chills or fever that I know of.

With kind regards, I remain your brother,

D. P. KIMBALL.

Parasites on the Fly.

A singular microscopical discovery, which may prove highly important in a sanitary point of view, has been made by Thomas Taylor, M.D., of this city, microscopist of the Department of Agriculture. About a year ago, while dissecting out the proboscis of a common house-fly, Dr. Taylor discovered minute snake-like animals moving quickly from the proboscis. Continuing his experiments from time to time since then, he finds that house-flies are very frequently inhabited by these animals. He has found them generally in the proboscis of the fly, although sometimes they are found in the abdomen, and he thinks that since flies are carriers of these minute snake-like animals they may in like manner be conveyers of contagious germs, much smaller bodies. These animals measure about eight one-hundredths to one-tenth or an inch in length, and about two one-thousandths of an inch in diameter. They are classed under the Nematoide, genus Anguillula. They are much larger than trichinæ or so-called vinegar eels. Mr. Taylor has found as many as seven of these animals in the proboscis of one fly and three more in the abdomen—ten in all. Sometimes none are discovered, sometimes one only, but frequently four are seen. Their presence is usually indicated by a rolling movement in the anterior portion of the proboscis. When this is observed, if a drop of water be placed upon it the animals will readily leave the proboscis and take to the water. They are frequently observed passing in and out of the proboscis, to and from the water, as if the proboscis was their natural home. A power of 25 diameters is sufficient to observe their general movements, but for examinations of their structure from 250 to 500 diameters is necessary. They are perceptible to the naked eye in certain light. Mr. Taylor proposes to make the experiment of feeding flies on trichinosed meat to test the possibility of trichinæ or the eggs of trichinæ being taken up by flies. These experiments may lead to very useful results in a sanitary point of view. — Washington (D. C.) Star, July 8.

"During the early part of last October, I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my right knee, says Mr. J. C. Connor, of the Royal Opera House, Toronto, Canada. "I used many so-called rheumatic remedies without receiving any apparent benefit. Observing that St. Jacobs Oil was being constantly recommended by many of the leading members of our profession, I decided to give it a trial. From the first application I commenced to improve, and before I had used two-thirds of a bottle I was entirely cured.

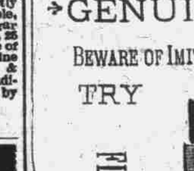
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

For Purifying the Blood.



This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions on the skin are the appearance at the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions, and Eruptive Diseases of the skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.
