

SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY.

The curious phenomena of glow are only beginning to be known. It is an alloy that would give an iron interior with a bronze veneer—a thing that proves to be not at all impossible.

In the production and control of a pure food supply by thoroughly scientific methods, the Germans are disposed to keep their lead.

The secret ballot provided by the Antimasonic Club in America consists of a small two-drop apparatus, supplied with electric current by a set of four dry cells.

The novel idea of a German mining engineer is an endless rope band as a pump in bore-holes. This absorbs a large quantity of air, salt and acid solutions.

SALT LAKEERS IN A NEAR DEAL. Sands-Fuller Property Near Battlementain Has a Good Showing.

HIGH GRADE COPPER ORE. Active Development to be Started Soon—Arrangements Now Being Made.

Among the other events of an unusually active week the sale of the Sands-Fuller property to New York and Salt Lake capitalists is probably the most important.

The development of this property, which is known as one of the most promising copper estates in the district, is of great interest since the conditions point almost unmistakably to an era of vast production equal to any of the great copper mines of the country.

Sufficient work has already been done on this property to prove the existence of large and rich ore bodies. The claims situated on the property are of an immense ledge traceable across the country for nearly four miles.

The former owners of the property, Messrs. L. C. Sands, W. L. Fuller, W. M. Gibson and H. H. Bingham, are experienced and practical mining men, well known and of high standing in the district.

The purchasers, who are known throughout the mining world, are James A. Pollock and Co., bankers and brokers, 8 West Second South Street.

WYOMING MINING NEWS. Red Canyon "Salting" Case Still Being Discussed. Special Correspondence. Lander, Wyo., Oct. 14.—W. P. Edwards, the engineer who has been in charge of the placer work of the Utah Development Company, before his departure for the east said that all men had been paid off and work suspended indefinitely.

WYOMING MINING NEWS. Local miners, and especially the "salting" men, do not believe the story of "salting" and point to the fact that during the past few months many thousands of dollars have been washed out of the Red canyon sands.

DEAL WAS RATIFIED. John Derr, who went to Park City yesterday in all day, a meeting of the directors of the Utah Development Company was held at his desk again today. As expected would be the case, the opinion of the board of directors in ratifying a majority of the deal concluded yesterday, the present shareholders of the Oreole are to receive shares for shares.
