

BLOOMIN' BOWLIN' TOO GOOD BA' JOVE

Denver Eleven Got an Awful Trouncing at Liberty Park Yesterday Don'tcheknow.

SALT LAKE CRICKETERS WIN.

The Trudging of Davies and Saunders Proved Too Much for the Colorado Willow Wielders.

With the assistance of two Ogden men Salt Lake put Denver to the tune of an inning and four runs. To those not initiated into the mysteries of the English national game of cricket this was an decent bad wallowing, don'tcher-know. Salt Lake could have performed this trick without the assistance of Ogden, but the local English colony thought it best to be on the safe side and get as good a team as possible to welcome the visitors. Hayward, the adept at late cuts and several others, got along with the home team, but the eleven did very nicely, thank you without their assistance.

An one mystified baseball enthusiast put it. "Salt Lake had best pitchers, and they always bangs the ball."

Sanders and Davies were too much for the visitors. The former capturing ten wickets in his first appearance, and the number of single run apiece. Such bowling analysis would be records in first class cricket. The exhibition at the park was a success, and the score was 100-0 in favor of first class Davies being the only man to reach double figures, and the wicket keeping of Williams was excellent. But what is not counted with the long shot.

When it came to fielding, Rev. Benj. Young at point possibly was the star man for Salt Lake. On Wednesday night he also showed himself like a youngster. Taken on the whole the fielding of Salt Lake was better than that of Denver. Man for man the Denver team had the best, but Davies and Claxton gave good showing of Davies and Saunders prevented them taking liberties and made them look like "two stars" on paper.

It is a great apology that Denver is used to playing on matting, which makes a faster pitch than turf. Then, too, the visitors had come nearly 80 miles and were not to be expected to play in consequence.

As it was Collis and Claxton gave evidence of handling the bat in good form.

The best exhibition of batting on the Salt Lake side was that of A. F. House, a young Australian, who while not making top score, nevertheless, played cricket according to the rules. Davies and Davies, however, more than equal champs of the happy-go-lucky, slugging order while Collis handled out seven in a pain-taking and careful manner.

Yesterdays game was so short that the players decided to start on today's with the result that Salt Lake went in first and was dismissed for a total of 57. The score of yesterday's game follows:

Wakeful?

Sleeplessness Is a Sign of Nerve Trouble and Should Be Looked To.

There are three different manifestations of sleeplessness.

First, hardly to sleep a wink all night, second, to wake a long time before falling asleep; third, to fall asleep soon waking up after several hours and then find it hard to sleep again.

They mean that somewhere in the brain cells, somewhere in the blood vessels that carry blood to the brain, something is radically wrong, and must be righted or the end may be worse than death.

To right it, take Dr. Miles' Nervine.

Some other symptoms of nerve trouble are: Dizziness, Headache, Backache, Worry, Fretfulness, Irritability, Melancholy, Lack of Ambition.

They indicate diseases which may lead to Epilepsy, Fits, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Prostration, Paralysis, Insanity.

Nothing will give such quick and lasting relief as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"My husband had been sick for weeks and I took Dr. Miles' Nervine and within a week he could not continue to grow worse. He could not sleep at all, and all day long he was restless, and I could not get him to dressed. From that time he steadily improved until he is now in full health.

Brooklyn, Aug. 21—Chicago, overwhelmed the visiting team. The fielding of the visitors played doubly, while the visitors had neither rest nor sleep. One girl was hit in the head, and another in the leg. I read of a case of nervous prostration, and the doctor said it was Dr.
Miles' Nervine. We began giving it to him and in a few days he was able to be dressed. From that time he steadily improved until he is now in full health.

Cleveland, Aug. 21—Cleveland and New York tied. The visitors won the first game and all the others lost. The Cleveland men reached first in the first game and none reached second, Hess was knocked out of the box in the first game and the visitors won. The second game was a pitcher battle between Bernhardi and Townsend, the former leading Washington down to two scratch hits after the first three.
Cleveland, however, had the edge. O'Rourke was the star at bat and Schaefer the winner, took everything.

Hard times, cold and wet comfort for any kind of a ring specialist, when the weather is as bad as it is now. The players are not to be blamed, but the fans are to blame. They are not to be blamed for the bad weather, but the fans are to blame.

It doesn't follow that there will be no quiet deadening match, but it would be just as well for both camps to be thoroughly aware when the time comes for the contest, the referee, the weather, the etc., etc. All the articles agree that the game must be stopped if the weather is bad enough.

Maybe the fellows behind Shaefer had got to thinking that the prospect was not too bright. And maybe art of the same reason, Shaefer, the winner, threw the ball over his shoulder, when he was about to start on the remainder of the season for dissipation. Attendance, 6,000.
