

WHY NOT ABOLISH THE BILL BOARDS?

This is the Question Women Are Discussing at Meeting This Afternoon.

WANT TO BEAUTIFY SALT LAKE

President Hewlett of Manufacturers' Association Behind the Movement—Women's Program.

At a meeting of the Women's club this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. V. Taylor in Poperton place, the club women will probably launch a question of untangling all women of the city in a movement for a more beautiful Salt Lake. Under the general question of "What Can a Woman Do Towards Making a Greater and More Beautiful Salt Lake?" the items that at present are detrimental to the city's growth, will be discussed, and treated as length. It is probable that the bill board nuisance will come in for general consideration, and that arguments will be advanced by Mrs. Taylor why these boards should be abolished completely from the residence districts and restricted in size in the main business districts.

OBJECTIONABLE SIGNS.

Reasons for making this change are that boards do the city no good, in the way of revenue, and bring in very little revenue to local parties. They are owned chiefly by a San Francisco firm, and advertise mostly an objectionable class of goods, such as whiskies and beers, which make poor reading when one has to have them standing next door to his residence, or perhaps to his church. A case in point comes from the Seventh street ward, where people have just erected a board, and at a large cost, and have done much to beautify its grounds. However, on the next lot, a huge bill board advertises whiskies, and it is not far from by all who gather there for worship as they enter or leave the building.

It is also held that the bill boards are unsafe in case of high winds, and are gathering places for thugs, where they can safely wait for a victim. More important than this they are frequently used by small boys as a rendezvous, as behind the protection they smoke their cigarettes and learn profanity such as they seldom hear except in such places.

OTHER CITIES ARE FIGHTING.

The bill board nuisance has become such in the past few years all over the country, the boards being built mostly at the instance of eastern concerns which desire to place advertising generally across country, and look on this as a good way to do it. Los Angeles is making a fight on them now, the east generally is taking it up, and it is probable that the discussion this afternoon will lead to a campaign in Salt Lake.

PRESIDENT HEWLETT OBJECTS.

President Hewlett of the Manufacturers' and Merchants' Association states that he is heartily in favor of the movement against the bill boards, and will bring it before his association. They are a public nuisance, he declares, and are unsightly and objectionable to residents. In this way they act to reduce property values on lots adjacent to where they stand, and he would like to see them limited strictly to the business district, and then confined to small signs.

PROGRAM IN FULL.

The full program for this afternoon's meeting is as follows: "School Problem," Prof. Christensen, city superintendent of schools; (a) duet, "Angela"—Chaminade, (b) "Utah State Anthem"—Radcliffe, Miss Emily Larson and Mrs. E. F. Cook; duet, "Overture to Oberon"—Von Oberon, P. N. Cook and Miss Edith Burns; "What Women Can Do to Make a Greater Salt Lake," Mrs. Allen T. Sanford and Judge E. F. Colburn; "Bill Boards," Mrs. E. F. Cook; "The Bill Board Problem," Mrs. E. F. Cook; "What Women Can Do to Make a Greater Salt Lake," Mrs. George Gattrell; "What Bill Boards Can Do for the City," Mrs. E. F. Cook; "The Bill Board Problem," Mrs. E. F. Cook; "What Women Can Do to Make a Greater Salt Lake," Mrs. George Gattrell; "What Bill Boards Can Do for the City," Mrs. E. F. Cook.

JAP PUMMELED HIM.

Man Who Refused to Pay for a Meal Gets Worst of It.

A contest in which it was Jiu Jitsu vs. Beef and Bravn took place at the Queen City restaurant on Commercial street this morning, and but for the timely arrival of Detectives Chase and Burt, Jiu Jitsu would have triumphed by the death of his rival. Jiu Jitsu came out of the fray triumphant, anyway, but not in the manner planned by him. The Jap known as T. Miyasaki, cowboy of the establishment referred to.

A burly fellow named Frank Gray, went into the place this morning and ordered breakfast. The Jap served him and after feasting, he walked out of the restaurant and refused to pay for the meal.

Miyasaki ran after Gray and demanded payment. The latter hit the little Jap on the head with a big rock, but as the Jap's head proved to be pretty hard, he refused to go down and out. Instead of taking the count, he took Gray by a nerve center, via Jiu Jitsu, and made Gray feel that he amounted to about as much as a "hiatus in a hole, or the end product of nothing." After trying Gray's nerve, the Jap, however, hit the little Jap began bouncing his fist off Gray's face until the salt Gray's countenance looked like a raw beefsteak after a thorough unassisted Gray could not "boller" for help. But someone turned in a riot alarm, and Chase and Burt rushed to the rescue. On their way to the scene of battle, they were informed that they did not hustle they would have a dead man on their hands.

The officers rescued the white man and then placed Gray and the Jap under arrest for fighting. The Jap says there was no fight, as he did not wait for his opponent to do anything more than hit him in the head with a rock. A decision will be rendered by Referee C. B. Diehl in the city court.

INDIA AND HER PEOPLE

There was a large and interested meeting in the Eleventh ward assembly room on Sunday night on the occasion of the lecture on "India and Her People" by Mrs. Frank Thompson. Her address was a highly displayed a perfect knowledge of her subject and everyone present listened with rapt attention and enjoyed fully the stereoscopic views which illustrated her talk.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Theater tonight the popular actress, Alberte Gallatin, will give her first rendition of the charming comedy "Cousin Kate."

The advance sale for the production of "Faust" by the Lewis Morris company will begin at the box office tomorrow morning. Mr. Morrison plays Friday night and Saturday afternoon and evening.

The new attractions at the Theater are "Sleeping Beauty and the Beast" on the 12th, 13th, and 14th, and Mine Modjeska's farewell performances on the 15th, 16th and 17th.

The sudden, looming up of a real tragedy on the horizon of a vaudeville stage is certainly a dramatic surprise, particularly when its appearance is in the midst of surroundings and accompaniments of merriment and merriment. But that is what happened at the Orpheum last night when Mr. Edwards Davis and Company presented the "Unmasking." Therefore the task of writing a criticism is an arduous one, for the critics are novel, Managers and directors would be less ready to conclude that critics are merciless and cherish if offerings like "Unmasking" were given their patrons with reason and regularity. It does a critic no good to get a reputation for caustic sentence-building or undue severity in the treatment of vaudeville entertainments. It is always more pleasant to commend than to condemn, and the "Unmasking" can be candidly commended. It is superbly staged and admirably presented. Its action is as gripping as any play, its plot, requiring but a scant half hour to brief, scene 1 is laid in the green room of a London theater and scene 2 a picturesque spot on Bosworth Field, where the deadly duel of the rival and the unmasking occur. Mr. Davis as Donald Devries plays the role of Richard III and Mr. Harrison King as Forest Forbes, the part of Richmond. Both are excellent, and Mr. Davis is now engaged in the writing of another. In the cast are four other persons, two gentlemen and two ladies, and each gave excellent support to the principals. They are decidedly worth seeing.

Additional good features of last night's bill are the high-kicking contortionists and rubber limbed comedians, Welch and Matilda La Gette, the gymnast and Joseph Newman in humorous songs and stories. While the latter will not assay very high, he does, as the proprietor says, carry some value. The highest compliment that can be paid Hallen & Hayes is to say that they danced as well as they sang, and acted awkwardly. Klekkio and Gave, a named of grand opera selection from "If Trovatore" in Italian, and bowed themselves off in an English rendition of "Star of My Life." So soon after the Savages they do not show the least of brilliancy.

The "Unmasking," and the rest, the entertaining kindred included, holds the boards for the remainder of the week.

At the Grand theater "Faust" is playing this week to fairly large audiences, the interest stirred up by the opera season no doubt accounting for the small portion of the attendance. More than that it has brought people who are not confirmed patrons of the melodrama, and therefore they find a great deal to object to, which those who take the drama in broad slices and their stirring scenes in large chunks, absorb without difficulty.

"Faust," it seems, has come along every season, just about the same as "East Lynne" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and it takes about as much talent to produce it. In such shows there seems never to be a superfluous supply of ability, and "Faust" is no exception to the rule, for in many respects it suggests a recital by the most promising pupils of some school of acting. For all that, however, it has its pleasing moments, and a large part of the audience enjoy it all the way through. "Faust" remains the bill until Wednesday evening, with the usual mid-week matinee.

At the Lyric the entertaining "Alcazar Beauties" company is drawing good business.

SIMPLY PREVARICATED.

Editor Deseret News: The statement made by the Salt Lake Tribune on Feb. 3 that I had been repudiated by the Manufacturers & Merchants' association is a characteristic lie of that paper, as it cannot show a vote or a letter of the Manufacturers & Merchants' association to that effect. I am not in religion or politics and neither are the Manufacturers & Merchants' association, and I do not believe that the Tribune by subterfuge, falsehood or misinterpretation of an interview can create a disturbance in the M. & M. association.

Yours truly, V. S. PEET.

TESTIMONY IN THE PAYNE CASE.

That of Mrs. Ferguson at Preliminary Hearing Offered in Evidence.

WOMAN COULD NOT BE FOUND

Defense Offers Numerous Objections But Some of Them Are Overruled—List of Jurors.

The taking of testimony in the case of the State of Utah against Dr. E. S. Payne, charged with murder in the second degree for the killing of Alice Ferguson by means of an alleged criminal operation, was commenced before the jury in Judge Armstrong's court this morning. Two witnesses were examined for the state after which Dist. Atty. Loofbourow read the testimony of Mrs. Anna Ferguson, the mother of the murdered girl, which was taken at the preliminary hearing.

MRS. FERGUSON NOT FOUND.

Deputy Sheriff Smith was the first witness called by the state. He testified over the objection of Judge Powers, of the defense, that he had received a subpoena for Mrs. Ferguson, but that he had been unable to find her in this state. He said that he heard the woman was in Tonopah, Nev., but he was not certain as to her whereabouts.

RECORD CORRECT.

John M. Hollis, who was the official stenographer at the preliminary hearing of the case, was called to the stand and testified as to the correctness of the record taken at the preliminary hearing. He testified that he had left to read the testimony of Mrs. Ferguson as given in the lower court.

OBJECTIONS BY DEFENSE.

Judge Marioneaux of the defense objected to the introduction of the testimony before the court to show that the witness could not be found in the state and on the further ground that the law provided that a defendant in a criminal case shall be confronted by the witnesses against him.

Judge Powers offered an additional objection on the ground that it was not shown that the witness was on, beyond the sea. The objections were overruled by Judge Armstrong and the reading of the testimony was proceeded with.

TESTIMONY READ.

The testimony of the woman as read detailed the number of visits made by Mrs. Ferguson and her daughter to the office of Dr. Payne and the operation as performed on Aug. 10, 1905, which resulted in the death of her daughter on the night of Aug. 11. A great deal of the testimony was corroborated by the testimony of the defense.

LYNCH RULED OUT.

Former Chief of Police Lynch was called to the stand at the conclusion of the reading of Mrs. Ferguson's testimony. He testified that he had seen her evidence, but the defense objected to his testimony and it was ruled out. The court at this point took a recess until this afternoon.

YOUNG WOMAN'S DEMISE.

Mrs. Alice Williams of Lake View a Victim of Bright's Disease.

(Special to the "News.")

Provo, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Alice Williams, wife of Henry Williams of Lake View, died last night at her home of Bright's disease, aged 23 years. The deceased came here with her mother, Mrs. Frances Martin, from Arkansas two years ago, and was married to Mr. Williams five months ago. She leaves besides her husband a mother, five brothers and one sister to mourn her untimely demise. The funeral will be held from the Third ward meetinghouse tomorrow at 11 a. m.

COMPLICITY CHARGED.

George Brown Alleged to be Connected With Theft of Tools.

This morning Detective Shannon arrested a man who gave the name of George Brown, on the charge of complicity in the burglary of the new Methodist church on Second and Second South streets, in which a large quantity of carpenter tools were stolen.

The officers believe that Brown was preparing to ship the tools to Los Angeles and follow them there. The man was unable to give ball and was locked up. Some of the tools have been located by the detective.

UTAH GOODS PURE.

State Chemist Harms Files Report on Canned Peas.

The report of the state chemist on the nine samples of canned peas submitted by State Food Inspector Peterson was filed at the state house today. The samples put up by Utah canners were found to be pure, while those from eastern factories, two contained saccharine, and one contained sulphate of copper. Saccharine is a product of coal tar, very powerful, and acts unfavorably on the kidneys. It is hardly necessary to explain that sulphate of copper is poisonous. It is one of the ingredients of Paris green. The state chemist says that Utah manufactured goods may be relied on as free from adulteration and deleterious substances.

FURNITURE GOING UP.

So Says Lester Freed on His Return From a Trip East.

Lester Freed has returned from his trip to Chicago and Grand Rapids. He says furniture prices have gone up 12 per cent of late and wood is becoming harder and harder to get. Walnut is now being brought from Circassia. A way has been found of treating cheap woods chemically so that they appear like the genuine. Oak, and maple is entering more and more into the manufacture of furniture. Fifty years ago Michigan people pointed with pride to the inexhaustible supply of timber with which the state was covered. Now wood is being shipped into that state for the making of furniture. Mr. Freed found business generally very satisfactory.

GAMBLERS TO GET MONEY BACK

After it is Returned to Them They Will Leave Salt Lake For Butte.

ARRANGEMENTS TO THAT END.

In the Meantime the "House" in the D. F. Walker Building Runs on Unmolested.

It is more than likely that the 22 alleged gamblers arrested in the raid on the house run by M. H. Wilson will be given an opportunity to leave the city. All are out on bonds of $50 each, but the money will be returned and the defendants released and given sufficient time in which to leave the city.

Most of them will go to Butte, they have been preceded by a number of the knights of the green cloth. The latter suddenly awoke to the fact that "the game" was open in Butte, and they hurried thither in order to be on the scene before some of the "profess" from San Francisco could get there.

In the meantime the "house" in the D. F. Walker building is still doing business as usual. The turf exchange is also running, but there seems to be some doubt in the minds of the officials as to whether the latter place could be "pulled" and the proprietors charged with gambling. It has once been held that the game played there is not gambling, under the law.

This morning, Mr. Wilson seemed to be the leader of the bunch now under arrest, held a consultation with the powers that be. After the conference he informed the others that they would be given ample time in which to take themselves to pastures more green. His announcement was received with many exclamations of joy and all declared their willingness to depart. The order to release the bond in each case will be made before Judge Diehl and the order will undoubtedly be made.

PERSONALS.

Governor John C. Cutler wires that he will reach home from Los Angeles tomorrow.

M. K. Parsons has returned from the Denver cattle convention, where he went as a delegate.

Patrick McCarron, a prominent attorney and mining man of Tonopah, is in the city today, and reports business in the Sage Brush state as progressing finely. H. E. Martine, formerly of this city, is also in town on a short trip, from Goldfield.

The Austin party of tourists, headed by Messrs. Geo. Mark, Heber and John Austin, including Judge Hatch, Mr. George Romney, president, and V. G. Whitney acting as secretary. The reports of the officers for the past year were read, showing that the company had experienced one of the most prosperous years in its history, having paid $25,000 dividends, 10 per cent on its capital and also having carried $15,000 to undivided profits. The total assets of the company at book values amount to $249,953.17.

The following directors and officers were chosen for the next year, the only change being the insertion of the name of L. S. Hills in the place of that of the late Henry Dinwoodey. Heber J. WRECK VICTIMS NUMBER THREE.

Third is W. F. Stephens, a Brake-man, Who Died En Route To Salt Lake.

TWO OTHERS BADLY INJURED.

One, David Bullock of Parowan, is at The Hospital in Quite a Critical Condition.

Three men dead and two injured, one of whom is in a serious condition, is the sequel to the wreck on the Salt Lake Route, one mile and a half east of Beryl, Utah, yesterday.

Owing to the effort on the part of the operating department to suppress the details, several conflicting stories were in circulation, which ranged from two to four men killed, the latter being the report in Senator W. A. Clark's paper here this morning.

The facts in the case are that three men are dead, the addition to those whose names were given in the "News" Mr. Bullock being W. F. Stephens, brakeman, who resided at Black Rock. He was alive when taken from the wrecked caboose, but shortly after being placed on the special train for Salt Lake, he died from the injuries received.

BODIES BROUGHT HERE.

The three bodies were brought into this city last evening, and are now at Evans' undertaking parlors.

On the same train were two injured men, David Bullock, who resides near Parowan, and E. N. Nuginni of Salt Lake.

Mr. Bullock's condition is critical, and he lies at the Holy Cross hospital, suffering from terrible scalp wounds and some bad bruises. It is believed also that he has received internal injuries.

A PROMINENT SHEEP MAN.

Mr. Bullock is one of the best known sheep men of southern Utah, and is credited with being worth six figures. He was accompanying a consignment of live stock on the ill-fated No. 81 at the time of the accident, and was asleep in the caboose when the train broke in two and left nine cars on the track for the second section to come crashing into through the heavy fog some minutes later. Late this afternoon Dr. Hooser, the company surgeon, reported his condition to be fair with a chance of recovery.

E. N. Nuginni, is somewhat bruised up but in comparison to the injuries of Mr. Bullock his hurts are but slight. He is employed by Boyd Park of this city and was on a trip of inspection over the line inspecting the clocks at the depots and the watches of the operators and trainmen.

The engineer and fireman who last night were reported as being injured while jumping from the locomotive before the actual smash occurred, suffered no serious injury. The fireman, who was reported as being injured, was not seriously injured, and did not put them out of commission.

ANDERSON CHILD IS DOING WELL.

Little Fellow Who Was So Badly Hurt Yesterday Morning Is Improving.

WAS NOT STEALING A RIDE.

He and a Playmate Were Passing Behind the Wagon When Heavy Boxes Fell Out.

At the Groves L. D. S. hospital this afternoon it was learned that young Charles Anderson, the five-year-old boy who was seriously injured yesterday by being struck by two heavy packing boxes which fell from a dray, was resting well, and had greatly recovered from the shock subsequent to the accident.

Robert L. Anderson, the boy's father, called in Dr. S. C. Baldwin, Dr. J. S. Richards, and Dr. Benedict, yesterday afternoon, after a consultation they reduced the fractures in both limbs. In case the bruise on the forehead does not develop serious trouble, it is now thought that the youngster will recover. One leg, however, will probably be permanently deformed, as the bones are badly shattered about the knee. The other, which was broken near the thigh joint, will heal much more rapidly and perfectly.
