COMMISSION SAYS

EXPRESS RATES TOO HIGH

Washington, April 28.—In a decision prepared by Commissioner Prouty, the interstate commerce commission deterinterstate commerce commission deter-mined today that express rates from New York, St. Louis and Omaha to Denver, are unreasonably high. The decision was rendered in the case of George J. Kendel against the Adams Express company, and all other express companies doing an east and west busi-ness. The commission held that the base rates of $4 per 100 pounds from Omaha to Denver, and of $4.25 per 100 pounds from Denver, should not exceed $3.50 and $4 respectively.
