Navy Department.—A number of the passengers lost by the steamer California, mentioned, five seafarers of Mr. Cleveland. The company allowed them to go under that designation at half price. One of them was Dr. Babcock, of this city; another was Colonel A. Cleveland, of Buffalo, who served in the war under General Banks; another was Joe Throckmorton, clerk, of Philadelphia. The company, who were going to Nasau, as a housekeeper.

John Bodley, a drunken rough, kicked Mrs. McTierny, this morning in a grocery on Cherry street, causing fatal injuries. Her son, in defending his mother, fatally stabbed Bodley with a butcher knife.

Marshal Ellsworth has decided to appoint additional deputies for service on election day in those districts where trouble is apprehended.

There is a marked improvement in the horse disease, and it is believed that by Monday the cars will be running on nearly all the lines.

The Scott monument will be unveiled in Central Park to-morrow. Wm. Cullen Bryant and others will deliver addresses.

It is reported that the Western Union Telegraph Company have applied for an injunction, restraining the working of all opposition lines in the United States, claiming that the operation of such lines under the present system is a violation of the patent improvements, which the company desire to be included in the laws of the state.

WASATCHIXON, 1.—A special says that acting Secretary Richardson says, to-day, that the use of the four millions greenbacks reserve was caused by the rapid redemption of the three per cent certificates during the last few months, of which there have been called in about forty millions, leaving only about five millions outstanding. If the extension of the term of the notes, with the result of the last two weeks, the currency to the lower limit authorized by law, viz., two hundred and fifty-six millions; and this course will necessitate the restoration of the four millions of greenbacks issued last month to the reserve fund again.

At a banquet on board the pioneer steamer Glamorgan, of the South Wales and the Atlantic, at St. George's Inn, the guests were given a present of the Queen, the Queen of Great Britain, and queen of the South Wales S. Co. The latter was responded to by Archibald Baxter, agent of the line, who in his remarks said the great advantage of the line was the close connection it formed with the great railroads on both sides of the Atlantic.

They now had but one single ship from Alaska via San Francisco, and they had given them in London without a cent of charge for carriage.

The funeral of Mrs. Greeley took place to-day from Dr. Chapman's church. The coffin plate was simply inscribed "Mary T. C. Greeley," and was read by Dr. Chaplin, who delivered a short address on the virtues of the deceased, and her consistency under her sorrows. The services were taken at Greenwood Cemetery. The deceased were Mr. Greeley and his two daughters. The funeral was very largely attended.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 1.—Most of the Cabinet and heads of bureaus in the Executive Departments will return to their respective States to vote for President. Owing to the great distance, Attorney-General Williams will not go to Oregon to vote.

Information of the statement by the Department of State that the statement published in various newspapers in this country, in July last, that the German government was seeking to prevent immigration to the United States, and had adopted stringent measures for that purpose, is denied by the government, which disclaims having issued such orders, or having discontinued compliance to this country in any way.

In accordance with the President's recent proclamation with reference to discriminating duties, the collectors of customs are instructed by the Secretary of State to collect and collect from and after the date of the proclamation, namely, the 1st October, a discriminating duty of twenty per cent, of all vessels upon all merchandise imported into their respective districts in French vessels, from countries other than France. The discriminating duty does not apply to Swiss vessels trading in French vessels, Switzerland having no shipping port of its own, and Swiss goods destined for the United States, must be shipped by vessels imported by the government of the law, when they pass the French boundary between France and Switzerland.
