Latest News from Arkansas. LITTLE ROCK, 21.—Colonel Ross, commandant, took possession of the telegraph office to day, and opened it to the public. Owing to his in-terference with the military opera-tions, Baxter has accomplished no-thing. Baxter, to-day, sent to the President a despatch, rehearsing the case, and stating his position. He complains that the U. S. troope neither aid nor allow the suppres-sion of the insurrection, and request that they be ordered to assist him or to leave him freedom to act; he relies confidently on the promises in the President's letter of Sept., 1878, to prevent the overthrow of his authority.
