Comes to Meet With Local Baseball Officials Tonight. President W. H. Lucas of the Pacific National Baseball league arrived in Salt Lake today from Seattle where he lately met President Dugdale of the club representing that city. President Lucas will be joined this evening by "Honest John" McCloskey, the man who managed the Salt Lake club last year, and who is

Salt Lake club last year, and who is slated for the position during the season of 1904. It is understood that a meeting will be held this evening with the local baseball authorities, during which the af-fairs of the club and league in general will be discussed. President Lucas could not say definite-ly when the annual meeting of the league will be held, but it will probably not be until the outlaws in California have held their meeting, and it is known whether or not they will come into the national agreement. It is the purpose of President Lucas to visit each city in the circuit before the annual meeting and learn exactly how matters stand.
