FRIGHTFUL MORTALITY
IN PARIS!

NEW YORK.
A Sortie—Damage by Fire—Telegraph
Cables being repaired—A Strike of Shoemakers Pending—The Army of the Loire Leaving Orleans.

NEW YORK, 2.—The Tribune's cablegram says, firing is going on to-day in the direction of Charenton. The weather is bright and the ground hard, very favorable for army movements. The German troops are near Orleans.

A correspondent at Orleans telegraphs at 8 a.m., to-day: "The army of the Loire at this moment is marching out from its headquarters and leaving Orleans. The Prussians have concentrated between Joaillan and Pithiviers.

At a meeting of the workingmen's union this evening, one of the Knights of St. Crispin said the joint council of that body had been in session during the week, and had taken steps preparing for a general strike of the trade next. It is said the employers have resolved to break up the Crispins; and one of them was now building a factory for Chinese workmen and soon Coolie labor will be largely employed.

A series of games of billiards has been arranged between Rudolph, Dion, Parker and Daniels. Garner has accepted Rudolph's recent challenge.

The damage by the fire yesterday to the caisson of the East River bridge is about $25,000.

A special correspondent of the Tribune from Versailles, telegraphs on the 30th: A sortie was attempted against Choisey le Roi, and a feigned attack upon Montrouge and Bezons would have been pushed home had the Prussian lines proved weak. The French began their movement against Bezons in the middle of the night of the 29th, by a heavy cannonade on Mont Valerien, and attempted to force a way through a bridge across the Seine. Fire was exchanged between the belligerents on the opposite sides of the river while the French were preparing an attack on Montrouge under cover of the guns of the new outwork at Mont Valerien. This attack commenced at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The Prussians were vigorously shelled, and detachments of the gardes mobiles began to skirmish. Several Prussian field batteries and a large force of the line of infantry, soon advanced to support the Jager companies, and the Prussians engaged with the French gun boats on the Seine, which took part in the action and shelled the Jagers. There were two or three attacks on Montrouge, as if to storm the Prussian works; but the French supports were maneuvered as to give the air of orders having been received not to advance, although they were in strong force. The enemy suffered much from the fire of the Jagers. About noon the fire from Fort Valerien slackened, and the mobiles were withdrawn.

NEW YORK, 3.—Western Union telegrams are very strong.

At this hour, 2 p.m., no European telegrams have been received, at the Associated Press office, to-day's date. This is explained by the statement from the cable authorities, that the directors of the line in England have ordered the transmission eastwardly by the French cable of messages which have accumulated in America since the recent disaster to the English cable. Messages are now going forward rapidly. Late events in France have caused an enormous increase in the number of messages both ways, and the facilities of the telegraph company, having only one wire instead of three as heretofore, are taxed to the utmost. It is likely, however, that eastward business will soon be cleared away, when the dispatches will come forward as usual. Meanwhile the steamer Robert Lous is actively at work repairing the English cables, and the telegraph authorities trust that communication will soon be restored in that direction.

FRANCE.—The Prussians have been concentrating at Etampes, thirty miles south of Paris, to dispute the advance of d'Arbelles and d'Paladines. Frederic Charles has left Pithiviers.

TOURS, 2.—The Prussians are concentrating at Etampes, thirty miles south of Paris, to dispute the advance of d'Arbelles and d'Paladines. Frederic Charles has left Pithiviers.

LILLE, 2; ever—Ducrot's sortie from Paris was successful. He is now seeking to effect a junction with d'Paladines. Franco-tireurs have beaten the Prussians at Tirmille.

ARDENNES, 2.—A force of a thousand Germans occupies Abbeville in the department of Somme, & German columns are threatening Domfront, near Abbeville in the same department.

F. B. Delos Casas, a California pioneer, and son of an exiled Spanish nobleman, born in Massachusetts, and long connected with the post office here, died of consumption to-day.

W. M. Donavan was convicted of the murder of George Winchell, at Martin, Contra Costa county, to-day.
