

FRANCO FLED TO SAVE HIS LIFE

REPUBLICAN LEADERS FREED.

Did Not Occasion Any Trouble—Gov. ernment Appeals to Country To Obey the Laws.

Lisbon, Feb. 6.—The secret and sudden flight of Franco, the former premier of Portugal, from Lisbon across the frontier into Spain, accompanied by his wife and son, was caused by threats of death which had been made against him. Since the murder of the king, Franco has been in receipt of many letters, all threatening vengeance. Already Franco as dictator had been plotted against and had gone about protected by armed guards, who also watched his house lest those who also opposed his iron rule should do him harm and of late these threats were added the enmity of those who held that Franco was responsible, indirectly at least, for the tragedy of Saturday last.

Two of Franco's ministers also have disappeared. Senhor Carvalho, it is said, fearing reprisals after the murders, hid himself in the garret of the ministry of finance until he saw an opportunity to flee from the city, and Dr. Abreu, the former minister of justice, it is believed, took his departure several days ago.

The release of several deputies and other leading Republicans from prison today did not occasion any trouble, and others will be released tomorrow. Thirteen persons arrested at the time of the assassination have been released after a most rigid examination, no proof being found against them.

The new government's program, or the absence of program, from the political standpoint, as enunciated by Premier Pimenta in his declaration that he intended to enforce respect for the laws and public order, for which the present legislation is amply efficient, but that he would not be afraid to face danger wherever it might take him, is characteristic of a man trained to obey orders and shows that he is the master mind of the cabinet. Like a bluff soldier, in the quarterdeck, he proposes that, with the constitution for a chart, he will lay his course by the laws of the land.

Nothing apparently could be simpler or more direct than his plan for restoring normal conditions. The government, in making an appeal to the country to obey the laws, sets an example by removing, so far as possible, all traces of the exceptional regime of Franco, annulling the powers contained in the hands of the cabinet, restoring the liberty of the press and parliamentary immunity, making the municipal boards appointed by the former premier and abolishing the exceptional powers conferred on police tribunals. It does not grant amnesty, but political prisoners may now go before the courts to be tried in accordance with the law. The elections will be held as soon as possible, and the people will make their response.

Various foreign missions to attend the funeral of the late king and the crown prince are now on their way to Lisbon. They include representatives of the governments of Italy, Belgium and Serbia, as well as the German mission, headed by Prince Eltel Frederick, third son of Emperor William, and the English mission, headed by the Duke of Connaught.

The Seculo, an independent newspaper, expresses the opinion in its issue of today that the decrees promulgated by King Manuel are just, but that they are an insufficient response to the demands of public sentiment. "One must delve deeply into the national soul," the paper says, "to understand this country on the king and crown prince—the agitation which preceded it and the causes which explain it. Calm will come to the country only when liberty is sustained by high moral forces."

FRANCO IN MADRID.

Madrid, Feb. 6.—Senhor Franco, the former premier of Portugal, arrived here today from Lisbon. He was accompanied by his wife and son and one of his intimate friends, Senator Novas. He is doing all possible to preserve the strictest incognito, so far as is known, he received no one at the hotel where he stopped, with the exception of the Portuguese minister to Spain and the civil governor of Madrid.

Few persons saw Franco when he arrived, and scarcely any one recognized him, for the moment the train stopped, he hurriedly stepped down with the overcoat collar turned up to escape possible recognition.

Word had privately reached the railroad authorities from the frontier station of Alcantara that Franco was a passenger on the express going to Madrid, and they immediately ar-

Sleep And Rest

Every movement of the body consumes energy. So does mental effort. Energy is supplied by the nerves. It follows that physical or mental exhaustion simply means an over-draft on the nerves. Nature restores energy through rest and sleep. You cannot sleep with tired nerves. Dr. Miles' Nervine soothes the irritation and restores nervous energy.

"Although I have lived nearly 73 years, I have stood up against temptation for public life, but the unequalled excellence of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, as a medicine for inherent nervousness, induced by long residence in a high altitude compelled me to recognize its superiority over every other medicine I have ever used, for nervousness and sleeplessness. I feel sure that the Nervine is free from injurious opiates found in most medicines for insomnia, and can conscientiously recommend it to the aged and nervous." MRS. W. F. HARRIS, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

THREE CURES OF SEVERE ECZEMA

Michigan Woman Tells of Her Brother's Terrible Suffering with the Disease—Grandchild and Another Baby also Permanently Cured.

CUTICURA REMEDIES PROVED INVALUABLE

"My brother had eczema three different summers. About the same time each summer it came out between his shoulders and down his back, and he said his suffering was terrible. He used different kinds of medicines, but nothing seemed to do him much good. When it came on the third summer, he bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and gave it a faithful trial. Soon he began to feel better and he cured himself entirely with Cuticura and has never been bothered with eczema since. He also used Cuticura to cure a bunch of his eyes and a terrible corn which was so bad that he could not wear his shoe. A lady in Indiana heard of how my daughter, Mrs. Miller, had cured her little son of terrible eczema by the Cuticura Remedies. This lady's little one had the eczema so badly that they thought they would lose it. She used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and it cured her child entirely, and the disease never came back. Mrs. Sarah E. Luak, 67 Peckham St., Coldwater, Mich., Aug. 15 and Sept. 2, 1907."

On the arrival of the train, Senor Franco quickly descended the steps from the car and held out his hand to aid his wife. As he turned, it could be seen that Franco's face was drawn and careworn, his air was one of depression and utter weariness. He peered up and down the platform distrustfully, almost fearfully.

The police drew up on either side of the party, who hastily entered carriages and drove rapidly away. They went directly to the Hotel de la Paix, where the former premier secluded himself in his private apartment. A cordon of detectives was immediately thrown around the hotel. An official who watched Senor Franco for a long time described his appearance in the following words:

"He looks ill, dreadfully ill; his face is lined and pallid, and shows great suffering. He seems like a man in great fear."

Madrid newspapers which appeared on the streets after Franco's arrival stated that Franco's journey here was "really a flight, protected by police."

He took ill, dreadfully ill; his face is lined and pallid, and shows great suffering. He seems like a man in great fear."

MORSE REQUESTED TO COME BACK

At Instance of U. S. District Attorney His Counsel Sent Him a Wireless.

THINKS HE WILL RETURN SOON

Officers Still Very Busy Serving Attachment Papers on Abscondee's Agents.

New York, Feb. 6.—At the request of United States Dist. Atty. Stimson, Albert S. Boardman, counsel for Charles W. Morse, late today cabled his client at Liverpool asking that Morse return to this city. Mr. Boardman believes that the banker will take passage on the first steamer sailing west after the arrival at Queenstown of Liverpool of the Cunard line steamship Campania, upon which, his attorneys say, Morse sailed from here last Saturday.

The attorney's cable, it is expected, will be re-sent by wireless to the Campania when the vessel is reported off Brownhead, Ireland, 70 miles west of Queenstown. The steamer had not reported tonight, but her agents expected to hear from her before morning. The White Star liner Baltic will sail from Queenstown tomorrow, but it is hardly possible that Morse could connect with her.

Atty. Boardman's action in cabling his client followed an hour's conference with Mr. Stimson, who was in charge of the investigation before the federal grand jury of the recent conduct of certain national banks.

Mr. Boardman had been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury today, supposedly, he said, to tell what he knew of Morse's connection with certain banking institutions. The jury, however, did not reach Mr. Boardman's testimony, and sent word for him to return tomorrow. In the meantime, a Boardman had been closeted with the federal district attorney. As he left the federal building, Mr. Boardman was asked whether he had said that he could produce Morse should that gentleman be wanted.

"No," he replied, "but at the request of United States Atty. Stimson I have cabled Mr. Morse at Liverpool to come back and I have reason to believe that he will return, at once. He is not on the Campania."

Asked why Mr. Stimson had requested him to ask Mr. Morse to return, Mr. Boardman said:

"I do not know, but I suppose it is because a good many people here want him."

Mr. Stimson would say nothing as to why he desired the presence here of the man, who, after he had organized the American Ice company and the Consolidated Steamship company, and was reported to be worth $2,000,000, became disastrously involved in the fortunes of the banks which he had been able to control.

"It is the policy of my office to divulge nothing concerning criminal proceedings which may affect persons and institutions," said Mr. Stimson.

Concerning the summoning before the federal grand jury of Mr. Boardman and former Justice Morgan J. O'Brien, the latter also a member of the law firm of O'Brien, Boardman & Platt, the federal officer said:

"I have nothing whatever to say and the public is at liberty to draw any conclusions it may see fit concerning the appearance of Lawyers Boardman and O'Brien before the federal grand jury. I cannot discuss the matter, neither will I admit or deny any of the rumors current."

The rumor referred to by Mr. Stimson were to the effect that the present grand jury was likely to return indictments in the banking cases soon.

Several weeks ago Mr. Stimson admitted that the federal grand jury since early in December had been investigating the bank situation, but as to the likelihood of indictments he then declined to talk.

Disclosures of the troubles of Morse followed each other in rapid succession today. One of these was to the effect that the credit banks which under his making him an involuntary bankrupt, thereby absorbing the remnants of his fortune. Deputy sheriffs were kept busy today serving copies of the attachment in the suit brought by Charles A. Hanna, receiver for the National Bank of North America in New York, against Morse to recover $243,320. Copies of the attachment have been served on officers of the bank in which Morse was supposed to have had accounts. A deputy sheriff has seized 4,402 shares of stock of the Furnace Valley Copper company said to be owned by Morse. Another levy on stock in the Kingsland Copper company, said to have been owned by Morse. A deputy sheriff has also served a copy of the attachment on K. A. Wilson, in charge of the Morse residence in Fifth avenue.

WILL OPPOSE ALDRICH BILL.

New York, Feb. 6.—The Merchants' association of New York, representing the wholesale and retail commercial interests of the city, today announced its decision to oppose the Aldrich financial bill which has been presented in Congress. The association has voted to immediately lay its objection to the measure before New York's representatives in Congress and also to communicate with other commercial bodies throughout the country, with a view to securing co-operation in the stand they have taken. The decision was based upon the report of a special committee which was appointed to make a thorough investigation of the various currency measures that have been proposed since the panic of last October. In announcing the decision, President Clarence Whitman said the association had not committed itself to any substitute currency measure.

"At present," said Mr. Whitman, "we are more interested in preventing the adoption of some dangerous makeshift measure, of which the Aldrich bill is a fair sample."
